P r e f a c e .

HE N the FIRST AND ONLY COLLECTED EDITION of “THE POEMS OF THE SEMPILLS OF BELTREES” [Sir James, Robert, and Francis], was published in the year 1849, it was remarked that “A Collection of the Poems of ROBERT SEMPILL,—an author of so much ability and reputation,—is certainly a desideratum in Scottish Literature, which the Publisher may at no distant period endeavour to supply.” Since that time various matters occurred which prevented such an endeavour from being carried out. The chief cause was the rather sudden and unexpected death, on the 22nd April 1863, at the age of fifty-two years, in London, of my friend and well-wisher, WILLIAM BARCLAY DAVID DONALD TURNBULL, Esq., Advocate, who had undertaken for me the duty of Editor. Many of the “Ballates” were copied by MR. TURNBULL during his residence in London, and amid his engagements, either as a Barrister-at-Law of Lincoln’s Inn or as a student of history at the State Paper Office. But there were several others of them which he found at that time difficult of access.* However, through the kind assist-

* A very interesting Memoir of Mr. Turnbull, with Notices of the Sale of his highly valuable (Second) Library, and that of his various Bibliographical labours, from the pen of John Gough Nichols, Esq., appeared in “The Herald and Genealogist for January 1864.” It was afterwards “Reprinted with some corrections,” and circulated separately. His remains are interred in the grounds of the Episcopal Church at the Dean Bridge, Edinburgh.

ance of JOSEPH WALTER KING EYTON, Esq. F.S.A. of Elsham Road, Kensington, London, and that of DAVID LAING, Esq., LL.D., Librarian to the Society of Writers to the Signet, Edinburgh, copies of all these have since been obtained, and the other difficulties overcome. This Collection, or series of Historical, Political, and Satirical Poems, Ballads, and Pasquinades, is of the highest interest and curiosity. The pieces of which it is composed were originally issued as BROADSIDES and SMALL TRACTS, printed in BLACK-LETTER, between the years 1567 and 1591, chiefly during the reign of the Earl of Murray as Regent for Mary Queen of Scots and her son James the Sixth. They have now been here brought together and REPRINTED in a uniform style, without the slightest alteration, and thereby made accessible to Antiquaries for the FIRST TIME. No doubt these "Ballates" have been characterized as "gross, illiberal, and obscene;" but they are not unworthy of preservation. Every writing coeval with the great and momentous occurrences of the SIXTEENTH CENTURY must be regarded as interesting, more especially if in any instance historical reality can be contrasted with popular belief. Many of these BLACK-LETTER BROADSIDES, describing the death of the King Henry Darnley, and the Assassination of the "Good Regent" Murray, &c., were scattered amongst the people, and the exasperation of the two parties in the state became daily more incurable. On the rarity of these Broadsides it is superfluous to enlarge. In many, if not in most, instances they are UNIQUE. Few or no Duplicates of them are to be met with in Public or Private Libraries; a circumstance for which it is easy to account, if we reflect that they were seldom printed in a form calculated for preservation. Several of the Poems are ANONYMOUS; but they are not the less interesting and curious as expressing the sentiments of contemporaries, and may thus be considered as contributions to the history rather than the poetry of the age.

Of ROBERT SEMPILL, to whom the Authorship of the “Ballates illustrative of Public Affairs about the close of the Regency of James Earl of Murray,” has been attributed, little or nothing is known. He has been described as “a copious and voluminous versifier of wars,” and also as being “one of the most persevering and most unsuccessful of the period.” He is represented to have been “Robert, Fourth Lord Sempill, a Scottish Peer;” but his identity at this moment remains as doubtful as ever it did. Certain it seems, however, that none of the Lords Sempill were poets ; and although it is altogether extraordinary that the identity of an author of so much ability and reputation as Robert Sempill should have been lost sight of, still it is nevertheless true that it has hitherto eluded all research. Lord Sempill professed the Roman Catholic Religion, while the poems of Robert Sempill contain the most unequivocal proofs of having been written by a Protestant and very zealous Presbyterian. There is some reason to believe that Robert Sempill was a Captain in the Army ; he speaks of himself as being present at the “Sege of Edinburgh Castle.” His poems are said to be “indecent and unpoetical,” and his “Legend of the Bischop of St Androis Lyfe,” is spoken of as “a compound of vulgarity, passion, and malevolence,” and also “as a most persevering, gross, and illiberal attack on the character of Dr. Patrick Adamson, who was a scholar, a man of talents, and a prelate of ingenuity and of erudition, but was not free from the glaring errors into which churchmen are sometimes betrayed by the fatal allurements of ambition. He became” it is added, “successively Minister of Paisley, Chaplain to the Regent, and Archbishop of St. Andrews. These honours were not obtained without loud impeachments of his consistency and sincerity. And when the Archbishop was rapidly sinking into poverty and contempt, Sempill employed himself in the composition of this cruel invective.”* On the other side, THOMAS DEMPSTER, in his “Historia Ecclesiastica Gentis Scotorum : sive, De Scriptoribus Scotis 1627,” (page 602,) Edinburgh, (Bannatyne Club), 1829, represents Robert Sempill as exhibiting the combined excellencies of Propertius, Tibullus, Ovid, and Callimachus. His Panegyric is too remarkable to be omitted :—

In “Robert Birrel’s Diary 1532-1605,” printed in the “Fragments of Scottish History,” Edited by John Graham Dalyell, and published in 1798, it is recorded that there was in “1568 The 17 of Januarii, a play made by Robert Semple, and played before the Lord Regent, and divers uthers of the Nobilitie.” There have been several conjectures as to this Play and its author, with little satisfactory result. It was probably a very simple representation of some historical scene or transaction, such as we can imagine the life of the execrable Bothwell to have gratefully furnished before such a company. However, it is generally supposed to have been “A verie excellent and delectable Comedie, intituled Philotos.” It was first printed at Edinburgh by Robert Charteris in 1603. Another Edition appeared in 1612; and a reprint of the First Edition, edited by Dr. Irving, was presented to the Members of the Bannatyne Club by John Whitefoord MacKenzie, Esq., Edinburgh, in 1835.

JOHN KNOX, in a letter to Thomas Randolph, 3rd May 1564, remarks that—"Boht youris ar cumen to my handis with your bow, for the which I hartelie thank you. Rollettis tydingis are as yit buried in the breastis of two within this realme, butt Maddye telleht ws many newes: 'The mess shall up, the Bischope of Glaskier and Abbot of Dunfermling come as Ambassadouris from the General Counsall, my Lord Bothwell shall follow, with power to putt in execution whatsoever is demanded, and our Soveraine will have done; and then shall Knox and his preaching be pulled by the earis, etc.' Thus with ws ravis Maddye* every day; but heirupon I greatlie pans not."

SEMPILL appears to have been in such a rank of life as not to be above ordinary rewards for his services, as on the 12th of February 1567-8 there is an entry in the Lord High Treasurer's Books of £66, 13s. 4d. "to Robert Semple." And Alexander Montgomery, (Author of "The Cherrie and the Slaye"), in a sonnet addressed to Robert Hudson, specifies Sempill as not exempted from the too common misfortunes of poets :—

" Ye knew ill guyding genders mony gees,
And specially in Poets: for example,
Ye can pen out tua cuple and ye pleis,
Yourself and I, old Scott and Robert Semple."

* "Maddye," a name in common use at all time, and occurring in some of the Ballads of Robert Sempill; one, for instance, ends—"Quod Maddie, Prioress of the kaill-market." Richard Bannatyne, in his Memorials, 1570, also speaks of "Madie in our fisch merkat," &c.—John Knox's Works, Collected and Edited by David Laing. Vol. VI. p. 541. Letter lxxviii, Edinburgh, Thomas George Stevenson, 1864.

On the 19th April 1567, an Act was passed, “ Anentis the Makaris and Vpsettaris of Plackardes and Billis,” viz.,—“ For samekle as be ane licentious abuse enterit laitle and cum in practize within this Realme, Thair hes bene placardes and billis and ticquettis of defamatioun sett vp vnder silence of nycht in diuerse publict places alswiell within Burgh as vtherwyse in the Realme. In the “ Diurnal of Remarkable Occurrents that have passed within Scotland, 1513-1575,” published by the Bannatyne Club in 1833, it is recorded that “ Vpoun the twantie nyne [nynetene ?] day of Apryle 1567, our souerane ladie com with the nobilitie to the parliament, and come to the tolbuith ; and certane Actis wes maid thairefter. In "The Autobiography and Diary of MR. JAMES MELVILLE, Minister of Kilrenny, in Fife, 1556-1610," (Wodrow Society Edition, 1842), it is recorded that while he was at Montrose in the year 1570, "Ther was also ther a post, (a carrier or messenger, John Finheavin), that frequented Edinbruche, and brought ham Psalme Buikes and Ballates ; namlie, of Robert Semple's making, wherin I tuik pleasour, and lernit sum thing bathe of the esteat of the countrey, and of the missours and cullors of Scottes ryme."

DAVID CALDERWOOD, in his "History of the Kirk of Scotland," records under date 1582, that "Robert Sempill was takin out of his bed tymouslie in the morning, upon Tuisday, the 5th of June, by William Stewart, Arran's Brother, and was sent to Kinneill the nixt morning, because it was alledged he had receaved letters frome the Earle of Angus," And again, under date 1584, remarks that Bishop Adamsone's "Behaviour in his journey to, at, and from Londoun, is sett doun in a certan poem made by Robert Sempell, a Scottish Poet, intituled, "The Legend of the Lymmar's Life." The summe is, he pretended he was to goe to the well of Spaw ; but his intent was no farther than England. As he went by Yorke, he caused Johne Harper, a Scottish tailyeur, tak off frome the merchants a doublet and breaches of Turkie taffatie ; promised payment when he returned back, alledging that the Scotish merchants at Londoun would give him as muche money as he desired. But he returned another way, and so the tailyeour was disappointed of his seven pund sterline. After he gott presence, he stayed two months, but gott never presence again. He frequented the French ambassader's hous, where he gott his fill of good white wine. He would have borrowed frome the Frenche ambassader an hundredth pund ; but the ambassader was advertised by one of his servants, that he had borrowed frome his mother in Parise fyfteeene crownes, and frome other neighbours lesse or more, but never payed a groat again. Yitt the ambassader gave him ten punds sterline knitt in a napkin nuike, saying he might spaire no more for the present. He borrowed likewise from Scotish merchants at Londoun, and couensed them, speciallie Gilbert Donaldsone and Patrik White. He alledged that he had sent some letters of great importance with Patrik White. The said Patrik tooke oathe he saw no suche thing ; yitt he was forced to leave the land, and so was he paid for his 300 merk Another merchant gave him ten pund sterline, to purchase him licence to transport fortie last of English beare. He went to Secretar Walsinghame, and purchased a licence, alledging it was to serve his owne hous at home ; but he gave the licence to another man, from whom he tooke twentie pund sterline. He borrowed frome the Bishop of Londoun a gowne to teache in. The bishop lent him a gown of grograne silk, weill lynned with costlie furrings ; but [Adamsone] restored it not againe. He begged hackneyes, bookees, &c., from bishops, and payed them after the same maner. When he was to gett presence of the queene, this famous ambassader pissed at the palace wall. The porter was so offended at his incivilitie, that he beat him with a battoun."*

According to Dempster, Robert Sempill died in 1595.

In an "Essay on the Poets of Renfrewshire," by WILLIAM MOTHERWELL, prefixed to "The Harp of Renfrewshire," published in 1819,† we are informed that "The Poets of Renfrewshire have neither been few in respect of numbers, nor contemptible in regard to merit. Although none of them have ever risen far above mediocrity, yet their performances have been such as to entitle their names to an honourable place amongst the minor bards of Scotland, and to preserve them from the death of total oblivion. As yet nothing like a compendious account, not even so much as a catalogue of these makers has been given, albeit the same is much wanted to fill up some little chasms in the history as well of our ancient, as our modern, stock of national biography and literature. . . . With regard to the older Poets of this county, little can be said, for the best of all possible reasons, because little is known. Those of what may be called the middle period, are scarcely known at all, except by name and the inimitable pieces they have bequeathed to a forgetful and ungrateful posterity. Of the late Poets this Shire has produced enough in all conscience has been written ; but whether much to the purpose or not, is a question easier propounded perhaps than conveniently answered. . . . Contemporaneous with Montgomerie (Author of the Cherrie and the Slae) was his friend ROBERT SEMPILL a more voluminous, but by no means so good or so popular a poet. It has been said elsewhere, that this Robert Sempill was a titled personage ; but it is right to mention in this place, that Dr. Irving is decidedly hostile to such an opinion, and treats the whole matter as a mere figment of an idle imagination. ‘One of the most persevering and unsuccessful versifiers of this period,’ says he, ‘was Robert Sempill, whom a late writer (Sibbald), who amuses himself with perpetual conjectures, ridiculously supposes to have been a Scottish Peer.—The eulogium which Dempster has bestowed on Sempill’s genius, is highly extravagant, and must have been conceived without any previous acquaintance with his writings ; he represents him as exhibiting the combined excellencies of Propertius, Tibullus, Ovid, and Callimachus. Some pieces of this poetaster are to be found in the Evergreen ; and Mr. Dalyell has lately republished others from the original editions. They are equally indecent and unpoetical.’ With every mark of deference to the opinions of a writer who seldom dogmatises rashly, and who has by his labours done so much for the memories of Scotland’s poets, we at the same time are compelled to dissent as widely from him on this point, as he seems to do from Sibbald and Dempster.

“It is to be observed, that albeit the Doctor contradicts Sibbald, he does not disprove his position, nor even attempt to shake it by any investigation whatever which might throw more light on the subject matter of dispute. Mere assertions are to be received with extreme caution, when unaccompanied with their proofs. As for our simple selves, we see nothing ridiculous at all in Sibbald’s supposition ; but on the contrary every reason to make us believe it perfectly correct. According to Douglas's Peerage and Crawfurd's History of Renfrewshire, Robert, the fourth Lord Sempill, succeeded to his grandfather in 1571, and died at an advanced age in 1611. Sempill the poet wrote all his works between the years 1565 and 1573 : for in Birrell's diary occurs the following notice : '1568 Jan. 17. A play was made by Robert Sempill, and performed before the Lord Regent and divers others of the nobility ;' which play Sibbald imagines in all likelihood to be Philotus ; and in Ames' Typography of Great Britain, it appears that 'The Sege of the Castel of Edenburgh,' was 'imprintit be Robert Le-preuick, anno 1573.' By Dempster, the death of Sempill is fixed in 1595, but this discrepancy is over-ruled by the fact that this author was at a distance from his native country when he wrote, and could not therefore be very conversant with, or correct in obituaries, and must of necessity have trusted greatly to vague and uncertain rumours regarding these particulars in the biographies of the celebrated men of his age. Here then we have two individuals bearing the same name, and living at the same period. That these two are one person, we have little hesitation to affirm ; and with the simple affirmation of this fact we might rest satisfied inasmuch as the Doctor is concerned, because one opinion is quite as good as another, when both happen to be unsupported by any evidence in their favour, and none of them are unpleasing in themselves. It is admitted at once, that there is no direct mention made in any writer of Sempill the poet being Lord Sempill, or that that nobleman was the same person with the said poet : and the reason of this is obvious, because none of Sempill's contemporaries were his biographers, and the incidental notices, gleaned from various quarters respecting him, relate to his literary character, not to his lineage and family connections. Moreover, it never hath been the custom to give poets any titles, save those which serve to mark their peculiar excellencies : all other trappings are derogatory to the might and majesty of the simple sirname. No one, even in our own days, when speaking in general terms of Byron as a great poet, thinks of saddling his discourse with the epithet Lord. The sirname is enough to let him who bears it be known without this puny fixture of worldly rank. Now if it should so happen, that everything respecting the birth of this great man were lost, and all the Magazine histories of him and other trash burned to a scroll, and nothing save fragments of his poems were extant, and a few remarks of some critics contemporary with him upon his genius were all that reached to distant posterity, it is very likely that a long-headed wiseacre of that generation, would split his lordship into two halves—one whereof, to be Lord Byron, son of such a one—and the other, Byron a poet, of whose birth nothing was known.

“ Such a one might write a very plausible sentence or two, after this fashion :—‘ One of the most celebrated poets of his day, was Byron. His works would appear to have been numerous and excellent, but of them few remnants now survive, and such as I have seen, are so mutilated and imperfect, that it is impossible to say anything definitive upon their merits or defects. It has been alleged by some, but without any foundation in truth, that Byron was of noble extraction ; and others have gone so far as to say, he really was titled, than which nothing can be more ridiculous. True, there was a Lord Byron coeval with him, but I find no clue whatever in the history of these times that can lead me to suppose they were one and the same person. Had they been so, such a circumstance would never have been overlooked by the historian,

I therefore hold those who cling to this opinion as fools.' And who would dare to beard or contradict so authoritative a wise one?

"What is now assumed with regard to Byron, has happened to Sempill. Surely there is nothing ridiculous in supposing, that a Nobleman might write poems as well as a Squire of low degree. And yet it is with the ridiculousness of this supposition Dr. Irving is at odds. He may know, or at least he ought to do, that with a very few exceptions, none save Noblemen, Courtiers, and Clerical dignitaries, were the poets, philosophers, historians, and literary factotums of that age. Education then was not, as is the case now, diffused through every rank and condition of society, but confined exclusively to the higher classes or professional orders. Without one having some real or pretended claim to genteel, if not noble birth, it is questioned if they then would even have been admitted to any terms of familiarity with the great, whatever their talents were or labours had been. Feudalism, to be sure, was in that age shaken to its base, but its ramparts were not cast to the ground; and where it appears in any formidable shape, a mortifying distance is always maintained between the magnates of the land and the other members of the body politic.

"Although the poetry of Sempill cannot be eulogised to the extent which Dempster has done, neither can it be so far depreciated as Irving has attempted to do. He wrote in the spirit of the times; and it is unfair to measure him by the standard of taste established now. We much suspect that the Dr. has but sparingly looked into them, and been in the main as much at fault while speaking of them, as he supposes Dempster to have been on a like occasion. This far we can safely say, namely, that they will bear comparison with similar productions of the same period, and not be greatly the loser by the experiment.

“Anything more than this catalogue of names our limits forbid us to give. It is to be regretted, that the manuscripts of Francis Sempill are irretrievably lost. They fell into hands which knew not their value, and it is to be feared out of them they will never be recovered. Respecting the Sempills, considerable information will be found in two small periodical publications, entitled The Paisley Repository and Annual Recreations, printed in 1812. ‘Bating some inaccuracies in the matter, and sundry inelegancies of style, the information contained in them will be useful to those desirous of knowing more about this distinguished family, more especially in regard to Francis Sempill, of whom several anecdotes were related, and who appears to have been rather of a harum scarum disposition.’”

Notwithstanding Mr. Motherwell’s very specious arguments, the great question still remains to be solved—Who was Robert Sempill, the Scottish Poet of 1567–1595?

It has not been considered requisite to prefix to this Collection any Disquisition as to the times and state of the parties,—Kingsmen and Queensmen,—during the period embraced by these “Ballates.” Neither could it be expected that Biographical notices should be given of the Lives and Characters of Mary Queen of Scots, King Henry Darnley, the Regent Murray, Lord Methven, Sir William Kirkcaldy of Grange, or of the Archbishop of St. Andrews. All such are already well known to the most cursory reader of Scottish History. Mary Queen of Scots was married to Prince Henry, Duke of Albany, Lord Darnley, on Monday, the 29th of July 1565, in the Chapel of Holyrood. Henry Lord Darnley was murdered on Monday, the 8th of February 1566, at the Kirk of Field. James Stewart, (natural son of King James V. by Margaret, daughter of John, Fifth Earl of Mar,) Earl of Murray or Moray, “the Good Regent,” was assassinated by James Hamilton of Bothwellhaugh on the 23rd of January 1569-70, at Linlithgow, in the thirty-seventh year of his age. “His funeral, which was a solemn spectacle, took place on the 14th of February, in the High Church of St. Giles, at Edinburgh, where he was buried in St. Anthony’s aisle, ‘his head placed south, contrair to ordour usit; the sepulchre laid with hewin wark maist curiously, and on the head ane plate of brass.’ The body had been taken from Linlithgow to Stirling, and thence was transported by water to Leith, and carried to the palace of Holyrood. In the public procession to the church it was accompanied by the magistrates and citizens of Edinburgh, who greatly lamented him. They were followed by the gentlemen of the country, and these by the nobility. The Earls of Morton, Mar, Glencairn, and Cassillis, with the Lords Glamis, Lindsay, Ochiltree, and Ruthven carried the body; before it came the Lairds of Grange, and Colvil of Cleish; Grange bearing his Banner, with the Royal Arms, and Cleish his coat armour. Both of them on horseback. The servants of his household followed, making great lamentation. On entering the church the bier was placed before the pulpit, and John Knox preached the funeral sermon over the remains of his friend, taking for his text, ‘Blessed are the dead that die in the Lord,’ which drew tears from the eyes of all present.”* Henry Stewart, Second Lord Methven, was killed at Brochtoun (Broughton) by a shot from the Castle of Edinburgh on the 3rd of March 1571–2. John Erskine, Earl of Mar, was chosen Regent of Scotland on the 6th of September 1571, and died at Stirling on the 28th of October 1572. Sir William Kirkcaldy of Grange surrendered the Castle of Edinburgh to the English on the 29th of May 1573. On the 3d of August following he was tried, and almost immediately after sentence, brought from Holyrood drawn in a cart backward as a spectacle to the people, and executed in the presence of an immense concourse of spectators at the market cross of Edinburgh. His body was quartered, and his head placed over the Castle gate. Patrick Cousteane, Coustane, Constance, or Constantine, afterwards Adamsone, Archbishop of St. Andrews, died on Saturday the 19th of February, 1592.

ROBERT LEKPREVICK, the Printer of the “Ballates” appears to have been in business at the Nether Bow, Edinburgh, during the years 1561 to 1570; in Stirling and St. Andrews from 1571 to 1573, and again in Edinburgh from 1573 to 1581. In 1574, he “was summoned to underly the law for printing in the moneth of Januar last bypast, in the yeere of God, 1573 yeeres thereby, a little Booke, called, a ‘Dialogue or mutual talking betwixt a Clerk and a Courteour,’ compiled, made, and set furth by Mr. Johne Davidsone, regent for the time within Sanct Leonard's Colledge, in Sanct Andrewes,* to the reproache and slander of our Soverane Lords Regent and Secret Council. . . . He compeered, was convict by an assise, and thereafter, committed to waird in the Castell of Edinburgh." Interesting notices of various works issued from his press are given in "Ames's Typographical Antiquities, by Herbert, 1785-90."

At the sale of the very fine Library of DAVID CONSTABLE, Esq., Advocate, Edinburgh, on the 12th December 1828, there was knocked down,—as the phrase is,—for the sum of £2, 12s., a LARGE PAPER COPY of the volume entitled, "Scotish Poems of the Sixteenth Century, (with the Cancels), 1801," having bound in at the beginning of it a Letter to MR. ARCHIBALD CONSTABLE, the Publisher, from the celebrated Critic and Antiquary, MR. JOSEPH RITSON. This very fine—nay, unique—copy is now in the possession of JOHN WHITEFOORD MACKENZIE, Esq., Edinburgh. We subjoin the following extract from MR. RITSON's letter, as affording a notable instance of how a writer may speak out when he is in earnest, and as showing that the bile, engendered in the heat and bitterness of controversy, is not at all allayed by "abstinence from animal food."†

"Gray's Inn, 1801.

"I am sorry to say that I have looked over (for it is impossible that any one should read) your publication of 'Scotish poems of the sixteenth century,' with astonishment and disgust.

* The Poetical Remains of the Rev. John Davidson, 1573-1595, were for the first time collected, and Forty Copies printed, with a Biographical Account of the Author, by James Maidment, Edinburgh, [John Stevenson], 1829.

† Poor Joseph very shortly afterwards met with more than his match in this way. It is pretty generally known that he wrote and published a volume recommending "abstinence from animal food," and the merciless castigation which he in consequence received from the pen of Mr. Brougham, in the second volume of the Edinburgh Review, was said to have hastened his death.

To rake up the false, scandalous, and despicable libels, against the most beautiful, amiable, and accomplished Princess that ever existed ; whose injurious treatment, misfortunes, persecution, imprisonment, and barbarous murder, wil be a lasting blot in the national character to the end of time, and which were, as they deserved, apparently devoted to everlasting oblivion and contempt, to stuf almost an entire volume with the uninteresting lives of such scoundrels as regent Murray and the laird of Grange, to publish, in short such vile, stupid, and infamous stuf, which few can read, and none can approve, is a lamentable proof of a total want of taste or judgement, a disgrace to Scottish literature, degrades the reputation of the editor, and discredits your own. I must be free to tel you, that i wil not suffer such an infamous and detestable heap of trash to pollute and infect my shelves : it is therefor under sentence of immediate transportation, though much more fit for some other situation than a gentleman's library, or even a bookseler's shop. I confess, at the same time, that the libel against the Tulchan bishop, though excessively scurilous, has much merit, and would have been admissible in any collection of a different description."

In the sale of the Library of R. H. Bright, Esq., London, 1845, Lot 296, "Ballads," which sold for £525, contained nine of "Sempill's Ballates," ranging from 1567 to 1570.

As SUPPLEMENTAL to the "Sempill Ballates" I have given in an Appendix a few others which are believed to have been the production of one of the "Sempills of Beltrees." These were unknown to me when I published their Poems in 1849. I have also inserted a Poem by ALLAN RAMSAY, which he intended to have prefixed to "The Ever Green, being a Collection of Scots Poems, wrote by the Ingenious before 1600," published in 1724, as being worthy of preservation, not so much in regard to any merit the lines possess, but as expressing his sentiments respecting the merits of some of our “early makers,” he having been the first to recommend them to public notice. It has not been included in any edition of his works.

I hope the reader, when he dips into these “Ballates,” will not be displeased with this reflection, “That he is stepping back into the times that are past and that exist no more.” I do not expect that they will please everybody ; nay, the critical reader must needs find several faults, for I confess that there will be found among them two or three pieces whose antiquity is their greatest value ; still I am persuaded there are many others that merit more of approbation than of censure and blame.

I cannot conclude without expressing in an especial manner my very grateful thanks to J. W. K. EYTON, Esq., F.S.A., Elsham Road, Kensington, London, for his exceeding kindness and liberality in furthering this publication, and for his cordial co-operation in procuring for me copies of many of the “Ballates.” I also gratefully acknowledge the kind assistance rendered by DAVID LAING, Esq., LL.D., Edinburgh, whose knowledge of Scotish antiquities is only equalled by the liberal zeal with which he communicates the results of much reading and research. His description of the various “Ballates,” and his information as to where copies of them were to be found, were truly of great importance, and saved much time and expense. To my esteemed friend, DR. WILLIAM STEVENSON, Professor of Divinity and Ecclesiastical History, Edinburgh University, my thanks are equally due for his kind advice and suggestions during the progress of the “Ballates” through the press ; and to MR. ALEXANDER GIBB, for his careful compilation of the Glossary.

To the Council of the Society of Antiquaries of London, I beg sincerely to tender my grateful thanks for the very kind and handsome manner in which they afforded me free access to their valuable collections, by which means I have been enabled, with the assistance of MR. GEORGE GATFIELD, MS. Department, British Museum, London, to revise and compare the proof sheets with the Original Black-Letter Broadsides, &c., in the possession of the Society, the State Paper Office, and that of the British Museum. To other friends and supporters who very readily assisted me in my editorial labours, I have to tender the assurance of my grateful remembrance.

It is here proper to mention, that having considered that the printing of the present Collection of Ballates would be attended with considerable risk, emolument is not to be expected; but I undoubtedly do not wish to make any pecuniary sacrifice. In limiting the number of copies, the object has been to secure for such persons as may be induced to become purchasers, the certainty of not seeing the work exposed at book-sales, or included in a list of "Really Cheap Books" at a third of its original cost. It is not besides likely that any work, the publication of which is simply to preserve literary or poetical remains of an antiquarian character, would become popular, or that its circulation would be extended beyond those individuals who have a taste for such matters. To multiply copies, therefore, would produce no beneficial result. These are the reasons which have induced me to limit the IMPRESSION of this rather singular Collection strictly to THREE HUNDRED COPIES.—Two Hundred and Sixty on Small Paper, crown octavo, and Forty on fine Large Paper, demy octavo.

In Memoriam.

HAVE now the painful duty of recording, that since the preceding pages were printed, and which had been approved of by my esteemed and very kind friend, J. W. K. EYTON, Esq., he has gone to his rest, having died on Thursday, the 1st of August 1872, at his residence, 27 Elsham Road, Kensington, London, in the fifty-third year of his age, in the full enjoyment of the profound respect and admiration of his friends, and the affectionate love of his family.

The following admirable tributes to his memory,—by his old friends, Mr. TIMMS and Mr. W. J. THOMS,—I have deemed well worthy of being reprinted and recorded here:—

I. Extracted from the "BIRMINGHAM DAILY POST," 5th August, 1872.

"THE LATE MR. J. W. K. EYTON.—Not only our Shropshire readers, but many of our older local readers too, will learn with deep regret that Mr. Joseph Walter King Eyton, F.S.A., died at his residence, Elsham Road, Kensington, on Thursday, August 1st, in the 53d year of his age. Mr. Eyton was a son of the late Rev. John Eyton, rector of Wellington (Salop), and was not only a member of the most ancient of the county families of Shropshire, and a worthy descendant of an honourable line resident in Shropshire from Norman days, but he had general as well as personal claims to the honour in which he was held by all who knew him. Although neither an author nor a public man, he exercised no small influence in many of the best works of his day. In the compilation of that unrivalled county history, entitled the 'History of Shropshire,' by his brother (the Rev. R. W. Eyton, M.A.), the late Mr. Eyton greatly assisted by his knowledge, and industry, and taste. In the book-world his name will ever be famous as the collector of the choicest and most perfect library ever formed by a private purchaser—every book being the best or rarest—procured with generous liberality, and chosen with consummate taste. The 'Eyton sale,' in fact, marks an era in bibliography, as the Roxburgh and Heber and Daniel sales have done, and the best books of all classes derive a special value from having passed through Mr. Eyton's hands. So large was his knowledge, and so perfect his taste in all matters of printing, paper, and bookbinding—of each of which he had the choicest and costliest examples—that he was chosen as one of the Council of the Society of Antiquaries, and as one of the Council of the Camden Society, and was ever one of the most generous patrons of the Archæological Societies and Printing Clubs during the last thirty years. His munificence in presenting books to the Library of the Society of Antiquaries, his taste and judgment in reprinting at his own cost, choice and curious works, his generous patronage of the best printers and bookbinders who really understood their 'art,' made him ever popular among some of the most famous bibliographers and the most eminent literati of our day. His assistance was sought wherever real knowledge about books or printing or paper or binding was needed, and was always willingly at the service of strangers as well as friends. For some years Mr. Eyton lived in Birmingham and Leamington, where, although his manners were so modest, he made himself numerous friends. For Birmingham itself he ever had a special fondness, and our Reference Library and our Shakespeare Library owe no small portion of their treasures to his knowledge and generosity and care. As a private friend Mr. Eyton was beyond all praise. His ample means were ever at the service of literature and art. He had no purpose in life except the gratification of his friends. His one thought every morning must have been whom to please and how to oblige. In all parts of England he had correspondents, many of whom he had never even seen, but to whom he constantly sent whatever was likely to minister to their pleasures or to gratify their tastes. His matured judgment, his long experience, his knowledge of literature, his friendships with famous men, were always at the command of his correspondents, and he would gladly search all over London to find a book which any friend might want. His generous and noble nature, his courteous and kindly manners, his unbounded yet modest munificence, his untiring devotion to the tastes and pleasures of his friends, his large store of literary knowledge, his intercourse with many famous men, made him always welcome wherever he appeared; but those only who knew him most intimately can fully appreciate his manly modest virtues, or deplore too deeply the irreparable loss which his death has caused in a large circle of grateful friends."

II. Extracted from "NOTES AND QUERIES," 10th August, 1872.

"DEATH OF J. WALTER K. EYTON, Esq., F.S.A.—Those who shared with us the advantage of knowing Mr. Eyton, will share the deep regret with which we record his death. Mr. Eyton must have been known to all lovers of fine books by the remarkable library which he amassed, the dispersion of which some years ago by Messrs Sotheby created quite a sensation among bibliographers. But great as was Mr. Eyton's knowledge of everything connected with bibliography, printing, binding, &c., he was more remarkable for his kindness and liberality,— for his readiness, we should rather say his anxiety, to help his literary friends, and his liberal gifts to the Society of Antiquaries and other kindred Societies; and he has left a name which will be treasured with affectionate respect by all who knew him."

The Sale of MR. EYTON'S Library, above-mentioned, commenced on the 15th May 1848, in London, and continued for eight days. The total produce was the sum of £2,693, 15s. 6d.

I.—Heir followis ane Ballat declaring the Nobill and Gude inclinationoun of our King.

[A Broadside, printed very closely in three columns, Black Letter.—STATE PAPER OFFICE. Scottish Series, Volume 13, (May) Number 47.]

O Edinburgh about vj. houris at morne,
As I was passand pansand out the way
Ane bony boy was soir makand his mone,
His sory sang was oche and wallaway,
That euer I sould byde to se that day,
Ane King at euin with Sceptur Sword and Crown
At morne but ane deformit lumpe of clay,
With tratouris strang sa cruellie put downe.
Than drew I neir sum tythingis for to speir,
And said my freind quhat makis the sa way:
Bludie bothwell hes brocht our King to beir,
And flatter and fraude with dowbill Dalyday.
I studeit still and nathing could I say,
My minde was full of admiratioun,

My bony boy tell me without delay,
The Kingis maneris forme and fassoun.

¶ Narratioun shir gif I do tell,
His cruell murther ze will call monstorous :
For in meiknes he did all men excell,
And vnto na man was he odious,
To meat his marrow he was audatious,
On sturdie steid with' craftiefeat of weir,
Mars fauourit him as fair Ascanius,
Aeneas Sone that weill ane steid could steir.

¶ In deidis he soulde haue bene lyke Deiphoebus
Had feinzeit Fortoun fauourit him to Ring :
Or Theseus or gentill Julius,
In gentil featis ferand for ane King.
Dartis about him swyftlie could he fling,
And rin ane rais and shortlie turne ane steid :
Cunning of crosbow cutthrot and culturing,
Ane flaine lat fle with bow in tyme of neid.
¶ In gamis glaid he was ryght weill asswetit,
Ryght featlie on the fluire alswa could dance
Bot Dalila vnto him was vanlatit,
Quhilk causit him oft to be sad and pance.
Zit neuer did sho se his maik in France,
Off royall bluid to fang to be hir feir :
Not her fyrist spos for all his great puissance,
In portratour and game mycht be his peir.

¶ Cunning of Clergy of musick meruelous,
The louing leid of Latine could declair :
Sangis set with diuers tunis expres,
With Instrument maist sweit into the eir.
With hundis hunt he could baith Da and Deir
The faid also ryght feitlie could he set,
Ane gay gois Halk vpone his hand to beir,
Ane Falcowne fle to se he thocht delyte.
¶ With Romaine hand he could weill leid ane pen,
And storyis wryte of auld antiquitie,
Nobill himself, and Nobill of Ingyne,
And louit weill concord and vnitie,

THE SEMPILL BALLATES.

He swoumit in the fluidis of Poetrie,
And did exerse the science liberall:
The facund Phrase did vse of oratrie,
His gude Ingyne was ryght celestiall.

¶ In pulchritude to Paris perigall
With browis brent and twinkland Cristell eine Off face formoys and vult heroycall,
He mycht haue bene ane marrow to ane Quene
At ten houris on Sonday lait at euin,
Quhen Dalila and Bothwell bad gudnycht :
Off hir finger fals sho threw ane Ring,
And said my Lord ane taikin I zow plycht.

¶ Scho did depairt than with ane vntrew traine,
And than in haist ane culuering they leit crak :
To teiche thair feiris to knaw the appoint tyme,
About the Kingis lugeing for to clap.
To dance that nycht they said sho sould not slak,
With leggis lycht to hald the wedow walkane
And baid fra bed vntill sho hard the crak, Quhilk was anesigne that hir gude Lord was slane.

¶ And Maddie meinis sho did in Setoun sing
Full weill was her that day that sho was fre :
And into joy and out of tray and tene,
So freely fred from all aduersitie.
O Stewartis stout ha benedictie.

War ze not Royis in this Regioune
And ay did vse Justice and equitie,
And now zour glas of honestie is run.

¶ Unles ze now sharplie shuit out zour handis
And trewlie try the gyltie of this blude :
Ze wilbe repuite Lowreis ouer all landis,
And fais to Christ deit on the Rude.
My Lordis thairfoir I think for zow gude,
The tresoun try and puneis equallie :
Lat not your landis defylit be with blude,
And gif ze do God shaw his Maiestie.

¶ Quhen Davie deit our Quene ryght potentlie
Into this Realme did rais ane ryall rout :

Out of this Regiou Lordis gart sho flie, Tresoun to try sho was that tyme maist stout,
 But sho is slak to try this tresoun out,
 And to him Dauy was na perigall :
 Dauy and his, thair state was wont shone clout,
 Our cumly King was of the blude royll.

 For dowbill Dauy sho did zow expell,
 Think on thairfoir quhill ze haue sic ane cryme,
 And ze defend the cruell Jesabell
 Than Baallis Priestis will cal zow verray kynde
 Now euerie Dowglas of ane hartsum mynde, Thinke on dame Margaret sumtyme in the towre,
 And of young Charles prudent of Ingyne.
 I pray God lat them se ane ioyfull houre.

 O ze that dois profes Godis worde deuyne,
 Se that ze sclander not his haly Name :
 Remember Jesus Judas put to pyne,
 For slak regaird of Godlynes and blame.
 God he is all that layis ane stumling stane,
 Quhilk may the cause be of our britheringis fall,
 Restoir againe zour foule polluted fame
 Gif ze fauoure Christ Jesus trew Gospell.

 The buik of Josua as I did reid,
 And thairin ane exampill did I find
 How Acan tuik the excommunicat guid
 All Israell war threitnit for that sin.
 The fauour of God be na way could he win,
 Quhill trewlie tryit war faultouris of the faill :
 Quhome Josua in flambis fell did burne
 And then did ceis God's wrath celestiall.

 Gif God was wrath at ane small pegrall stouth.
 And for ainis fault ane multitude did shoir,
 Gif diligence to mak the giltie couth,
 Or he will do to zow as he befoir.
 Ze knew zour cryme is wors ane greit daill moir,
 Nor hunders twa of sicklis silver fyne,
 To pull ane King fra his hie potent gloir
 Quhome God did place be ordinance dewyne.

¶ O ze that to our Kirk hes done subscrive Thir Ecanis try alsweill traist I may Gif ze do not the tyme will cum belive
 That God to zow will rais sum Josuay, Quhilk soll zour bairnies gar sing wallaway,
 And ze your selfis be put downe with shame :
 Remember on the ugsum latter day
 Quhen ze rewarded shall ressaif for zoure blame.

¶ I ken ryght weill ze knaw zour dewtie,
 Gif ze do not purge zow ane and all,
 Than shall I wryte in prettie poetrie
 In Latine leid in style Rethoricall.
 Quhilk throw all Europe shall ring lyke ane bell,
 In the contempt of zour malignitie,
 Fy fle fra Clitemnestra fell
 For sho was never lyke Penolopie.

¶ With Clitemnestra I do not fane to fletche, Quhilk slew his spous the greit Agamemnon :
 Or with ony that Mynos wyfe dois matche,
 Semiramis quha brocht his gude Lord downe.
 Quha dow abstene fra litigatioun,
 Or from his paper hald aback the pen :
 Except he hait our Scottis Natioun,
 Or than stand vp and traitouris deidis commend.

¶ Now all the wois that Ouid in Ibin
 Into his pretty lytill buik did wryte,
 And mony mo be to our Scottis Quene,
 For sho the cause is of my wofull dyte.
 Sa mot his hart be fillit full of syte,
 As Herois was for Leanderis deth :
 Hirself to slay for wo quha thocht delyte,
 For Henryis saik to lyke, our Quene war laith.

¶ The doloure als that peirsit Diddis hart,
 Quhen King Enee from Carthage tuik the flycht
 For the Quhilk cause vnto ane brand sho start
 And slew hiselv quhilk was ane sory sycht.
 Sa mot sho die as did Creusa brycht,
 The worthie wyfe of dowchtie Duik Jason :

Quha brint was in ane garment wrocht be flycht
Off Medea throw incantation.

 Hir lauchter lycht be lyke to trim Thysbie, Quhen Pyramus sha fand deid at the well :
In langour lyke vnto Penolopie,
For vlyssis quho lang at Troy did dwell :
Hir duilsum deith be wars than Jesabell,
Quhome throw ane windo swirlie men did thraw
Quhais blude did laip the cruell hundis fell,
And doggis could hir wicket bainis gnaw.

 War I ane hund, o gif sho war ane hair,
And I ane cat and sho ane lyttill mous
And sho ane bairne and I ane wylde wod bair,
I ane frrat and sho Cuniculous.
To hir I sal be ay contrarius,
Quhill to me Atropus cut the fatell threid :
And feill deithis dartis dolorus,
Than sall our Spiritis be at mortall feid.

 My Spirit hir Spirit sal douke in Phlegethon
Into that painful fylthie flude of hell :
And thame in Styx and Lethee baith anone,
And Cerberus that cruell hund sa fell,
Sall gar hir cry with mony zout and zell,
O wallaway that euer sho was borne
Or with tresoun be ony maner mell,
Quhilk from all blis sould cause hir be forlorne.

 War John Bochas on lyue as he is deid,
Worthy workis wold wryte in hir contempt :
Alsweill of tresoun as of womanheid,
Thairto his pen wald euer mair be bent.
Hir for till shame and bludie Bothwell shent,
And wold the counsall craif his warysoun,
The quhilk King James the fyrst in Parliament,

 Gaif to his Father for ane hie tresoun,
Quha did forfault him of his land and rent,
And his leuing annext to the Crown :
And to hir shame, and to hir greit contempt,
Quhen that he come vnto ane strange natioun.

THE SEMPILL BALLATES.

Than sould he mak declaratioun,
The causis all of his sory banishment,
To be for trasoun done vnto the Crowne,
Gif I do lie reid the Act of Parliament.

¶ My bony boy thy murning dois me harme,
Bot thy sweit figureit speiche dois me delyte

In poetrie I traist zow be na barne, Quhilk dois reheirs the Poetis auld indyte.
At thir traytouris I find thow hes dispyte,
And I ane Menstrell is and can sing :
Wald thow in Poetrie thy mater wryte
In thair dispyte thy scellat sall I ring.

¶ Albeit my hart be fillit full of syte,
And mony troublis tumbland in my mynde,
Zit vnder neth this hauthorne sal I wryte
Or my forwereit body preis to dyne
In Poetrie narratioun of the cryme,
Quhilk thow may sing except that thow be red
In Inglis toung quahan will gif place and tyme,
And than in Latine leid I think to spred,

¶ My veirsis prompt in style Rethoricall,
Quhilk pass sall to the Tane of Tartarie
And Peirs sall erthe and air Etheriall,
The wickit works done in Britannie.
My bony boy quod I fair mot the fa
With that he rais and reikit me this bill :
And tuik gude nycht and shuik our handis twa,
Sa we departit soir against my will.

III.—Heir followis the Testament and Tragedie of vmquhile King Henrie Stewart of gude memorie.

[BRITISH MUSEUM.—Cottonian MSS. Caligula, C. 1. f. 17.
—Scotish Poems of the Sixteenth Century, collected by John Graham Dalyell, Edinburgh 1801.]

Henry Stewart, vmquhile of Scotland King,
Sumtyme in houpe, with reuerence to Ring :
Within this Realme in dew obedience,
Traistisg with ane attoure all eirdlie thing
Quha was the ruite quhair of I did spring,
In honour to liue, be kindelie allyance :
Putand in hir sic faith and confidence,
Ingland I left, seducit be ignorance ;
Scotland I socht, in houpe for to get hir,
Quhilk I may rew, as now is cum the chance,
And vthers learne be me experiance :
In tyme be war, fra ainis the work missit her.

Sumtyme sho thocht, I was sa amiabill,
Sa perfyte, plesand, and sa dilectabill :
Lancit with luif, sho luid me by all wycht,
Sum tyme to shaw effectioun fauorabill,
Gratifeit me with giftis honorabill,
Maid me ze knew, baith Lord, Duik, Erle and Knycht :
Sum tyme in mynde sho praisit me sa hycht,
Leifand all vther, hir bedfellow brycht
Chefit me to be, and maid me zour King :
Than was I thocht happy into menis sycht,
And puir anis did prye thair maker of mycht
That send thame ane Stewart sa kindelie to Ring.

Thus quhen sho had auancit me in estate,
Hir for to pleis I set my haill consait :

Quhilk now is cause of my rakles ruyne,
 Hir licherous luife quhilk kindlit ouer hait,
 Cauld hes it culd, and sylit me with dissait
 Plungeit my corps into this present pyne,
 Not onelie zow Lordis causand me to tyne,
 Bot als allace fra my trew God declyne,
 Quhome I imbrasit, for plesoure of hir Mes
 Justlie thairfair, I haue deseruit this fyne,
 Quha for hir saik denyit the God deuine
 That did me bring fra plesoure to distres.

Backwart fra God my Spirite fra sho wylit
 Daylie with darknes my sycht sho ouersylit,
 My Princelie pretence began to decay,
 Vaine houpe in hir my ressoun exilit,
 My truethles young my honoure defylit
 My doing in deid sho gart me deny,
 Fra credite I crakit, kyndnes brak ray,
 No man waid trow the worde I did say,
 My leigis me left, persauand hir Ire
 Ingland I left, and help was away
 God maid hir scurge to plague me for ay,
 Be war the scurge he cast not in the fyre

Thus was I than to doloure destinat,
 Miserabill man and Prince infortunat,
 Quhomlit in sorow and plungeit in cair:
 Sum tyme in mynde with anger agitat,
 Sum tyme in Spirit pansiue and fatigat,
 Musand the meine mycht meis hir euer mair,
 Sum tyme with doloure drewin in dispair,
 Wariand the warld, welth and weiffair,
 Deid I desirid hir falset to fle,
 Sum tyme in mynd thinkand the contrare,
 Sum vncouthe vaiage I purpoisit prepare,
 Bot not sa vncouth as was prepairit for me.

Into the tyme of this my extasie,

Quhen I was in this fearfull fantasie,
 With feinzeit fair, and wylie wordis discreet,
 Scho come to me with greit humilitie :
 Lamentand sair my greit calamitie,
 My langsum lyfe, and sair tormentit Spirite,
 Promittand with ane faithfull hart contreit,
 In tyme to cum, with reuerence me treit
 To my degré, in honoure, luife and peace,
 Traistand into hir wylie wordis sweit,
 My hairt and lyfe into hir handis compleit,
 I put, and past vnto the Sacrifice.

Quhat sall I wryte, how I was troublit thair,
 I wat it wald mak ony haill hairt sair.
 For to reuolve my tristsum tragedie,
 How that thay boucheouris blew me in the air,
 And stranglit me, I shame for to declair :
 Nouther to God, nor honoure hauand Ee,
 I houpit weill to haue na ennymie,
 Into this Realme fra my natiuitie,
 Thair was na man, quhome to I did offend,
 Dissauit far I fand the contrarie,
 Off Tygeris quholpis fosterit in tyrannie,
 Ane treuthles troupe hes drewin me to this end

O faithless flock, denuide of godlyness,
 O Serpentis seid, nurisheit in wicketnes,
 Fosteraris of falset, huirdome and harlatrie,
 Mantenaris of murther, withecraft expres,
 Tresoun amang zow dois daylie incres :
 Lawtie is banist, Justice and equitie.
 Quhat sall I wryte of zoure wyle vanitie :
 On falset is foundit zoure haill felicitie, Zour Castellis nor townis, sall not zow defend,
 God hes persauit zour infidelitie,
 And schortlie will plaigue zour crewell tyrannie,
 Off zour schort solace sorow salbe the end.

Quhat hairet so hard for petie will not bleid !
 Quhat breist can beir bot man lament my deid !
 Quhat toungh sa thrall in silence suir can rest !
 To se ane saule in sorow sowsit but feid,
 Ane saikles Lambe, ane innocent but dreid,
 Taine be consent of thame he luiffit best :
 Furth of his bed with doloure to be drest,
 By thrawart malice and murther manifest,
 Jugeit by Law, and hangit syne but dome,
 Sair it was to se zoure Prince with murther prest :
 Sairar I say him in his place possest,
 The deid that did, than Burrio, now Brydegrome.

O wicket wemen vennomus of natuire,
 Serpentis of kynde, thocht cumlie seme zour statuire
 Vnstabill ioy, full of aduersitie,
 In mynde malicious attoure all creatuure,
 Quhais malice taine, for euer dois induire :
 Teichit be experience, sa may I testifie,
 Zoure craftie consaitis cloikit with flatterie,
 And mylde meiknes sylit with subtiltie
 Ar Medeais helters to bring vs in zour net,
 Gude deidis of auld gois furth of memorie,
 The ruite of euill remaines but remedie,
 Ay in zoure mynde sum vengance quhill ze get.

For Dawyis deid in Maryis mynde sa prentit
 Consauit haitrent, daylie mair augmentit,
 Meik war his wordis, thocht greit was his greuance
 Oft at command, to mak hir weill contentit,
 In pouertie and paine my self fra court absentit
 Paine could not pleis hir, nor zit obedience,
 Persaue of lust the malice and mischance,
 Quhair Venus anis gettis in hir gouernance,
 Sic sylit subiectis felterit in hir snair :
 Wisdome is exilit, and prudent puruoyance,
 Nobilnes and honour, defacit be ignorance,
 And vertew banist, fra shame pas shed of hair.

This sentence trew we may persaue in deid,
 In sindrie authouris quha lykis for to reid,
 In luiffis raige, as storyis dois reheirs,
 The crewell work of wretheit womanheid,
 We may persaue in Scylla to succeid :
 For Minos luife, hir Father gaif na grace,
 Deianira hir husband Hercules,
 For Nessus saik, maist crewellie allace
 Brocht to mischeif, for all his vassalage,
 And Clytemnestra for Egistus face,
 Agamemnon the mychtie King of Greice,
 Hir husband slew, so vyle was hir vsage.

Off Ancus Martius we reid the greit mischance
 Quha rang in Rome in proude preheminance, Slaine be Lucinio at Tanaquillis procure,
 Samson also for manheid and prudence,
 All Israell that had in gouernance :
 Dalila desauit in vnder couertoure :
 Quhairfoir lat men be war and keip thame suire,
 Fra wemenis vennome, vnder faithles figure,
 And gif na wyfe thair counsall for to keip,
 For as the woirme that workis vnder cuire
 At lenth the tre consumis that is duire,
 So wemen men, fra thay in credite creip.

I speik not but pruise, quhilk I may sairlie rew, Quhat lyfe did thoill, my deid dois try it trew,
 My fragill fortowne, sa faithles hes bene heir,
 Wald God the day that I thee Scotland knew,
 Atropus the threid had cut, lachesis drew,
 So sould not felt the change of fortownes cheir,
 My Kingdome cair, my wealth was ay in weir,
 My state vnstabill, me drew fra Godis feir,
 My plesosre prikis my paine ay to prouoke.
 My solace sorow sobbing to asteir,
 My ryches, powertie, power to empire,
 My wratchit wyfe hes now put out the smoke.

Quhat warldlie joy in earth may lang induire,
 Or quhat estate may heir him self assuire ?
 For to conse rue his lyfe in sicernes,
 Quha may sustene the perrillous auentuire ?
 Off fals fortowne inconstant and vnsuire :
 Or quhair soll men find steidfast stabilnes ?
 All warldlie blis is mixt with bitternes,
 Springand with ioy, endand with wretchitnes,
 As heir my end reheirsit dois record,
 Quhairfoir let Princes pryde thame not expres
 In warldlie welth in pomp nor worthynes,
 Bot stablishe thair strength, with Dauid on the Lord.

In earth thairfoir sen nocht is parmanent,
 My soule to God I leif omnipotent,
 My Bab and Childe vnder the counsallis cuire,
 To zow my Lordis of my deid Innocent,
 For to reuenge I leif in Testament,
 My saikles bluid, my murther and iniure,
 Thocht Princes wald be falset zow alluire,
 Hurt not zour honouris, the samin to smuire,
 First luik to God, syne to zour libertie,
 Think weill suppois my death ze wald induire,
 Gif Rubbers Ring na subiect salbe suire
 Mair nor the sheip in Foxes companie.

[In Major Pearson's Collection. Printed on one side, without date, place, or printer's name. Black Letter. Communicated by Joseph Ritson to the Gentleman's Magazine, where it is reprinted, November 1791.—Scotish Ballads and Songs. Edited by James Maidment, Edinburgh, 1859.]

DEW all glaidnes, sport, and play,
Adew fair weill, baith nyght and day—
All thingz that may mak mirrie cheir,
Bot sich rycht soir in hart and say,
Allace to Graif is gone my deir.

¶ My lothsum lyfe I may lament,
With fixit face and mynde attent,
In weiping wo to perseueir,
And asking still for punischemet,
Of thame hes brocht to graif my deir.

¶ But lang allace I may complaine, Befoir I find my deir againe,
To me was faithfull and Inteir,
As Turtill trew on me tuke paine :
Allace to graif is gone my deir.

¶ Sen nathing may my murning mend,
On God maist hie I will depend
My cairfull cause for to vpreir :
For he support to me will send Althocht to graif is gone my deir.

¶ My hauie hap, and piteous plycht,
Dois peirs my hart baith day and nyght,
That lym nor lyth I may not steir,
Till sum reuenge with force and mycht
The Cruell murther of my deir.

¶ This cureles wound dois grief me soir,
 The lyke I neuer felt befoir
 Sen Fergus first of me tuke steir,
 For now allace decayis my gloir
 Throw cruell murther of my deir.

¶ O wicket wretche infortunat,
 O Sauage seid Insatiat,
 Mycht thow not frantik fule forbeir
 To sla with dart Intoxicat,
 And cruellie deuoir my deir.

Wa worth the wretche, wa worth thy clan
 Wa worth the wit that first began
 This deir debait for to vpsteir,
 Contrare the Lawis of God and man,
 To murther cruellie my deir.

¶ Throw the now Lawles libertie
 Throw the mischeif and cruetie
 Throw the fals men thair heidis vpbeir
 Throw the is baneist equitie,
 Throw the to graif is gone my deir.

Throw the ma Kingz than ane dois ring
 Throw the all tratourz blyithelie sing,
 Throw the is kendlit ciuill weir,
 Throw the murther wald beir the swing,
 Throw the to graif is gone my deir.

¶ Throw the is rasit sturtsum stryfe,
 Throw the, the vitall breith of lyfe
 Is him bereft, did with the beir:
 Quhen Gallow pin, or cutting knyfe
 Suld stranglet the, and saift my deir.

¶ Ungraiffull grome, sic recompence,
 Was not condigne to thyne offence,

With glowing gunne that man to teir,
 From doggis deith was thy defence :
 To the sic mercie schew my deir.

¶ O curssit Cain, O hound of hell,
 O bludie bairne of Ishmaell,
 Gedaliah quhen thou did steir,
 To vicis all thou rang the bell,
 Throw cruell murther of my deir.

¶ Allace my deir did not foirsie, Quhen he gaif pardone vnto the Maist wicket wretche, to men sinceir
 Quhat paine he brocht and miserie,
 With reuthfull ruine to my deir.

¶ But trew it is, the godly men
 Quhilk think na harme nor falset ken,
 Nor haitrent dois to vtherz beir,
 Ar sonest brocht to deithis den :
 As may be sene be this my deir.

¶ Thairfoir to the I say no moir,
 But I traist to the King of Gloir,
 That thou and thyne sall zit reteir
 Zour Campz with murning mynde richt soir,
 For cruell murther of my deir.

¶ O nobill Lordis of Renoun,
 O Barronis bauld ze mak zow boun
 To fute the feild with fresche effeir,
 And dintis douse, the pryd ding doun
 Of thame that brocht to graif my deir.

¶ Reuenge his deith with ane assent,
 With ane hart, will, mynde, and Intent,
 In faithfull freindschip perseueir :
 God will zow fauour, and thame schent,
 Be work or word that slew my deir.

¶ Be crouz ze commouns in this cace,
 In auenture ze cry allace,
 Quhen murtherars the swinge sall beir,
 And from zour natvie land zow chace,
 Unles that ze reuenge my deir.

¶ Lat all that fische be trapt in net,
 Was counsall, art, part, or reset
 With thankfull mynde and hartie cheir
 Or zit with helping hand him met
 Quhen he to graif did bring my deir.

¶ Defend zour King and feir zour God,
 Pray to auoyde his feirfull rod,
 Lest in his angrie wraith austeir
 Ze puneist be baith euin and od,
 For not reuenging of my deir.

¶ And do not feir the number small,
 Thocht ze be few, on God ze call
 With faithfull hart, and mynde sinceir,
 He will be ay zour brasen wall,
 Gif ze with speid reuenge my deir.

¶ Remufe all sluggische slewth away,
 Lat lurking Inuy clene decay,
 Gar Commoun weill zour baner beir,
 And peace and concorde it display:
 Quhen ze pas to reuenge my deir.

¶ With sobbing sych I to zow send This my complaunt with dew commend Desiring zow all without feir,
 Me pure Scotland for to defend Sen now to graif is gone my deir.

¶ Finis.

IV.—Heir followis ane Exhortation to the Lordis.

[STATE PAPER OFFICE.—Scotish Series, Volume 13, (June)
Number 62.]

MY Lordis now gif ze be wyse,
 Knew weil the grace y^t God hes send zow
 Gif to that leuing Lord all pryse,
 Pray that from dainger he defend zow,
 And na way lat zoure fais offend zow
 But gif zow counsell and curage,
 Bauldlie togidder all to bend zow,
 That ze do nouther swerue nor swage.

Think it is nouther strent nor fors
 That hes set zow a fuite befoir,
 Think weill that nouther men nor hors
 Off sic ane act sould get the gloir:
 Bot he that ringis euer moir
 Hes luikit on zoure quarell rycht,
 Gif him all thankis now thairfoir,
 And pryse his name with all zour micht.

I grant zour interpryse was gude, Zour purpose worthy till allow,
 Bot I consider how it stude
 And how the cais is cumin now
 Had they keipit thame self fra zow,
 And langer taryit in thair strent,
 Thocht zour curage was gude I trow
 Ze had zit irkit at the lenth.

Think weil thair wit was thame bereft
 Quhen fulishlie thay tuik the plane
 Think thay war to thair foly left,
 Quhen thay in feild come zow agane.
 Think weill ze aucht for to be faine,

But bluid to win the upperhand
 Quhair nouther man was hurt nor slane
 To get the Jewell in zour hand.

Sen ze it haue thairof be suie,
 Or els ze ar ryght far to blame
 Gif ze hir till eschaip enduire,
 Think ze sall haue baith skaith and shame
 Quha babilshlie bourdis with his dame
 It war weill wairit he gat his quhippȝ,
 Think neuer agane to dwell at hame,
 Gif ze lat ga that is in zour grippis.

Gif sho had not cum in the feild,
 For to defend the tratoure kene,
 And not laubourit with speir and sheild
 His wicket quarrell to sustene,
 Ze had done wrang as sum men mene
 Hir to withhold agane hir will,
 Bot now quhill trew tryell be sene
 Sho moste be keipit or all will spill.

Pas fordwart in zour interpryse,
 Reuenge in haist the cruell act :
 Spair not to gif thame all ane syse
 Quhome ze beleif the King did sact.
 Be bauld and na way turne abak,
 Spair nouther midling greit nor small
 With wysdome syne gude tryall tak
 And cause sum ane confes thame all.

Proclaine that all quha ocht dois knaw
 To mak probatioun euident,
 With diligence thay cum and shaw
 In oppin and in place patent.
 That sinners shortlie may be shent,
 And gude men fred from all defame :
 Sen God hes to zow power lent,
 Gif ye be lashe ye ar to blame.

The heid traytoure quhair euer he be Gif ye haue fors se ye persew,
 Thocht he fra hoill to hoill do fle
 At last he can not weill eschew.
 Lat him be slaine your King that slew,
 Bring ainis his fylthie lyfe till end :
 Quha wickitlie this beir did brew
 Wa worth the tyme that sho him kend.

Syne on your self ye tak gude keip,
 And lat na ennimeis heir resort :
 Be walkryfe and fall not on sleip,
 Baith day and nycht gar walk your port,
 Lat gude quarrell your hartis comfort :
 The wark is greit ye haue in hand,
 Think weill it is not play nor sport
 Bot outhier man ye die or stand.

For Godis saik aboue all thing,
 Keep clene your handis fra wrangus geir
 Gif ye wald haue his trew blissing,
 Schaw first that ye the Lord do feir.
 Exerce your selfis in gentill weir,
 And fle from fylthie auarice,
 Quhilk is as I in Scriptuire leir
 The verray ruite of euerie vice.

Zour brether of the Nobill race,
 With all meiknes desyre concur,
 And your querrell in this cace,
 Quhilk I dout not will be ane spur.
 So that your pride cause thame nor stur
 Bot your gude gyding thame alluire :
 To cause thame enter mak ane duire,
 Gif ye do swa ye may be suire.

Tak Godis quarrell als in hand,
 And purge vs from Ipocrasie,
 And than ye sall haue in your band

The townis and communitie.
 Prouyde als for the Ministerie, Reforme the Justice gif ye can,
 Than sall tryumph your memorie
 Above all sen this Realme began.

Sen Fergus first come in this land,
 Sic gude beginning neuer was sene,
 That gentilnes at thair awin hand
 Sa just ane quarrell did sustene.
 Reuoltis hes bene ma nor fyftene,
 And Princes in strang presoun set:
 Quhair all from bluid was keipit clene Skantlie can I exampill get.

Think than ye wil preforme the work
 That now dois your beginning blis,
 And thocht your enimies seme stark
 He will cause thame thair purpose mis
 That all war ane faine wald I wis,
 Bot zit thocht sum againis zow faill
 This actioun haill sa honest is,
 With Godis grace it sall preuaill.

Lat na man through yow harmit be
 And than ye sall na hartis tyne,
 Gif euerie ane his awin degré
 Exclud na man out of his lyne.
 Set all at rest and efter syne
 With all the rest concur togidder,
 To mak ane ordour gude and fyne,
 As your wisdomis can best considder.

Keip weil your Prince & for him pray
 That God indew him with his grace,
 That he incres may day be day:
 To be the best of all his race.
 The trew Religioun syne imbrace

Fra vice to vertew tak the traine,
His pepill weill in perfyte peace
And lang in helth with thame remaine.

All vitious wycht fra him exclude,
Be walkryfe wyse and diligent:
Gif ony be wald him na gude
Lat thame na way be thair present.
To teich him vertew tak gude tent
Lat not his zouthheid be infectit
Greit is the gift God hes yow lent
Sair sall ye rew hif ye neglect it.

And thus yow sportlie till exhort,
My Lordis all I thocht it gude:
For men of-tyme of meinest sort
That raknit war of ressoun rude.
Seing the cais and how it stude,
Hes geuin gude counsall to the wyse,
Sa wald I now and to conclude
God blis yow and your interpryse.

Finis.

V.—Ane Exhortatioun derect to my Lord Regent and to the Rest of the Lordis accomplisis.

[STATE PAPER OFFICE.—Scotish Series, Volume 14. (August)
Number 72.]

DIAN with her Court of Poyetis cleir,
Qu § is land now plesantly dois sing
In sin gis that plesoure is to heir
For io nes our fair young tender King.

§ Torn out in the original.

Quho hes set aboue vs for to Ring
 Will § I quhat I am, hes tane on hand,
 Sa b ure, rashely in thair Court to thring
 By th comission, lyke Johne vpaland.

T § aine thair plesand flowre of Poyetrie
 With rurall termis and sentences denude
 Of trym figuris and painted oratrie
 From art poetick heir I it exclude.
 Desyrand zour Lordshippes to be sa gude
 To mark the sentence rather nor the style
 And take it in gude pairet thocht it be rude,
 Will God the nixt sall haue ane sharper fyle.

To call to mynde I think not necessair,
 The warkes of God within this cuntrie shawin
 Within thir seuin zeiris or lytill mair
 Sen Christis trumphet throw this land was blawin.
 Unto baith pure and riche it is weill knawin,
 And als zour selfes my Lordis may cleirly se
 That God wil haue the pride of man doune thrawin Thocht he war neuer exalted so hie.

Zit with myself considdering the estate
 Off zow my Lord Regent quhome God preserue
 And all the rest, I thocht gude to repeate
 Sum thingis that to zoure interprise mycht serue.
 Knawing that man is reddy for till swerue,
 Without continuall admonitionis be Man of his awin nature is so proterue
 Thairfoir I pray youre Lordshippes beir with me.

How potent was that horint byke of hell
 Into this land quhen God did zow vpsteir
 It is weill knawin, ze will confesse zour sell
 Zour strenth to thairis on na way mycht be peir.
 Zit God Almychtie did zour baner beir

§ Torn out in the original.

And all thair mycht and prydfull pomp ouerthrew
 Because the Lord of Hostis they did not feir Thairis did decay, and ay zoure honour grew.

Quhill that, allace, ze begouth to neglect
 The gloir of God and sa did seik zour sell,
 The maist paire I mein, that did infect
 From ferenecie within proces ze fell.
 Quhilk Godis seruandz from tyme to tyme did tel,
 And shew that God wald not sic thingis ouerse.
 Ze gaif deif earis, bot God did zow compell
 To find his worde effectuall to be.

Ze knew my minde I neid not be mair plane
 Ze se all warldly gloir for to be stidder,
 Quhen God is greuit than he spairis nane
 King Quene and Lord thay pas into ane fidder.
 Thairfoir I warne zow ane and all togidder
 To put zour stay vpone the leuing Lord,
 And all his warkis into this land considder
 Continuing in obeying of his word.

Deu. 28. Ze doing this ze neid not for till feir
 The boisting of zour ennemeis without,
 The Lord will blis zow baith in peace and weir
 And all zour ennemeis rudely ruit out.

Levi. 26. Ze sall haue freindis of them that dwellis about,
 Bot gif that ze grow slak or negligent
 The clene contrare sall cum to pas but dout
 Thairfoir I pray zow to zour selfis tak tent.

2 Chr. 15. Sa lang as Juda in King Asais dayis, Did seik the Lord with all thair hartis desyre
 Baith King and people prosperit in thair wayis 2 Chr. 16. Bot ho § ne Asa Benhadad did hyre.
 That ho battell mycht with him conspyre
 And vsit meanis as God did not allow

THE SEMPILL BALLATES.

The Propheit threitnit, during his impyre
That war and battell sould his land pas throw.

Als by King Saull I think ze may attend,
Not for till spair quhome God commandis to slay
Gif that ze do I say behauld the end

1 Kin. 15. Reid quhat the buik of Kingis of him dois say.

Siclyke of Salamon behauld the way

3 Kin 11. And als Jehu with mony vther ma
That throuchly with the Lord walkit not ay

4 Kin. 10. Thocht thay begonth weill, luik ye do not sa.

Fall to stoutly all fantnes set asyde
And throw this land mak reformation,
Remember thir exampllis tyme and tyde
Quhilkis war amang the Jewis nation.

Jos. 24. Quhairof partly is maid narration
Dissave not vs pure people of this land
Quha with ane gredie expectation
Lukis for gude reformation at your hand.

To heidis politick se ze geue na care

2 Chr. 17. Into reforming of this pure cuntrie
Bot Godis buik se that with zow ye beare,
With godlie men of wit and feruencie.

Abuif all thingis haue syc in cumpanie

Jos. 34. Obeying thame quhen they command a ryght
Without respect of blude or dignitie,
Ze doing sa the Lord sall mak yow wycht.

From offices se that ye first depois
But feid or fauour of kinred or blude,
All wicket papistis, proud and Christis fois
And Jak on baith the sydis will neuer do gude.
All ignorantis and sic men ye exclude,
Syne plat me godly men into thair place
Chr. 17. Quha equally can Judge the people rude,
And ryghtly reule ouer thame in euerie cace.

Deu. 7. Let na Idolator your handis eschaip
 Or ocht that dois Idolatrie mantene
 Leif nathing that belangis to the Paip
 Unrutit out as it had neuer bene.

Jos. 23. Anis of thay Locustis mak this cuntrie clene
 Zour foulishe pietie did thame spair befoir,
 Thairfoir ye fand thame prickis vnto your ene
 And gif ye spair thame yit sall find thame moir

Deu. 15. Nixt principallie I pray yow set your cure
 For till relief the greit penurie
 Off laubouraris and of your tennentis pure
 Quha sair opprest hes bene in this cuntrie.
 This mony zeir by the Nobilitie
 Let thame anis knew the defference betwene
 Zow and the Papistis, by your charitie
 Quhilk heirtofoir amang yow was not sene.

Thir thingis to do luik no way ye neglect
 Gif ye think lang in honour for till ring
 Bot principallie I pray yow to eiect
 Ane cursit byke that cheiflie dois maling.
 In Abirdene of Sophistis the welspring
 And in thair place put learnt men of God
 I pray God blis James Stewart our young King
 And mak him rychtly reule vs with his rod.

To thee my Lord Regent I turne my sang
 I pray thee now for till be circumspect
 In thy default se that na thing be wrang,
 For Godis seruandis thair eyis to thee direct.
 Thinking on na wayis that thow will neglect
 The gloir of God in Scotland to vpreir
 Seing he hes the rasit for that effect,
 That the Lord Jesus baner thow should beir.

To yow my Lordis als I direct my pen
 Proceid into your godlie interpryse,

As ye begouth curagiously lyke men
 For quhy greit help into your handis lyis.
 Thairfoir stoutlie se ye assist and ryse
 Hauing Godis gloir alwayis befoir your eine
 Than sal ye be haldin hardie and wyse
 Sa lang as men sall on the earth be seine.

VII.—Ane Declarationoun of the Lordis Lust Quarrell.

[BRITISH MUSEUM.—Cottonian MSS.—Caligula C. 1. f. 10—
 STATE PAPER OFFICE.—Scotish Series, Vol. 14, (August,) Number 73. — Scottish Poems of the Sixteenth Century, collected by John Graham Dalyell, Edinburgh, 1801.]

 OT lang ago as I allone did walk,
 Intill ane place was plesand to behauld :
 Twa leirnit men in priuie I hard talk,
 And eich of thame his taill in ordoure tauld
 I vnderstuid thair sentence quhat thay wald,
 And thocht it gude to put in memorie
 Thair Names als as efter ze sall se.

The taine him self Philandrius did call,
 Quha in vertew and manheid tuik delyte :
 The tother feirfull semt to be at all,
 Erideilus he did his Name indyte
 Off mony thingis thay did togidder flyte,
 But I tuik tent aboue all vther thing
 Quhen they spak of this Realme and gouerning.

Erideilus sayis it dois merwell me,
 Quhat causit hes the Lordis of Scotland
 Tak on ane enterpryse of sic folie,
 Againe the Quene and againis hir husband :
 Mycht thay not weill ilk ane in his awin land
 In quyvetnes leift in peace and rest,
 Guyding his awin as him had lykit best.

To quhome Philandrius did answer mak,
 And said that men war not deuyst onlie :
 Without all cair thair awin pleasure to tak,
 Bot to foirse the weill of that countrie
 Reularis of quhilk, the Lord will that thay be,
 Quhilk charge (he sayis) thay can not weill refuse,
 Les schamefullie thair office thay abuse.

Behalding than the actis execrabill,
 That in this countrie hes committit bene,
 The schame the lack the bruit abominabill :
 That saikles men with sorow did sustene,
 Ane priuat hart it mycht prik vp with tene,
 To seik redres and mend that cairfull caico
 Far mair the nobillis of the Royall raice.

To se the King fyrst lychlit schamefully,
 And not chereist in chalmer nor in hall :
 Syne murdreist downe causeles and crewelly,
 Off that tresoun na tryall taine at all.
 Thay quhome the bruit did trewlie traytouris call,
 Greitest in Court and chereist all thair best,
 Quhat Lordis hart culd luik on this and lest.

To se ane monstuir full of fylthynes,
 Aboue the rest heich mountit vp in gloir
 Baith Prince and Realme and all power posses.
 Ane gled ay gaipand guid men to deuoir,
 Quhat hart sa hard bot this sycyt sould mak soir,
 Quha rychtly than dar thir men reprehend :
 Sic greit mischeif quha menis till amend,

To se the Quene furth rydand on the plaine,
 Reft lyke ane huire with ruffians shamefullie,
 And thocht that sum think that was bot ane traine,
 Hir awin wryting dois contrar testifie,
 In France Ingland and mony strange countrie :
 Pleinzeand that sho was rauyssit by hir will Quhat Nobill hart mycht se this and sit still.

To reif, to murther and wyle licherie,
 The fourt forfault is eikit euin fra hand :
 To testifie that Law and honestie
 With sic ribaldis can not ring in ane land,
 The Quene is cuplit with ane wyffis husband
 And farther zit he quha the King did sack,
 But Law the Quene dar into mariage tak.

Besyde all this thair durst na vertuous wycht,
 In presence of that proud tyran appeir :
 Bludy boucheouris and throtcutters on nyght,
 War only hard, and only had the steer.
 The Nobill men durst not the Court cum ueir,
 The royall hous refuge to honest men
 Was maid ane bordell and ane theifis den.

Our prettie Prince the peirle of all this land,
 With duilfull deid thay socht for to deuoir :
 That riche relick and thresour of Scotland,
 Destroy as thay his father did befoir.
 Quhat duilfull mynde mycht dewlie this deploir,
 In sic dainger to se that innocent
 For our releif quhome God had till vs sent,

Quhat Nobill hart could langer this induire ?
 Quhat common breist did not for sorrow burst ?
 Quhat godly man of himself could be suire ?
 Quhat stranger thocht bot this countrie was curst ?
 Quhat preachour this repreif, I pray zow durst :
 Quhat chaist woman wyssit not to be deid,
 To se sic vice set vp in vertewis steid.

Gif it was sa, than quha can worthylie
 Exalt and prais, and magnifie the Name
 Off thir Nobillis quha durst couragiouslie Haziard thame self to saif vs all fra shame.
 Thair laud, thair honour, and tryumphand fame,
 Salbe disperst in dispyte of Inuy, Quhen faceles fuillis sall not be settin by.

Erideilus than answer maid againe,
 Thy talk he sayis is treuth and veritie :
 Bot sit sum douts thair is of quhilk rycht faine, Gif laser lat I wald resoluit be,
 And fyrist tuiching the Queni's libertie :
 For mony thinkis thir Barronis ar to bauld.
 In strait keping a Princes for to hauld.

Philandrius to answer than him sped,
 And this he said Eridielus vntill :
 Gif that a freind with fayis away war led
 Be wickit craft syne tystit war till ill.
 Thocht he couet in that stait to byde still,
 Zit in that caice his freindis of dewtie
 Sould wis his weill and seik his libertie.

And gif his fantasie war sa far infectit,
 That to the treuth he could not bent his eir.
 He sould not be in foly zit neglectit
 Bot fairnes than sould mixit be with feir,
 And gif all this could him na wysedome leir
 Than acht he be of all puissance denude,
 To do na euill gif he could do na gude.

Than sen that bowdin bludy beist Bothwell,
 Hes trayterously in myrk put downe our King :
 His wyfe the Quene syne rauyssit to him sell,
 In fylthie lust throw culour of wedding.
 Thocht sho be witcheit wald in ruttery ring,
 The Nobillis sould nether of thir enduire,
 That lowne to leif, nor hir to be his huire.

And gif the poysone in her hart be sonkin,
 That sho will not consent he puneist be :
 Gif with his fylthie lust sho be sa dronkin,
 That sho forzet office and honestie
 Than man her Nobillis of necessitie,
 Cut of hir force quhill tresoun be reuengeit,
 And this confusioun in ane ordour changeit.

In priuat personnis sayis Eridielus,
 I vnderstand thy taill is trew in deid :
 Bot in Princes it is mair perrillous,
 And few exemplis thairof can I reid.
 And in sic caice the subiectis all had neid,
 Haill to concur with ane authoritie
 Sic concurrence in Scotland nane I se.

Philandrius sayis brother than consider,
 How fyrst began all dominatiounis :
 Quhen ruid pepill assemblit thame togidder.
 And maid thair Kingis be creatiounis.
 In votis than war variatiounis,
 I trow ryght few was chosin be the haill,
 Bot he was King quhais pairtie did preuaill.

Rycht sa gif Princes sa thame self abuse,
 That of force subiectis man put to thair hand :
 Guid men sould not than to reforme refuse,
 Thocht all at ainis concur not on thair band.
 Naimly gif Justice on thair partie stand,
 And maist consent gif quha wald rackin rycht,
 Sen God hes gein to thame baith strenth and mycht.

Zea thocht it war ane King for to depose,
 For certaine crymis I think the subiectis may,
 Or fylthy faultouris fast in prisone close,
 Rather than lat ane haill countrie decay.
 Thay sould not sturre thocht sum men wold say nay
 To ane purpose the haill will neuer conclude,
 Thay haue aneuch, hes force and quarrell gude.

May thay not put ane ordoure to the heid :

Quha in beginning did the heid vp mak
May thay not set ane better in the steid,

Gif it fra vice can not be callit bak.

Les this be done Realmes will ga to wrak,

Namely quhen that the cryme is sa patent
That nouther misters Juge nor argument.

As gif ane King his pepill wald betray,

And him and thame baith bring to seruitude :
He could in this reformatie be I say,

Naimly be Nobillis and be men of gude.

The Baliols cause considder how it stude,

Quhat ryght had Robert Bruice him to expell ?
Because to Ingland he subiect him sell.

And now gif I durst speik without respect,

To huirmaisters, to murderers of Kingis :
To throtcutters our Realme was made subiect,

Quha in thair malice proudly zit malingis.

Lat Nobill hartis considder all thir thingis,

Thay sall weill find that this puire natioun,
Greit mister had of reformatioune.

Sic fylthie lust in Sardanapalus,

Sic crueltie Nero did not ring :

Sic brutishe lyfe in Heliogabalus

Sic traytour mynde to slay his Lord and King,
In feinzeit Phocas breist did neuer spring :

Sic beistly bowgrie Sodome hes not sene

As rang in him quha rewlit Realme and Quene.

And could the Nobill Barronis of this land

In hoilis lurk and this mischief behauld, Quhair is the wittis wont to reule Scotland ?

Go Reid the buik, repeit the storyis auld,
King Euenus was keipit in strang hauld

And deit thair Conarus was inclosit,
Fist being dewlie for his fault deposit.

For wickit lyfe imprison't was Ferquahaird,
 Quha slew him self of proude melancolie,
 Donald the fyft he gat the same reuaird :
 And Ethus did in prisone priuate die.
 And gif ze list to go fra this countrie,
 In euerie land exemplis dois abound
 Gif thay be socht thay may be eithlie found.

For sic misordour proude Tarquinius
 Was the last King that euer did ring in Rome,
 For lyke crymes the tyran Cladius :
 Losit his stait and gat deid for his dome.
 To speik of Nero now I haue na tome,
 Off Commodus, Caius and Caracall,
 It war to lang for to discriue the fall.

Quhat sorow into Naples than was sene,
 Quha knawis the story cleirly thair may reid,
 Quhen Charlis dochter Jeane that catiue Quene :
 Baith honestie forzet and womanheid.
 Hir husband and hir cousing put to deid,
 Syne with his Burrio band ane new mariage, Allace this sample seruis ouer weill our age.

And zit the Lord he leit hir not eschaip,
 Bot of hir tuik ane punishment conding :
 Quha fyrst hir husband hangit in ane raip,
 The murtherer syne in his bed did bring.
 God maid hir paine aggre with hir guyding,
 As bedfoly to sic mischeif hir led Euin so sho endit smorit with a bed.

Than to conclude thir Nobillis dois bot rycht,
 Gif thay the Quene keip still in sicker gaird,
 Untill that coward Kingslayar on nyght
 For his demeritis get ane iust reward.
 Than lat thame all concur baith Lord and Laird,

Thair Realme and Quene with gude consall to guyde Settand all priuate profit far a syde.

Gif thay do this than dar I say ane thing,

Thair laude and fame sall mont aboue the skyis,
Thair heich renoune sall in all Regiouen ring :

Thair name sall gang quhair euer the Sone do ryse,
Thay salbe repuite hardy wycht and wyse,

In all storyis thay salbe cleirly kend,
The Leuing Lord bring thame to this gude end.

As this Philandrius did frely talk,

The tother pairt Erideilus be name,
Rais vp and quyetlie away did stalk,

And as me thocht he waxit reid for schame,
Quhilk when I saw I rais vp and come hame

And put in wryt thair disputatioun,
As ze haue hard be this narratioun.

Finis.

VIII.—¶ The Kingis Complaint.

[BRITISH MUSEUM.—Roxburghe Ballads. Volume 3.]

GI TH hauie hart on Snadoun hill,
 Ane zoung King I hard schoutand schill
 With reuthfull rair he did record:
 Prayand as I haif writ this bill
 Judge and Reuenge my cause O Lord.

¶ He sayis this causles I not craif
 Nor he is now gone to his graif
 My commoun weill that maist decorde,
 Na merwell albeit my hart clai'
 For sorrow of his deith O Lord.

¶ Hard is my chance all tyme and houris
 And harder to my Gouernouris,
 Ze hardest (bot wo am I forde)
 To him hes felt of deith the schouris
 And only for thy cause O Lord.

¶ Quhen I was not zit ane zeir auld, Bothwell that bludy Bouchour bauld,
 My Father cruelly deuorde,
 He him betrayit and his blude sauld
 Judge and Reuenge my cause O Lord.

¶ Than Father slaine, Mother was schēt
 My Gudschir flemit Incontinent,
 My self to poysoun it was schorde,
 Me to betray was summis Intent
 Judge and Reuenge my cause O Lord.

¶ Than vp thow rasit to reule my Ring,
 In to my tender yeiris zing,
 My faithfull freind that maid him forde,
 James Regent my Uncle ding,
 Judge and Reuenge my cause O Lord.

¶ He was my buckler and my beild,
 He was my Targe, my speir and scheild,
 My stait maist hie for to restorde:
 He futtit euer mair the feild,
 Judge and Reuenge his cause O Lord.

¶ For me he left Kin, Freind and wyfe,
 For me he sufferit dailie stryfe
 For me he was haill Indeuorde,
 For me now he hes loist his lyfe,
 Judge and Reuenge his cause O Lord.

¶ For me that Nobill of Renoun,
 With ane Tyke Tratour Hammiltoun,
 Was schot, and throw the body borde
 For the mantening of my Crowne
 Judge and Reuenge his cause O Lord.

¶ Peloure thou peirst him, gaif ye peace,
 Tratoure to him that gaif the grace,
 Behind his bak thy Gunne him gorde:
 Quhome thou nor name of thyne dirst face,
 Judge and Reuenge his cause O Lord.

¶ Lord sen my gratiouys gyde is gone,
 And I am left as Byrd allone,
 This thing maist eirnystly I Implorde:
 That Instantly thou steir vp one
 For to Reuenge his cause O Lord.

¶ Sen for my saik now he is slane,
 Lord for thy grace grant me agane,
 That deith my lyfe neuer deuorde,
 Quhill that fals tressonabill trane
 Be with my hand Reuengd O Lord.

¶ O Scotland thy Josias trew
 That first Idolatrie ouerthrew

He was, and Christs trew Kirk restorde Throw him in my Realme grace ay grew,
 Judge and Reuenge his cause O Lord.

¶ He Abrahamis Faith but feir profest
 He Dauidis mercy manifest
 With Salomonis wit he was decorde,
 Sampsonis strenth to him accrest
 Judge and Reuenge his cause O Lord.

¶ Theif and Reuer he did dant,
 Justice and vertew he did plant,
 Quhair thair was mys he gar remorde,
 My faithfull seruand and thy Sanct,
 Judge and Reuenge his cause O Lord.

¶ As his Renoun is all ouerblawin,
 And now his deith plainly furthschawin,
 Sa sall all blyithnes be abhorde
 Quhill his Reuenge be als wa knawin, Throw thy help and support O Lord.

¶ All ze my trew Nobilitie,
 That faourit him, and seruit me,
 Lat not his duilfull deith be smorde,
 Bot it Reuenge maist cruellie
 For it is the will of the Lord.

¶ And quha his deith dois sair regaird
 And it to puneis will not spaird
 I wowl to the in quhome he glorde
 Thay sall not mys ane riche rewaird
 For to Reuenge his cause O Lord.

¶ Now sall appeir in wark and nature,
 Quha is the trew man, quha is the trature
 Quha fittis the feild, quha cuiris not forde,
 The trew liege be the Rubiature
 In this cause salbe kend O Lord.

¶ And think that thay that did this deid.
 With lyke effect dois seik my heid,
 For to be beatin downe and smorde
 All Faithfull hartis quyte thair meid,
 And thow Reuenge my cause O Lord.

¶ For surely thair will and Intent
 That seikes of me the Gouernment,
 Be fraudfull factiounis, I stand forde,
 Wald me forfault in Parliament,
 Gif thow withstude thame not O Lorde.

My Coronatioun thay deny
 And dois maist spytefully defy
 All thame that faithfully restorde Me to my Crowne and Seignorie
 Thy michtie hand requyte thame Lord.

Last Lord now him of me hes cvre
 And in quhais handis I think me sure,
 Thy puissant power I Implorde,
 That he with me lang dayis Indure
 For to Reuenge his cause O Lord.

With this the Babe he gifis ane rair
 Quhilk maid my hart to sich sa sair,
 That farther I culd not recordre
 Bot with him soll cry euer mair,
 Judge and Reuenge his cause O Lord.

¶ Finis.

TOM TROATH TO THE ENUIOUS.

 F Momus children seke to knowe my name and where I dwell,
I am Tom Troath and my aboade I list not it to tell
For wise men loue not to enquyre, who where, but what is said
And holde themselves therewith content till further proufe be made.

THE DOUBLE DEALINGE OF THE REBELLS IN SCOTLAND.

If tongue could tell or pen could write, the craftie cloaked case
Or yet the treasons to recyte of this newe Regents grace Then Tullies stile or Vergills yearese of God sure would I crave
His shameles acts here to rehearse as he deserues to have But that were farre aboue my reach and more then well could be
Sith he all others doeth excell in craft & crueltye.
Yet can I not with silence passe his vices strainge & rare
But that I must set furth the same the truthe least I should spare
And nowe since that it is my luck vnfittest though I be
This Caco's ofsprings to advaunce as semes to his decree
I pray you take it in good parte whats'euer I shall saye
In settinge furth his shameles acts whose shame shall not decaye.
Yet can I not set furth the same nor in such wise expresse

As fittest were for one past shame and past all godlines
This traytor tyraunt of our tyme This Sathans seed I meane
This Rebell Regent that his prince to mate doeth not desdaine
This perfect patterne of deceipt whose high and hawghtye minde
Is paste so full of pride that hard it were the like to finde
This sinfull seed of lothsome life this bastard past all grace.
At Gloucester that Traytor vile a perfect paterne chase.
Who to obteyne that Kingly seate of this most worthy land
His brothers sonnes his Nephewes dere to guyde they toke in hand
The lambes alas vnto the wolfe to guyde committed were Who murdered them to haue their place as storyes well declare
But shall I say this traytor nowe at him did learne his lore Who doeth surpassee his wilie wit a thowsand folde and more
A scholler sure of pregnant wit and apt for such a place
Who trayned vp was in the schole of lyeinge Sathans
grace
Where he hath learnd a finer feate then Richard earst did see
To doe the deede and laye the blame on them that blameles be
For he and his companions take agreeing all in one
Did kill the Kinge and laye the blame the sakelesse Queene vpon.
And that this deede to each mans sight might seme to be most plaine
They drewe her from her spowse that night by craft & subtill trayne
And feyned that her suckinge Sonne was in great daunger brought

Wherfore with speed to visit him the messenger be sought
With subtil shifte so feately wrought was cause men thought it trewe
That she of purpose parted thence & of the murder knewe
For if that boeth at once had bene ther murder at that tyme
Then might each babe with half an eye haue spedy who did the cryme
And this suspicion to increase they found a newe devise.
That Bothwell chiefest murderer was tryed by asise
And found not guilty by his peeres of whome the chiefest be Such as the Kings death did conspire and knewe as well as he.
They cleared him eke by parliamente a traytour false & vile
That they their good and vertuous Queene might soner so beguyle
And when that he was cleared boeth by sise and parlement
To marry then they went about to have her to consent
They sayd that she the realme & they should so most safest be
From daunger of all cevill strife & outward enemy.
Alack good Q. what hap hadst thou so oft thy foes to trust
Couldst thou not shun these bateinge beasts who then had tryed vniust
But I who pray yo^u was the man they willed her to take Forsooth the chiefest murderer whom they most clere did make
And that their purpose once begun might come vnto an end
They caused Traytor Lidington on her still to attend
That this false mache vilian attempt her euery waye

Whose poysoned words so sugred were that she could not say Nay
But did consent to ther request suspecting nothing lesse Then they such false deceipt to meane & vse such doables
But when the wofull weding daye was finished & past
Their boyleing malice that laye hid in rageing sort out brast
For they that were of Counsell boeth to murdering of the Kinge
And to the mariage gan to spread howe Bothwell did ye thinge
And how he tooke away the Q. by force against her will
And sought himselfe to raigne as Kinge and eke ye prince to spill
But (bastard) nowe the truthe is knowne how yt thy self it was
That sought to spill boeth prince and Q. and to possesse their place
But when amongst the simple sort this rumor once was brought
It ran abrode from place to place more swift than can be tho^t
So they not privy to the sleight did think it for most sure
That she to wed the murderer the murther did procure
And thus this simple Q. each way was wrapt in wo & care
For they that cannot skill of craft are sonest caught in snare
And then the Traytor Lidington in treason neuer slack
At hand ye pickpurse still before began to start now back
And fled vnto her fruyteles foes her secrets to bewray
Like will to like the proverb saith you know the old said sawe
Then Murray ye of longe before this murder did devise Did voyd the land the rather so to blind the simples eyes

And then his fellowe Traytors all the more their cause to clere
Did rise in armes against their Q. as though she guilty were
But she to save the sackles bloud not willing to offend
Did leave her power and offred them all things amisse t'amend
The traytors not therewith content did lead her thence away
And chainged all her leave attyre into a frock of grey
That done they lead her furth by night vnto Lochleuin hold
And kept her there in prison close that no man se her could Then when they had this brought to passe their trayt'rous false desire
They sent with speed to Bastard James & willd him to retyre
Who comeinge home for loue he bare the prince as he did saye
Did take in hand to rule the realme lest it fell in decay Howe well this Traytor lovs the Child comytted to his gward
Is plaine in that the mother dere he kept in Crewell warde
And causd her thereby forced fact y^e present death to shunne
Her Royall Crowne for to resigne vnto her tender sonne
And make this mynyon Murray eake chife Regent of the land
Vntill the prince of lawfull age the same shall take in hand
W^{ch} while he would as Richard did if he might haue his will
His Nephewe younge his sisters sonne by secret meanes to spyll
And then he would vsurpe the Crowne as next heire to the same

W^{ch} doeth appeare in that he doeth his father so defame
And saith his brother precontract was in most solomne wise

Vnto the Kinge before that he was maried to the Guise Although that wisemen know the truthe this sorceress how she wrought

By rings and wiche arte from the Q. the Kings minde to haue brought

And thus this traytor doeth debase the Q. in all he can That from her grace withdrawe he might the hearts of euerie man

A Cowle a Cowle for such a greke were fitter for to weare Then this Apostat deacon should such princely Rule to beare

But where is nowe true discipline dare no man take in hand

To teach such false Apostate Monks their faults to vnderstand

And neake this base borne Deacon come home to his former state

From whence the Lither Lozell fled least he should live too straight

But sure no marvell though Gods rodd hath plagued this noble dame

That gaue to Monkes should serue in Churche such place of worldly fame

Yet he not all vnmindfull of this Ladies gratefull deed
Did purpose with a cruell death to quick her for her nede
But God Almighty in whosc hands the harts of princes be Preserue her from these false attempt & vile captivitye
And when this Noble pray was past this brothers bloody night

He rages like a Tiger fell for sorowe and for spite
So seing that he could not then his Noble Q. to spill Vpon her faithfull subiects he began to work his will
For some he cast in prison depe no cause at all thereto
And some he thrust out of the realme to work them great^r woe

And some he put to cruell death his rage for to fulfill No meanes he left there vnattempt her subiects lives to spill

Yet not content in this great rage on men to play his parte
In spight of God against his Christe he gan to shewe his art

And pulled thence boeth bells & lead with iewells many one

That he and his companions might more braver therein gone

For sure I am that some of them amongst his Trayter-ous trayne

Have on their back more lead at once then covereth
Churches twayne

So that no hardned hearte of brasse but would lament right sore

To se prophaneing of each place as serueth God and yore
And when he had this sacrelidge comitted euery where On loftye Towres & Castles stronge his rage did then appere

On Dunbarre first he spued his spite a castle fayre and stronge

And there he wrought boeth day and night till it was layd alonge

Then uisteth furth and Loghinuar so semely to the shewe

He spoylid them first & sackt them then who could more cruell doe

The lord of Sterlinges howse likewise did fele y^e form^r chauce

W^{ch} trayterouslye he did deface his glorie to advaunce
Then Roslin Bower of brave attyre wth Saintclere doth possesse

Most shamefully he ransauctt so to work him more distresse

Lord Harris lands that Baron bolde who let him of his will When he was gone throughout the same he did both robb & spill

But what should I here longer staye eche place here to recyte
Sith few there are but that his rage hath nowe defaced quite
When he had wrought his wilfull witt & had his false intent
To blinde the eyes of faithfull men he calld a parliament Where flockt his fellowe Traytors all both Moreton and Magill
With Lindsay Marre and Ledington yea Balfour laye not still
With other of this fruyteles flock and falsely did invent
That all things there concluded were by full & whole consent
Thus sinfull Sathan workt his will through these his children dere
That falsehood raignes in steed of right as here it doeth
appere
Yet haue they not so slye wrought though Sathan was their guide
But that their treason euery deale at last as well espied
For they to some were innocent of this most haynous deed
Did catch 4 of the murderers and put to death with speed Whereby they hope to make men think herein that they were clere
Sith Justice they did execute on some that guylty were As Hepburne Daglace Penory too John Hey made vp the messe
W^{ch} 4 when they were put to death the treason did confesse
And said that Murray Moreton to with others of their rowte
Were guylty of the murder vile though nowe they loke full stowte
Yet some perchaunce do think that I speake for affection here

Though I would so 3000 can herein true witnes beare
Who present were as well as I at the execution tyme
And hard how these in conscience prickt confessed who did the cryme
Wherefore all princes take good heed let this for warning stand
And trye before yo^u trust I warne lest check be nere at hand
But though his check it semes so sure that mate is now at hand
Yet may his Q. such gward procure as shall his force withstand
And then she may as he began bid check & mate with thee
And warne him since his force is done to yeld or els to flye
To yeld I meane from false attempt & flye such vaine request
And gward himself wth reasons rule and set his heart at rest
And spend no more his tyme in vaine such false attempts to trye
Least if they vse them over oft hele clime I feare to highe
And thus I reaste & make an end and wish him to beware
No more such checks & tawnes to give least he be caught in snare.

Finis q^d Tom Trowth.

X.—Ane Tragedie, in forme of ane Diallog betwix Honour, Gude Fame, and the Authour heirof in ane trance.

[SCOTISH POEMS OF THE SIXTEENTH CENTURY, Collected by John Graham Dalyell, Edinburgh 1801.]

N Januar the thre and twentie day,
Befoir midnycht, in Lythquo as I lay,
Tumbling sum tyme on bed abon the clais,
Now heir, now thair, quhylis doun, quhylis up I rais ;
Till at the last, in twinkling of ane ee,
Schir Morpheus the Mair assailzeit me,
With all his sluggische suldarts out of number,
Quhilks led me captiue vnto Maister Slumber,
Quha softly said, Gar keip this pure catiue,
And tak from him his speiche and wittis fwe.
Than come Dame Drening, all clad in blak sabill,
With sweyning nymphis in cullooris variabill ;
Amangis the quhilks, befoir me thair appeiris
Ane woundit man, of aucht and threttie zeiris,
Paill of the face, baith blaiknit, blude and ble, Deid eyit, dram lyke, disfigurat was he,
Nakit and bair, schot throw pudling and panche,
Abone the nauil, and out abone the hanche.
Na word he said, quhairthrow I did misknaw him,
Because in sic ane stait I neuer saw him.
I wes agast, and sa begouth to feir,
Bot suddanly with him thair did appeir
Twa graif lyke persounis, of greit maiestie,
And with gude countenance thay said to me :
We ar cum heir to the, O wofull wycht,
To cause the write that thing thow seis this nyght ;
For we are knit, in band maryit togidder,
And to this woundit wycht father and mother ;
We him begat within thir twentie zeiris,

Thocht deid lyke now he so to the appeiris ;
 We brocht him vp, as ovr deir sone and air,
 And he to serue vs na traueil did spair ;
 Thacht Atropus hes maid his corps decay,
 Zit immortall in heuin his saule dois stay,
 And, als immortall, he sall with vs rest,
 And we with him, sa lang as warld may last.

Gude Schir, (quod I), and ze also Madame,
 Be not offendit that I speir zour name.
 How thay call zow, that talkis sa hamely with me,
 And quhat is he that first appeirit vnto me,
 That woundit man, quhome ze do call zour chylde,
 Quhat is zour names, lat se how ar ze stylde ?

Quod thay, My sone, of that we think na schame ;
 Honour I am, heir with my spous Gude Fame :
 This woundit chylde of ouris thow may lament,
 He was thy maister ainis, and zour Regent.

My Maister ainis ! (quod I) : zit is he so.

Nay, nay, (quod thay), he is with vs ago ;
 We haif him taine out of that wicket lyfe,
 And red him of all miserie and stryfe ;
 Because ze wardlingis ar ane cursit clan,
 Ze war not worthie of this godly man.

Allace, (quod I), deid lyke he dois appeir.

Be still, (quod thay), and to our sayingis heir :
 Speid, speid, go to ; tak pen, ink, paper, and wryte
 As we, Honour and Gude Fame, sall indyte.

First thow sall wit, he was sone natural
 To James the Fyft, zour King and Prince Royal :
 Thocht, beand zoung, to kirkis he was promotit,
 Zit we his hart with martiall deidis dotit :
 For them the Lord sa blissit his affairis,
 That furth of Fyfe he chaist his aduersairis,
 With help of gentill men and subiectis to him,
 The quhilkis war willing all seruice to do him :
 Thair we begat him, and maid him our awin,
 As he is, was, and sa sall euer be knawin.
 Syne, efter that, he passit into France,

Quhair he did vs, and we did him auance :
 Than hauing leirnit thair sum Frenche langage,
 He brocht agane with vs his pucelage.
 Now, to be schort, it war lang to discerne
 The godly giftis that this our sone did lerne ;
 For as in age he daily did increas,
 In vertew sa grew he, and lawlynes :
 First he did leirne to lufe God aboue all,
 And syne his nichtbour with lufe mutuall :
 Trew faith he leirnit of gude Abraham,
 With hoip and cheritie knit to the same :
 He leirnit als of Salomon the wisdome,
 How with the feir of God to reule ane kingdome :
 Of strang Sampson he had also the fors,
 For to resist Gods foes on fute and hors ;
 Thocht thir tratours, that drest him in this cace,
 Durst not present thair force befoir his face :
 He had lykewyse the justice of Jethro,
 And als the chastitie of Scipio :
 He had of Dauid the beningnitie,
 And of Titus the liberalitie.
 Quhat wald thou moir ? To tell of all his vertus,
 For commoun-welthis he did excell Camillus :
 Quhen pleisit God to send zow Scottis ye treuth,
 The same to further at Leith he was not sleuth ;
 Reforming first his awin with diligence,
 In euerie quarter quhair he had puissance ;
 Than was he stylit Lord James at that tyde,
 To quhome zour Lordis gaif sum reule and gyde.
 Sone efter that, zour Quene ane wedow was,
 The quhilk to bring in Scotland he did pas ;
 In France he went, and brocht that Lady hame,
 Quha efterwart agane changit his name ;
 Bot zit we maryit him, quhen we thocht gude,
 Unto ane Lady of hie kyn and blude :
 Than did zour Quene mak him baith Erle & Lord
 Of Murray land, to quhilk we did accord ;
 Sa condiscendit all zour Lordis togidder,

That, nixt zour Quene, he suld reule abone vther.
Bot than, allace, he did sum thing without vs,
Howbeit that all his lyfetyme he did dout vs:
He did permit zour Quene to haif ane Mes,
Throw quhilk at lēth scho grew in greit proundes;
Sa did the Papistis all, athort this land,
Aganis the Lord his will, law, and command,
That ze almaist amang zow wer deuydit,
Wer not be him all wes the better gydit.
Sa lang in court as our sone had the steir,
And that zour Quene wald his gude counsail heir,
Sa lang all thing zeid weill, and wes weill drest,
In quyetnes, peace, policie and rest:
Nane durst rebell on either syde of Forth,
Ouir all this cuntrie, eist, west, south, & north:
The hiest of thame all he maid full law,
That did rebell aganis justice and law.
Than did zour Quene sum tyme with vs abyde;
In France, and Scotland baith, we did her gyde.
Bot at the last, in hir tranquillitie,
Scho did vs all abandoun wantounlie,
And turnit day in nyght, and nyght in day,
All the nyght lang, to sport, sing, dance and play;
Till at the last, baith Cupido and Venus,
Furth of ye court, gart baneis, chais, and stane vs.
Than come Dishonour and Infame, our fais,
And brocht in ane to reule with raggit clais:
Thocht he wes blak, and moriane or hew,
In credite sone, and gorgius clais he grew:
Thocht he wes forraine, and borne in Piemont,
Zis did he Lords of ancient blude surmont:
He wes to hir baith secreit, trew, and traist,
With hir estemite mair nor all the raist.
In yis mene tyme, cam hame yan my Lord Darlie,
Of quhais rair bewtie scho did sumpart farlie,
The fairest sycht, scho thocht, that euir scho saw;
Hir bewtie als did him in hir snair draw.
For to be schort, thay lufit sa togidder,

That thay culd not be hour of day but vther.
 At last scho said, and caist in to hir mynde,
 Quhat, quhat, sall I be thus with Cupide pynde ?
 That will I not, bot go to my purpos ;
 Zit first I will my mynde to sum disclois :
 Then with gude vult, and visage meik and mylde,
 Brother, (quod scho), scho said vnto our chylde,
 Will not ze weill that I marie aue man,
 Baith of our surname, kynreid, blude and clan ?
 Lo this is he standing befoir zour face,
 Lustie, gude lyke, and cum of Royall race ;
 Him will I marie, and nane vther wycht,
 Witnes heirof, to him my treuth I plycht
 In your presence, desyring zow lykewyse
 That ze be witnes to this interpryse.
 Quhat wald thow mair ? without all friends cōsent,
 This Lord scho maryit quhen thay were absent,
 Quha was bot zoung, and culd not reule the ring,
 And thay disperst that suld haif done sic thing.
 Sa this stranger, and fallow of na kin,
 In Thuring borne, and wes aue menstrells sone,
 Begouth to reule, and callit Seinzeour Dauid,
 Be quhome zour King and Lords war all dissauid.
 It wald be lang on this mater to stanl.
 Our sone thay chaist syne efter in Ingland,
 With sindrie vther Lordis that went vnto him,
 The quhilkis wer all of aue opinioun with him.
 Be this Dauid zour Lordis did this sustene ;
 Be him zour King was lychtlyit with zour Quene :
 Be him all thing was reulit in the court ;
 For him cum all this cummer, stryfe, and stourt ;
 Throw hini, in him, be him, zour court was gydit,
 Quhill that zour Kind and Lordis culd not abyde it ;
 The quhilkis schortly in coūsall did cōfidder,
 And with aue mynde thay did consent togidder
 Dauid to slay, quhair euer thay mycht haif him.
 Concluding thus, on nyght thay did persaue him,
 At supper tyme, quhair he was in hir chalmer ;

Than come zour King & sum Lords, with ane glamer,
 And reft him from hir, in spyte of his nois,
 Syne schot him furth quicklie amang his fois,
 Quha stickit him, withouttin proces moir :
 Bot all his mischeif come sensyne thairfoir.
 Howbeit scho was sone closit vp belieue,
 Hir gairdis defendit, and hir self captiue ;
 Zit culd scho not in hart sic thing forzet,
 Bot baid hir tyme, quhill scho hir tyme mycht get.
 Than come thir Lords the nixt morne efter hame,
 And maist humblie our sone halsit that dame,
 Quha was with chylde, & neir sax monethis gone,
 And him forgaif, and maid to him hir mone :
 Sayand, Brother, allace, had ze bene heir,
 I had not cum in this sturt and steir ;
 My secretar is slane in my presence,
 Oh, oh, brother, allace, quhat greit offence !
 Madame (quod he) cair not, that is small tynsall ;
 He wes our fo, and gaif zour Grace euill coūsall.
 Weill, weill, (quod scho), at leist, brother, lat se
 Gif ze can set me at full libertie ;
 For I am keipit as in presoun heir,
 And na servand of myne dar cum me neir.
 With hir fair wordis, he sat hir clene at fredome,
 Be our aduyse, quhilk was bot lytill wysdome :
 For to Dunbar that nyght scho raid in haist,
 Behind ane man in poist, as scho war chaist.
 Thair come till hir anew of men fra hand,
 Quhilks chaist zour Lords sone efter in Ingland,
 Quhair thay remanit baneist and absent,
 Quhill France and Ingland maid thappoynment.
 This, quhen we thocht ilk thing wes weill agreit,
 Zit wes zour Quenes hart na wayis satisfeit,
 Bot with Bothwell scho maid conspiracie,
 Seikand the way to cause hir husband die.
 Heir we lat pas greit tressounis thay committit,
 Quhilks, for schortnes of tyme, we haif omittit.
 Bot of zour King, schortly for to declair,

Bothwell with pulder blew him in the air,
 At hir reueist : quhilk is ane thing weill knawin,
 As sen syne tauld sum seruands of thair awin ;
 The quhilk Bothwell, for all his fylthie body,
 Maryit he was vnto ane nobill Lady ;
 Bot zit zour Quene, be wrang law falslie forsit,
 Maid him and hir from vther be deuorsit.

Than went our sone schortly in France agane,
 Quhair we thre togidder did remane :
 Sa, in our absence, maryit scho Bothwell,
 Quha did hir husband kill, as thou hard tell.
 Of this zour nobills culd not be content ;
 With burghis and cōmounis forwardts furth thay wēt
 Quhair thay met vther vpon Carberrie hil ;
 Tuke hir ; he fled, and na blude thay did spill.
 Than in Lochleuin scho wes put as in waird,
 Thocht efterwart scho had ane sleuthfull gaird.
 Zit did zour Lords auyse thame of ane thing,
 To crowne hir sone zour Prince, & mak him King :
 Quhilk act thay did, with his motheris consent,
 Confirmit be the Lords in Parliament ;
 And than, because he wes ouer zoung to gouerne,
 Amangis thame selfis wyslie thay did discerne
 For to elect our sone, in his absence,
 Regent to be vnto zour zounely Prence :
 Than did zour Lords send for him to cum hame :
 With him come we, baith Honour and Gude Fame.
 All burghs and cōmounis, halelie did yai loif him ;
 Bot sindrie said, that thay wald haif name of him :
 Sa gydit he, ane quhyle, with pacience,
 Quhill he mycht to his fais mak resistance.
 Bot at the last, zour Quene wes lattin furth,
 Conuoyit away be sum wes lytill gude worth ;
 And spedelie to Hammiltoun scho went,
 Quhair scho fand men anew incontinent,
 The quhilks dispysit vs, Honour and Fame,
 Thairfoir all turnit to thair vtter schame.
 Our sone and we wer than in Glasgow towne ;

Te hald the airis in thay parts he wes bowne :
 Than come scho fordwart, with hir strenth & fors,
 Ma than seuin thowsand, quhat on fute and hors ;
 Zea, twa for ane, we think thay wer agane vs :
 The towne to leaue, yai thocht than to cōstrane vs :
 Bot we the Langsyde hill befoir thame wan,
 And be Gods grace, disconfeist yame : Ilk man
 We tuke and slew ; scho fled into Ingland,
 Quhair scho is zit, not at hir awin command.
 Ovr sone cryit out, Lat na mair blude be sched,
 Bot tak and saif the rest that now be fled.
 In deid, yat day, yair wes slane in yat place,
 Ma Hammiltounis nor ony vther race.
 Howbeit the rest of thame, maist gratiouislie,
 He did intreit with pardoun and mercie :
 Thay him rewardit with ingratitudo,
 And traterously this nyght hes sched his blude.
 Efter this feild, our sone in Ingland went ;
 We left him not, bot wes with him present.
 Than did sum Lords lyft vp yair hornis on hie,
 Quhilks did withstand zour Kingis authoritie ;
 Bot he come hame agane, or euer thay wist,
 And zair rebellioun schortly did resist.
 Sone efter him, did cum hame my Lord Duke
 For ciuil weir : yan euerie man did luke.
 Bot God the Lord brocht all sa weill to pas,
 That without blude, all weill aggreet was ;
 Except my Lords the Duke and Hereis, baith
 Wer put in waird, yair wes na vther skaith ;
 Quhair thay ar zit, vnto yis tyme and tyde,
 And will be thair quhill sum men get ye gyde.
 Sone efter this, to Liddisdaill he went,
 Quhairof the theifis, and sic, war not content ;
 For to thair chyftanis he maid biggingis bair,
 As afterwart thay did repent full sair.
 Than come he north schortly, he tuke na rest,
 Till all that countrie had componit and drest.
 The hiest of thame all, that wald rebell,

He maid him stoup, and als to knew himsell.
 This being done, amang all vther thing,
 He maid thame all subscriue vnto the King,
 Baith far and neir, of hie and law degree,
 Acknowledeing the Kingis authoritie.
 Except Lord Fleming, name war in this land,
 Bot to the Kingis grace had thay geuin thair hand,
 Sa hauing stablischt all thing in this sort,
 To Liddisdail agane he did resort ;
 Throw Ewisdail, Esdail, and all the Daills raid he,
 And also lay thre nyctis in Cannabie,
 Quhair na Prince lay thir hundredth zeiris befoir ;
 Na theif durst steir, thay did him feir so soir.
 And that thay suld na mair thair thift alledge,
 Thre scoir and twelf he brocht of thame in pledge,
 Syne wardit yam, quhilk maid ye rest keip ordour ;
 Than mycht the Rasche bus keip ky on the bordour.

Quhen he this thocht till haif bene at his eais,
 In come on him the Quene of Inglandis fais,
 The quhilks to seik he tuke purpois fra hand,
 Without delay he gat Northunberland ;
 He socht him so, and fand him at the last,
 And pat him in Lochlein, quhair he is fast.

Than went he suddanly to Dunbartane,
 In snaw, sleit, drift, wind, froist, hailstanis & rane.
 In deid, lyke snaw, thair words wer soft and fair,
 Lyke sleit, quhylis scharp, with promysis maist bair ;
 Lyke dryft also, thay did drieue of the tyme,
 Till ane fals tratour suld commit this cryme.
 Lyke as the froist dois freis vp all fresche watter,
 Thay freisit him in Stirling on this mater.
 Windie it was, and windie was the sessoun ;
 As is ye Frēche prouerb, grand vant, grād tressoū.
 With scharp hailstanis thay schot him traterouslie,
 Lyke rane in greit wind, syne fled suddanlie :
 Sa may we weill the tyme to deid compair,
 For all wes trublit, baith se, land, and air.
 On Sonday than, the quhilk wes zesterday,

Vnto this towne he come, soupit and lay,
 Dynit this day, and at aleuin houris,
 Thair wes ane knaif of his conspiratouris,
 Ane Hammiltoun, within the bischoppis stair,
Quhilk schot him, as thow seis, withouttin mair ;
 Syne at the bak zet suddanlie he fled ;
 Sum saw him weill, and followit his hors tred ;
Quhilk hors was knawin belāging to Lord John,
 Quha with the rest this act maid to be done.
 Bot to our sone we keipit cumpanie,
Quhilk in our armes within this hour did die.

Than deit with him all vertus cardinall,
 Than deit with him justice imperiall :
 For in his tyme Gods word was trewly preichit,
 And in his tyme collegis rychtlie teichit.
 Not only lufit he vprychteousnes,
 Bot als he hatit vice and vitiousnes :
 Not only did he lufe God, and him ken,
 Bot als he hatit all vngodly men.
 To sessioun als, ilk day he went to se
 Gif justice wes thair ministrate trewlie.
 The riche and pure, he did alyke regaird ;
 Puneist the euill, and did the gude reward.
 He wald not lat the Papists cause ga bak,
 Gif it wer just, bot wald be for him frak :
 He wald not thoill the proud oppres the pure,
 Sa far as he had regiment and cure :
 He did disdane pryd and ambition :
 He lufit men meik of conditioun :
 He did disdane all foul and fylthie word,
 In ony sort, outhir in eirnist or boird :
 Maist diligent he wes to ryn athort,
 To gif thc wedow and faterles confort :
 Maist diligent to heir the pure mānis bill,
 And gif answer according to Gods will.
 Sober he wes in meat, in drink, and claitheis ;
 He wald not thoill blaspheming, nor na aithis.
 Reddy to heir, quhen ony man spak to him,

Mistraising not yat ony wald vndo him.
 Peace and concord, ouer all for to meintene,
 The pure durst leif yair bestiall on the grene.
 For slauchter, mercy wald he neuer grant ;
 Baith murtheraris, theifis, and witches he did dant.
 For to be schort, lay all zour heidis togidder,
 Gif ze can find amang zow sic ane vther.

Get vp ! (quod thay), it is almaist midnycht :
 With yat, all thre, thay went out of my sycht.

Because ane man wes knoking at the zet
 Quhair I did ly, and had myself forzet ;
 Sa rais I vp, all clad in bute and spur :
 Quhais yat (quod I) yat knokis at the dur ?
 I, zour gude freind and nychtbour, answerit he ;
 Gar oppin the zet, gude brother, now lat se.
 Brother, (quod I), how dois my Lord, I pray zow ?
 Departit, oh ! (quod he), and deid, I say zow.
 Allace ! (quod I), I find my dreme ouer trew,
 And that, full sair, all Scotland sone will rew.
 Than to the palice went I, and zeid in ;
 Thair weiping vocis hard I making din.
 Within the chalmer I went quhair he departit,
 Quhilk sycht to se, God wait, maid me sair hartit.
 Than come I furth agane, and saw my Lady,
 Quhais horsis at the foir zet wer alreddy.
 To Edinburgh scho went, with hart full soir.
 Reuenge his deith, ze Lords ! I say na moir.

EPITAPHE.

*Heir lyis the corps (gude pepill) of a Prince, Quhais saule in heuin with God is glorifeit :
 James Regent was murdreitt without offence,
 Be ane false tratour, sa knawin and notifeit,
 Quha wes anis bound to haif bene justifeit.
 He gaif him grace, allace, aganis all ressoun.*

*O Hammiltoun, it schawis weill thou wes feit
Be all that Clan for to commit this tressoun.*

*Quhat mouit the to do yis insolence,
And mak yat clan sa to be falsifeit,
To quhoe, God knawis, he scheu his greit clemēce, Thocht thou with tressoun hes him gratifeit ?
With all gude vertewis he wes amplifeit ;
With all foul vice thou hes defylde yair maisoun.
Resetting the, now haif thay varefeit
That thay bene weill contentit of this trasoun.*

*Indeid, I grant that his greit patience
Aganis him self this deid hes testifeit ;
For had he put zow doun with diligence,
Zour tressoun had not this bene ratifeit.
Ze wer anis all in his will signifeit
At the Langsyde, sensyne in euerie sessoun :
Now with greit honour is he magnifeit,
And with greit shame ze sall thoil for this tressoū.*

XI.—The Deploration of the Cruell Murther of James Erle of Murray, Umquhile Regent of Scotland, togidder with ane admonition to the Hammiltounis Committaris thairof, and to all thair Fortifearis, Mantenaris, or assistance, with ane Exhortation to the Lordis and Nobilitie, keiparis and defendaris of our Kingis Grace Maiestie.

[STATE PAPER OFFICE.—Scotish Series, Volume 17, (February) Number 17.—LIBRARY OF THE SOCIETY OF ANTIQUARIES OF LONDON.]

OWHILE as with flesche, and blude we go about
The wondrous warkis of God for to discriue
Pans quhil we pleis, we sal not find yame out
Bot sall Judge God, aganis all ressoun striue.
Quhen as he tholis, proude Pelours to deprive
The lyuis from sic, as halelie wes his,
Be Cruell murther, thame reuthles for to riue
The flesche of man can neuer considder this.

Bot quha that wald the mater vnderstand,
He man luke lawer, and enter in the Spreit,
And than he sall persaif, the cause fra hand,
That God wirks na thing bot as a Judge discreet,
Quhen as the pepill with sinnis ar repleit
Without remors, as thay ar, at thir houris
Than, to that end his plaiges he may compleit,
He takis from thame thair Godly Gouernouris.

¶ And this he blis mony sindrie sortis,
Sum tyme be seiknes, in to thair beddis to be,
Sum slane be tratouris, bot not for thair comfortis,
Bot to that end, thay suld destroyit be.
And rutit furth clene out of memorie,

He tholis sic wicket, proude Conspiratouris,
To execute thair lurking traytorie,
And bring to deith thair godly Gouernouris.

^{1 Jo. 3.} We se also the wicket of the warld,
Still beir the godly, at deidly Indignatioun,
Sum tyme be tratouris, ar Innocentis overharld,
And thocht trew men, haif heir bot tribulatioun.
We suld not haif sic thingis in admiratioun
As gif it wer, ane new thing chansit to man
For sa it was, euin from the first Creatioun,
And still hes bene, sen that this warld began.

^{Gen. 4.} This mortall feid, this haitrent and Inuie, Did first begin, as Gods awin buke dois tell
As in the Genesis we may plainly spie,
Betuix twa brether, Cain and Abell.
Cain aganis his brother did Rebell,
And suffeit not, to sched his saithles blude
And for this cause, I pray zow mark it well.
His warkis war euill, and faithfull Abells gude.

 And of thir twa, this haill warld did descend,
Quhilk neuer can, amangis thame selfis aggrie,
Bot baith thair offspringis may be cleirly kend
Curst Cains Clan, be thair Impietie.
And Abells seid for richt and equitie,
And thus all murtherars ar discendit doun
Of Curst Cain, and his posteritie,
As is the Tyrane and Tratour Hammiltoun.

For luke how Justice was the verray cause
To curst Cain, his brother for to kill,
Sa is it zit, but dout, the only clause
That moues the wicket, vnto thair Raging still.
Thay gloir na thing, bot euer into Ill,
And makis thame euer, but mercy to maligne
And quhen thay may, thair wicket wayis fulfill,
Thay will not thole, ane godly man to Rigne.

¶ The Probatioun heirof.

To preif this part, I plainly mycht propone,
 Exemplis seir, maist Notabill and trew,
 Bot for thame all, I will bot vse heir one
 Of our deir Maister, and Sauiour Christ Jesew.
 In quhome na spot of sin, it neuer grew,
 Zit nocht theles, the bischoppis mycht not byde him,
 Quhill on a Croce, on lenth, and breid him drew,
 And hangit vp for spyte, twa theuis besyde him.

For to mak mentioun of the marterdome
 Of Gods Prophets, it wer sum thing to lang,
 And for to reckin, the reuthles Rage of Rome
 Quhair sindrie godly, thay dulefully doun dang.
 It wer prolixt, thairfoir I let thir gang,
 And to my purpos, bot proces mair proceid
 How wicket men, delytis ay in to wrang,
 And may not suffer, to haif ane godly heid.

Sen sa it was, that Christ baith God and man,
 With his Apostills, and Propheits gat na rest,
 Bot euer hatit be Cain, and his clan,
 As God's trew word, dois mak it manifest,
 We suld not grude, howbeit we be opprest,
 As was our Maister, and brethren vs beforne
 Bot be assurit, it will cum for the best,
 And better to thame that thay had neuer bene borne

I mene not heir, that thay suld pas vnpunissit,
 For thair trespass, nor neuer sic thing thocht,
 For than suld Justice and Law be clene diminissit
 Gif thay war spairit, this wicket wark hes wrocht.
 That our gude gyde to bailfull beir hes brocht
 Lat vs assemble thairfoir with curage stout,
 And lat thay tratouris, out throw this land be socht,
 And neuer leif thame till thay be rutit out.

Ane Admonitioun to all the Hammiltounis and thair assistaris, counsallaris, and pertakeris of this maist vile and abhominabill Murther.

O Teinfall tratouris, quhy did ze him deuoir ?
Maist schamefullie, that puneist euerie vice,
Quha wes the cheif mantenar of Gods gloir
In to this Realme, and lufit all Justice,
Zour bailfull blude can neuer pay the price
Of his deir deith, wrocht be zour wickitnes.
Wa worth zou Uillanis, that slew that Prince maist wise,
For na cause ellis, bot for his rychteousnes.

For sen ze first in to this Realme began,
Ze wer ay callit for zour tyrannie
Strypis of the Schyre, the maist vnworthie clan
That euer wes bred, or sene in this coutrie.
As schawis weill be zour Genalogie,
For thief and murther, reif and oppressiounis,
With Guldis and Rukis, blasnit equallie
Is the auld armes of the Hammiltounis.

And quha wald seik, ane man but conscience.
Ane Renegat for to deny his Creid,
To tak ane pure man vnder his credence
Syne cut his throt, and toungh out of his heid.
To put ane hundred for to beg thair breid,
And bring Just men vnto confusioun
To do ane horrible, and ane vnworthie deid,
Seik neuer farther than ane Hammiltoun.

Ane midding tuilzour, but manheid at assay,
Ane vailzeand tyrane, ane febill Campioun,
Ane wyfe with Childe, that manfully can slay,
Ane noysum nychtbour, proude in oppressioun.
Ane teinfull tratour of rycht Successioun,
To Crucifie Christ, that compts not a feg,

I say to zow for schort conclusioun,
Come neuer ane gude byrde of the Deuillis eg,

How horriblie ze spuilzeit vnder nycht
In his awin hous, maist schamefull for till heir,
And Nobill Lord, James of Torphichen knycht,
He can declair, gif ony man list speir.
Ze left him not, ane Malze nor Deneir,
Syne vnder truste, neir schot him and his wyfe,
And Tymothie wes in ane felloun feir
Bot prasit be God, thay chaipit with thair lyfe.

Our Kingis Grandschir, at Lithquo feild ze slew
Baneist his gudschir, from his kynde heritage,
His Fatheris murther also ze cleirly knew
Myschantly hangit, ane wickit vassalage.
Thir ar zour warks, euin fra zour first barnage,
God wait gif ze be Jalps to hald in stoir
Or bony byrdis, to keip into ane Cage,
Christ keip our King out of zour handis heirfoir.

Ze slew our Regent, because his warks wer gude, Quha was the Lampe of lycht in to this land,
As houngrie tykis, ze thristit for his blude,

- Nu. 25. That sauit zow, quhen ze wer in his hand,
- Gal. 5. Quhen ze culd not resist his forcie wand,
- Joa. 3. Ane suithfast sentence, heirfoir I sall zow tell
- Gen. 9. Pronouncit be God, I lat zow vnderstand,
- Apo. 3. All Murtherars thay sall Inherit hell.

¶ Ane admonition to the assistaris, counsallaris, by lyaris, and Reioysaris in this maist detestabill murther.

Nocht only thay, bot all that sic assisstis
Or fortifeis, or ony wayis mantenis,

Incurris his Curse, now luke Gods buke quha listis
 For it is not mans Judgement sa that deims,
 And quha that this soir sentence small esteims,
 The tyme soll cum, that he soll weip and murne,
 Quhen hiddeous Hell with greuous glowand gleims
 Baith body and saule for euer mair soll burne.

Moirouer all thay of that Genalogie,
 And of that Surname, we mak thame Intimatioun,
 Thay salbe repute of this foule cryme gyltie
 Quha nocht compeiris to mak Purgatioun,
 Farther all thay, geuis consultatioun,
 Or thame assistis in to this fylthie fact
 And not compeiris to our Conuentioun
 Thay salbe halden pertakeris of this act.

Be war heirfoir, and be effrayit of this,
 Lat sic tryit tratouris defend thair awin curst cause,
 Tyne not zour landis, and els the hevinis blis,
 Bot be obeysant to God, and mans Lawis,
 And be not flatterit with thair vaine wordis & sawis
 For thay can not of this foule fack be clengit,
 Thocht man wald wink, zit God yat all thing knawis
 He will not leif this vile wark vnreuengit.

The exhortatioun to the Lordis and Nobilitie per- sewaris of this cruell Murther, and defendantis of our King.

Psal. 5. God sayis my Lords, he wil be aduersair,
 To bludy boucheris, that stand of him na feir,
 My Lords, thir wordis suld carage zow far mair
 Nor the haill help of man baith far and neir.
 Fall to heirfoir with blyith and mirrie cheir,
 Wear anew, thairfoir heis vp zour hartis,
 And fordwarts marche, sa soll we se and heir
 Quhat lurkand lubers will tak thir Lymmers parts.

Thay fylde the feilds befoir, quhen first yai fauchs
 Quhair tha for ane, wer aye number thre,
 We trowit from thence, thay suld haif sittin saucht,
 And suld haif tyrit of all thair tyrannie.
 Bot now allace, the contrare we may se,
 Our vaine pietie, hes maid vs this fals traine.
 Gods Curse thairfoir lycht on thame all for me,
 That euer hes pietie or reuth on thame againe.

Gif ze do nocht Reueuge this fylthie fact
 Ze will be schamit, ze may weill vnderstand,
 And will be namit, ane fals and febill pack
 That euer rang in ony Realme or land.
 With curage heirfoir, now be the baner stand,
 And wyn for euer honour and Renoun,
 Do ze not this, ze ar ane bailfull band
 And seruis nocht ells, bot Goddis malesoun.

For Gods Curse, his vengeance and maledictioun
 Sall neuer from zow, nor fra zour seid depart,
 Ze sall sustene maist sorowfull affliction,
 That euer tholde men, in ony land or airt.
 Sic hauie harme sall happen to zour hart
 Gif this foule murther with silence be ouerpast,
 Thir same tratouris sall mak zour selfis to smart
 And salbe zour distractioun at the last.

And gif sa hapnis, ze may rycht weill considder
 This plague maist Justly, of Gods hands ze craif,
 Far better it is thairfoir to ryse togidder
 For to reuenge the Murther with the laif.
 Nor Gods soir wraith abone zour heidis to haif,
 For the ouerseing of sic a fylthie cryme
 For Gods plaigues approachis I persaif,
 Gif ze prolong, schort quhyle and drift ouer tyme.

Fall to thame fraklie, to fecht thay haif na faces,
 Persew thame peirtly, and ze sall se thame fle,

Rune is thair glas, and gone now is thair graces,
 In to respect of this foule tratorie,
 And quha supportis thame, or dois fortifie,
 I hope to God that is the heid of hallous
 To se thame hyntit in handis haistelie,
 Syne hangit hie, but grace vpon the Gallous.

¶ The makaris Exhortatoun to all men in Generall.

Amend zour lyues, and call on God for grace,
 Pray for zour King with hartie Exhortatioun,
 Repent our sinnis quhill we haif tyme and space
 Detest all vice, and foule abhomination.
 Than God sall gif vs confort and consolatioun,
 Pray for the Nobill Quene of Ingland
 Quha in our neid still sendis vs supportatioun, Hir grace, lang space, may in gude weiffair stand.

¶ So be it.

XXX.—The Regentis Tragedie ending with ane exhortatioun.

[BRITISH MUSEUM.—Roxburghe Ballads. Volume 3.—STATE PAPER OFFICE. Scottish Series, Volume 17. (February) Number 16.—LIBRARY OF THE SOCIETY OF ANTIQUARIES OF LONDON.—A few Copies Privately Printed by W. Williamson, Esq., 23 Carlton Hill, St. John's Wood, London. May 1872, Sm. Quarto.]

AMES, Earle of Murray, Regent of Renoun,
Now lyis deid, and dulefullie put doun,
Murdreist but mercy, murnand for remeid,
Quha lost his lyfe in Lithquo with ane loun,
Giltles God wait betraist into that toun,
Slane with ane schot, and saikless put to deid :
Feit be our fais throw fellowie and feid ;
Hangman to Hary, now Burrio to hir brother,
Weill may this murther manifest the tother !

Quhat leid on lyfe wald noct lament his lose ?
Wais me to want him, is the commoun voce
For sic ane Prince sall neuer pure man haif,
Tint be ane Tratour, steilling vp ane close,
Possest in purpos, lyfe for lyfe to cose,
Bot na compair, ane Kings Sone to ane knaif,
Sen he is gone agane my will to graif,
Throw all this Realme I dar weill mak this ruse,
Rang noct his maik sen buryit was the Bruse.

To keip gude reule, he raid and tuke na rest,
Baith South and North, and sumtyme eist & west,
All to decoir our commoun weill ze knaw,
Be quhome lat se wes Pirats sa opprest ?
Or zit the theiffis sa dantonit, dung, and drest ?
Argyle and Huntlie hid thame baith for aw,
And quhen he mycht, he myst noct in the Law

Twyse on the day, and sleipit nocth in sleuth,
To se na buddis suld beir thame by the treuth.

Of this foule fact suppois our fais be fane,
Zit efter Moysis, Josua come agane,
To gyde the pepill, geuand the gloir to God :
Suld thay succeid that hes him saikles slane ?
Be war with that, I wald ze war not vane,
To haif zour waik anis wirryit with the tod,
Think ze with ressoun thay suld reule the rod,
With double murther maid vs all ado ?
And with our King wald play Cowsauly to ?

Pray gif ze pleis, I warne zow ze haif neid,
To keip our King fra cankrit Kedzochis seid,
That daylie wayis Inuentis to put him doun,
His Grandschir slane at Lythquo gif I leid :
His gudschir thryse hes left this land in deid,
Hary at midnycht murdreist in this toun :
His Cousing last, and zit thay clame the Crown,
Blynd Jok may ges, gif thir be godly deidis,
Brunt be zone Bischop in quhome this barret breidis.

Cut of that Papist Prothogall of partis,
That with his lesingis all the laif perueritis,
Syne Joyne zour forces to the feildis but feir,
Because ze tak zour stoutnes all in startis :
To Hammiltoun in haist quhill ze haif hartis,
Deuyse sum way to pay zour men of weir,
Fra he be gane ze neid nocth gather geir : .
Fecht weill, and war yame, and wyn the ryches yair
And gif ze de, in deid ze neid na mair.

Curst be ze baith, bischop and bothwell hauch,
For this foule deid, zour seid man rak ane sauch,
Gif ze twa want the widdie, now thay wrang zow :
Lythquo lament, zour burges may luke bauch,
In beir seid tyme zour burrow rudis by fauch,

Cause of this murther laitly maid amang zow,
 Or gif I trowit it helpit ocht to hang zow,
 Sa suld ze die : and syne zour towne in fyre,
 Sum part for sythment to asswage our Ire.

Ouer thir twa housis, for thair deids inding,
 The hand of God dois ouer thair heidis hing
 Thame to distroy, I dout not in our dayis,
 Hepburnis will wraik, for wyrryng of the King,
 Bot Hammiltounis fy, this was ane foular thing:
 Is this zour ferme Religioun ? zais ? zais ?
 Sic tyme sall cum I trow as Thomas sayis :
 Hirdmen sall hunt zow vpthrow Garranis gyll Castand thair Patlis and lat the pleuch stand still.

Apperandly thir plaigis are powrit out,
 To wraik this warld, and wait ze quhair about ?
 Because we want na vice vnder the heuin :
 Sen double murther markis to reule the rout,
 With Ninieitis lat vs ga cry and schout,
 For to retreat zone sentence Justly geuin,
 Zit thow gude Lord that Judgis all thingis euin,
 Seand the perrell that ouer the pepill standis,
 Lat nocht thair blude be socht at saikles handis.

Now Lordis & Lairdis assemblit in this place,
 Ouer lang we talk of Tragedeis allace,
 Away with cair, with confort now conclude :
 As gude in paper as speik it in zour face,
 Gif murtherars for geir get ony grace,
 Ze will be schent, think on I say for gude
 Sen art and part, ar gyltie of his blude ;
 Quhy suld ze feir, or fauour thame for fleiching ?
 Ze hard zour self, quhat Knox spak at the preiching.

First on the feildis mak schortly to lat se,
 We want bot ane, and quhat the war ar we ?
 Sen God wes pleist to pas him out of pyne,

All men on mold ar markit for to de,
 With tyme and place appointit, sa wes he :
 Lat nocht in cair zour curages declyne,
 For want of ane I wald nocht all suld tyne,
 Gar reid at Roxburgh quhen the King was slane,
 And zit ane woman wan the hous agane.

Sen than be wemen douchtie deidis wer done,
 Barronis be blyith, and hald zour hartis abone,
 And lat vs heir quhairfoir ze hapnit hidder :
 Thay are na partie, and ze speid zow sone
 Albeit that boyd be daylie in Denone,
 Lang or Argyle be gadderit in togidder,
 Quhen all is done, the counsall may considder,
 Quhat is the maist zone murtheraris may do,
 Suppois that Huntlie wald cum help thame to.

Had we ane heid wald stoutly vndertakit,
 The Barronis sayis thay suld be bauldly bakit,
 Mycht thay for tyritnes trauell of thir tounis :
 Quhy stand ze aw of Tratouriris twyse detractit ?
 Think ze not schame to heir zour Lordschipis lakit ?
 Sum feiris yair flesche, sum grenis to gadder cronnis,
 Sum happis thair heids, sum belttis yame vp in gounis,
 Luke gif zour partie prydys thame in thair spurring,
 Keipand the feildis and fryis not in thair furring.

Wa worth the wyfis that fostred zow and fed,
 Ze dow not ly vnles ze haif ane bed,
 Keip zow fra cauld, haif claith within zour scho :
 I think greit ferly how ze can be red,
 Or fray at thame, that last befoir zow fled, Wantand thair Quene, syne God agane thame to Quhy ly ze heir with lytill thing ado ?
 The Barronis biddis zow schortly byde or gang,
 Curage decayis fra Scottis men tarie lang.

Hause Lyounnis lukis, and than mak me ane lear,

Be Hanniballis, and heis zour hartis sum hear,
 Bot keip not capua, quhil zone Knaifis incluse zow
 He neidis not work that hes ane gude ouersear,
 Nane neid ze fetch, swa that zour hartis war frear,
 Bot be my saule my self culd neuer ruse zow :
 I knew weill for this cryme, Christ sall accuse zow,
 For sparing Agag, Saull was puneist sair :
 Swa sall he zow, I dar nocht say na mair.

The Lord of Hostes that heuin & eirth commandis,
 To keip our King from all vnhappy handis,
 The Quene of Ingland and hir Counsall to :
 Ze feir the Frenchemen suld ouerlay thir landis,
 Bot I heir say be sum that vnderstandis,
 The Doctouris doutis bot thay haif mair ado :
 Our Quene is keipit straitly, thair stands scho :
 Ingland will help zow, and ze help zour sellis,
 And be the contrair, craif thame na thing ellis.

This fair ze weill, I flait not to offend zow,
 In sempill veirs this Schedull that I send zow.
 Beseikand zow to schort it gif ze may.
 Steill ze away, the wyfis will vilipend zow
 And gif ze byde, the burrowis will commend zow
 Best wer I think mycht we preuene zone day
 Thair Semblie beis on Sonday I heir say
 In Glasgow towne, thinkand to fecht or fle :
 It lukis weill thair, ze get na mair of me.

Finis.

The Tragedeis Lenuoy.

As men recordis, in deid my Lordis,
 I schrink not for to schaw :
 Suppois ze crak, ze ly abak,
 And lybellis be the Law.

Ze mak not to, as men suld do,
 I trow ze stand sum aw :
 Suppois ze hecht, to se zow fecht,
 That day will neuer daw.

Is na remeid, fra he be deid,
 Na man to seik ane mendis :
 Or quha is heir, dar brek ane speir,
 Upon zone lymmeris lendis ?
 Ze dar not mum, quhill Saidlar cum,
 To sa quhat Ingland sendis :
 Thinkand to sayit, and ay delayit,
 And swa the mater endis.

With sychis and sobbis, and beltit robbis,
 Ze counterfite the dule :
 Quhat douchtie deidis, to weir sic weidis,
 Except it wer ane fule.
 Mak of the towne, and cow thame downe,
 Now or zour curage cule :
 For Maddie sayis, byde ze aucht dayis,
 Ze be not thair quhill Zule.

Is this the thing, quha gydis the King ?
 Ze can not all aggre :
 Now fy for schame, feche Leuenox hame,
 Ze haif nane narer nor he.
 Gif he want grace, to gyde that place,
 Cheis outhier twa or thre :
 Than war I fane, bot all in vane,
 To wis and will nocht be.

And sum thair bene, waitis on the Quene,
 Bot gaip ay quhill thay get hir :
 And war scho heir, I tak na feir,
 The Feynd aby we set hir.
 For we are now, als stark I trow,
 As farnzer quhen we met hir :

Quhen all is done, thay start ouer sone,
To boist and not the better.

I think it best, ze tak na rest,
Gif ze durst vndertak it
And we be trew, we ar anew,
Ze salbe bauldly bakit.
Bot sen I se, it will not be,
That meter will not mak it:
The Feynd mak cair, I say na mair,
I rew that euer I spak it.

E Montaines murne, ze valayis vepe,
Ze clouds and Firmament,
Ze fluids dry vp, ze seyis so depe
Deploir our lait Regent.
Ze greinis grow gray ze gowanis dune
Ze hard rocks ryue for sorrow;

Ze Mariguildis forbid the sune
To oppen zow euerie morrow.

Thow Lauand lurk, thow time be tint
Thow Margelene swaif,
Thow Camomylde, ze balme and Mint
Zour fragrant odouris laif.

· Ze Baselik and Jonet flouris,
Ze Gerofleis so sweit:
And Violatis hap zow with schouris
Of hailstaines snaw and sleit.

¶ Thow grene Roismary hyde thy heid,
Schaw not thy fair blew blumis:
In syne of dule lat na grene blaid
On Lawraine grow or broomis.
Ze friutfull treis produce na frute:
And ze fair Rois treis widder:
In earth ze sweit flouris tak na rute
But wallow altogidder.

Cum Nettillis, thornie breiris & rew,
With all foul filthie weid,
Now plant zow quhair thir sweit flouris grew,
And place zow in thair steid,
Ze plesant byrdis lat be zour sang
Zour mirth in murning turne,
And tak the Turtill zow amang
To leirne zow how to murne.

¶ Thow luifsum Lark, & gay Goldspink
Thow mirthfull Nychtingaill
Lat be zour heuinly noitis and think
Hes deith for to bewaill,
Ze plesand Paun and Papingaw
Cast of zour blyithlyke culour,
And tak the feddrum of the Craw
In syne of wo and dolour,

Now burne thy self O Phenix fair
 Not to reuive againe,
 That we may him to the compair,
 Quhais lyke dois not remaine.
 Thow Pelican prepair thy beik
 And grind it scharpe and lang,
 To peirs our breistis that we may seik
 How to reuenge this wrang.

All birdis and beistis, all hillis and holtis
 All greinis and plesand treis,
 All Lambis & Kiddis, all Caluis & Colts,
 Absent zow from mens eyis.
 Ze gleds and howlets, rauins and rukis
 Ze Crawis and Corbeis blak,
 Thair gutts mot be among zour cluikis
 That did this bludy fact.

 Ze Instruments of euerie sort,
 That gaif to mankynde plesure,
 Now turne zour melodie and sport
 In murning and displesure.
 Ye Sone and Mone, and Planetis seuin
 Ze glystryng starris bricht,
 All ze Celestiall hoste of heuin
 Absconce zow from mens sicht.

Ye zeiris and monethis, dayis & houris,
 Zour naturall course withdraw
 In Somer tyme be wynter schouris,
 Sleit, hailstaines, frost and suaw.
 For why sum men dois trauell now,
 To turne all vpsyde downe,
 And als to seik the maner how
 To reif the King his Crowne.

We had ane Prince of gude Renoun,
 That Justice did desyre,

Aganis quhome the Hammiltoun
 Did traterously conspyre.
 Quha schot him of the Bischoppis stair
 In Lithgow thair Londoun,
 To bruik this byworde euer mair
 Fy Tratour Hammiltoun.

 Sen Christ hes tane him to his fader,
 This is the best remeid,
 That ze trew Lordis togidder gadder
 For to reuenge his deid.
 Sen thay haue wrocht sic thing agane vs
 Traist weill thay cair not neist
 To kill the King, for quhy Cardanus
 The Feind pat in the Preist.

France hes na rest, yat is na bourdis,
 Thocht sum seis not ane styme.
 How France dois feide thame with fair wordis
 For to dryue of the tyme.
 The Frenche men sayis adueis le fein,
 Quhilk is as muche to say
 Quhen euer thay bring hame the Quene,
 Thay sall repent that day.

Ye Lords that now this draucht hes drawin
 Suppois ze haue left Rome,
 Zit wald ze that zour Names war knawin
 Athort all Cristindome,
 Sa Nero did, bot not for gude,
 Quha brunt Rome to considder
 Quhat fyre it was, syne sched the blude
 Of his Maister and mother.

Sa was he spokin of for sic thing
 Me think as ze wald be,
 That sweir oft to manteine the King
 And his authoritie.

Ze did him also King proclame
 And haldis of him offices,
 Pensionis ze hald als in Name,
 With teinds and benifices,

Now wald ze change and chaisson yat
 And bring on deidly feidis,
 Ze worke maist lyke ze wat not quhat
 With zour Politick heidis.
 Now wyselie wirke, be not dissauid,
 For and scho get hir will,
 Scho will Reuenge the deith of Dauid,
 Carbarrie and Langsyde hill.

Ze Lordis that now sa faine wald haif
 Up hir authoritie,
 Can not yow clenge mair nor the laif
 Of Sum pointis of thir thre.
 Heirfoir gif ye sa faine wald haue hir
 To fulfil zour affeckis,
 Gif ye may get hir than ressaif hir
 With raipis about your neckis.

 Byde ye in Burgh quhill Michaelmes
 Your money will growe skant,
 Heirfoir my counsell is expres
 That to your wyfis ye hant.
 For quhy it is ane wyfis quarrell
 Ye wald sa faine set furth,
 As now ye may heir Maddie tell
 It is bot lytil gude worth.

As ye haif browne now drink ye that Ye se how all is cum.
 For had I witten that I wait
 Allace is Scotts wisdume.
 Now best it war to leif sic thing,
 Lest strangers cum and wrang vs,

Ane God, ane faith, ane Law, ane King,
Let vs obserue amang vs.

 And to conclude I mak ane end
Praying our God of micht,
To saif our King and him defend
In his vndoutit richt.
With all trew Subiectis in thir partis
Of his authoritie :
Beseiking God to ioyne the heartis
Of our Nobilitie.

XIV.—¶ The Cruikit leidis the blinde.

[STATE PAPER OFFICE. Scottish Series, Volume 17 (April) Number 71.—BRITISH MUSEUM.—Roxburgh Ballads,
Volume 3.]

HIS warld it waggis I wat not how,
And na man may ane vther trow :
And euerie man dois pluke and pow,
And that the pure may finde,
Our Court it is decayit now
The cruikit leidis the blinde.

Althocht the warldlie wise be cruikit,
This commoun weill he hes miscuikit,

Our Lords ar blinde and dois ouerluikit
 He gydes thame as he list
 Tak thay not tent he will not huikit
 To gyde thame in the mist.

 He halds our Lords at variance,
 He garris the tane put esperance
 Thay will get daylie help of France,
 This he garris thame confide
 Sayis Ingland will bring mony Lance Unto the vther side.

Our Lords ar now delt in twa sydis,
 And euerie faction in him confydis :
 Ze will heir tell how he thame gydis,
 And ze leit zeiris few
 Sen he hes maid sa mony slydis
 Trow ze he can be trew.

 Fra he in Court in credite grew,
 He did ay change the Court anew :
 The Quene his doingis sair did rew,
 And richt sa did his Mother,
 The counsall kennis gif he was trew
 To him that was his Brother.

In Edinburgh quhen they conuene,
 Our Lords to him they gang bedene :
 As he war outhir King or Quene,
 He hes thame at his bidding
 His craftie counsall will be sene,
 Quhen Doggs barkis on ye midding.

 Albeit he haif the Feuer quartane,
 He suld be made Knycht of the Gartane,
 He rewlis Edinburgh and Dumbartane,
 As Maddie dois me tell :

Gif he war Pape I am richt certane
He wald reule heuin and hell.

Gif he gar Atholl do sic schame,
As to consent to bring hir hame :
And gif the gyding to Madame,
They will put downe the King
The Crowne will alter fra that Name,
Than murdererars may sing.

 He hes gart Hume begin to tyre,
Althocht that he gat his desyre :
Bot he will leid him in the myre
Thocht he hecht to defend him,
And Ingland set his lands in fyre
I wat not quha will mend him.

Als he gat Setoun out of hands,
From forfalting he sauit his lands :
Thocht he be lyand vnder bands
He will not know the King :
Sen ze ken how the mater stands,
Suld he haif leif to fling ?

 Our richt Regent quha was our targe
Laid sindrie things vnto his charge,
The quhilk in deid war verray large
As is kend with anew,
Ze haif geuin him ane plane discharge
And sayis it was not trew.

I wat ze saw neuer ane styme,
And wantit baith ressoun and ryme,
Quhen ze forgaif him all his cryme :
And maid his oddis euin,
Thocht he be fristit at this tyme
He will not be forgeuin.

 I pray zow Lordis on ather syde,
 That ze his sawis do not confyde,
 For I will sweir zow be Sanct Bryde
 He susseis not thre strais,
 Quha suld be rewlar nor our gyde
 May he bruke that he hais.

All thir maters he dois bot mock,
 He hes deuysit mony sic block :
 He can begyle ane Landwart Jock,
 Except he ken him weill :
 Thay say he can baith quhissill and cloik ;
 And his mouth full of meill.

 My Lordis quhat is this that ze mene
 I thinke the holkis ouergangis zour ene,
 I wald sum man wald scheir zow clene
 That ze nicht ze thir faultis,
 And be not blinde as ze haif bene
 Nor led with thame that haultis.

XV.—¶ The Poysonit Schot.

[BRITISH MUSEUM.—Roxburghe Ballads. Volume 3.—LIBRARY OF THE SOCIETY OF ANTIQUARIES OF LONDON.]

IF wicked vice first sen the warld began
 Had age be age, but punishment Increst ?
 In eirth lang syne yair had been nothing than Saif only vice and malice manifest.
 Bot to thir dayis sic meanis God ay drest,

Aganis vice that vertew ay hes streuin :
 Thoche āther uther be tyme hes [] opprest
 Last Justice Judge bure ay the ballance euin.

¶ Sa of hes plesure it plesit him prouyde
 Us to exerce as ship vnder the saill :
 Sum tyme in storme, sum tyme in temperate tyde
 To let vs knew this wold is but fraill
 Betuix gude and euill markand our trauaill
 In euills flude not menand our nawfrage :
 Princes be Justice he ordanit in this vaill,
 Us to conduct as Pilats dois their Barge.

¶ And sa we se in Storeis as we reid,
 Ay to their dayis sum Magistrates did ring ;
 Sum gude some euill, be tyme as did succeid
 At quhais plesure vertew did fade or spring.
 The gude did vertew, the wicked vice vpbring
 Quhat plesis them the same the pepill suittis
 And sa we se the maners of the King
 Is ay the mark quhairat his subiectis shuittis

¶ This part to preif be yair particular liues
 It war to lang in vulgare veirs expres it,
 At lenth the same sen Cronickles discriues
 And als experience will cause vs to confesit.
 And last of all, how wicked vice Incres it
 Amang ourselves throw Mareis negligence,
 And how the same began to be suppressit ;
 Be Murrayis meane we haif experience.

¶ Quhat vice rais vp reuolve into zour minds
 Quhat sin, quhat shame, in hir last dayis did reil
 That prudent Prince gif yat he tuik sum pynis
 That mys to mend I hope ze haif ane feill.
 Gif ocht he socht except ane commoun weil,
 The gloir of God and Kingis obedience :
 And in that cause maid Justice ay his sheild,
 I seik na Judge bot zour awin conscience.

¶ His awin estate he cairit ay to knaw,
 For pompe nor prude can na man say he preist,
 Societie he socht, and keipit curage law,
 Think and alwayis that mesure was ane feist.
 His peple luifit and cairit for the leist,
 For profite panst not, nor his commoditie ;
 In trouble trauellit : his cūmer neuer ceist
 Ay to his wraik, and our vtilitie.

¶ Thus be his prudence vertew was erectit
 In him the pure oppressed had releif;
 Throw him Idolatrie and vice was eiectit,
 Throw him God's Kirk and peple fand releif.
 Throw him wes vinqueist the veildars of yis greif
 Throw him yis realme fand sū stabilitie
 Throw him was baneist thift, murther, & reif,
 Piracie puneist and deuillishe sorcerie.

Sa vertew sprang and vice began to faide,
 Oppressioun fled, and Justice tuik the place,
 His godly lyfe all godly men may aide :
 Be his exemple vertew to imbrace.
 And als his lyfe may in ane other cace,
 All Princes warne heirefter to succeid :
 Thair foes to flatter that hes ane double face
 And to be war to clap ane traytours heid.

Euen as the man the quhilk be musik playis
 Mistonit stringis castis not away we se,
 But peice and peice be sundrie wrestis & layis
 Ilk ane with vther be tyme causis agre.
 Euen so that Prince thocht be humilitie
 His peple wyn, and concord to contrake
 Bot as sum stringis will rather brek nor be,
 Euin so the wicket be mercy will not make.

¶ His mercy wan : bot mair his mercy tint
 Not he, bot we, his mercy now may rew

His mercy loist, we wan the swordis dint,
 His mercy saifit be murther that him slew.
 Suppose his mercy this bergane to vs brew
 Zit mene I not bot men suld mercy vse
 To penitents, quha myndis not vice renew,
 Bot nane to sic continewis in abuse.

¶ His mercy saifit, quha mercy not deseruit,
 His mercy did preserue the arrogant :
 His mercy sum amangis us hes preseruit,
 Thocht thay seme holy in deid yat ar na sanct.
 His mercy saifit, we wer the better want,
 Thair serpents seid to tyrans wald vs thral
 Because sic peple in tyme he did not dant,
 But warldly mercy Christ sufferit him to fall.

¶ For mortall malice, and curst couetice,
 With wickit Inuy commonit all in Ire :
 And prydefull arrogance the mother of all vice Aganis that Prince did cruelly conspire,
 His fais hartis Inflamit all in fyre,
 His blude to seik Inuyfull of his gloir ;
 Saikles to shuit him ane harlet feit for hyre,
 Hangman to Hary, that traitouris wes befoir.

¶ O bludy bouchour bastard of Balials blude
 Quha to this Realme had nother lufe nor zeill
 O tressonable tratour be tresson yat thocht gude
 Murdreis the Prince preseruer of this weill.
 O sorrowfull shot, thy poyuson did doun steill,
 Not only him, quhom wofully thou woundit :
 Bot pure & riche, thy venoume hes gart feill,
 Of his deir deith the stoundis him confoundit.

¶ That shot allace yis realme hes shot in tway
 That shot to vice the portis hes oppinit plane,
 That shot hes Justice and vertew shot away,
 That shot Idolatrie is shuitand vp agane.

Sic shottis vnpuneist gif lāg time yat remane
 Vice sall be vertew, and vertew sall be vice:
 Wrang sall be richt and richt salbe thocht vane
 Ilk ane vnpuneist sall pleis thair awin deuice.

That shot hes sinderit quhilk was togidder knit
 That shot hes cuillit our curage as ye leid
 That shot hes feiblit our manly force and wit,
 That shot our sichts hes blindit all in deid.
 We se and spyis not our sorrowis to succeid,
 We meint & meinis not this wickitness correck
 We wald and will not hank yame be ye heid
 Quha hes preparit the swordis for our nek.

¶ Vagabounds we wander in miserie & wo
 As ship but Ruther, sa ga we now but gyde:
 Weskan we scatter we wait not quhair we go
 Spyis not the rock quhairō we rashe our syde
 We haif na grace nor power to prouyde,
 Aganis this rage and crueltie : remeid
 Bot willingly allace throw arrogance & pryde
 Offers this Realme as Sacrifice to deid.

In place of peace now murther weir uprasis
 In place of lufe Inuy amangis vs springis
 In place of Faith his friend falset betrasis
 In place of rest Rebellioun with us raigis.
 In place of ane, we haue so mony Kingis
 The Crownit King gettis na obedience
 Sū France for aide, and sum Ingland inbringis,
 The ane for wrak the tother for defence.

And so this Realme quhilk enemeis oft sayit
 With cruell weir and sturdie stormis fell,
 Quhilk feirful force of Ingland neuer frayit,
 Of France the feir, nor Spaine in iust quarrel
 Quhilk to thir dayis vnuenqueist buir ye bell
 Sall now allace be fatell destinie :

As Ajax wes, be vanquer of the sell
On proper knyfe constrainit for to die.

¶ Quhat wald allace our Kings & elders say,
Gif in thir dayis from heuin yat now discendit
To se this Realme so dulefully decay,
In quhats defence yair lusty lyuis thay endit.
Thay wald I trust repent yair time sa spendit
Thay wald I wait yair labouris loist forthink
To se yair Babes ye blude quhilk yai defendit
Aganis nature sa cruelly vpdrink.

¶ Justlie yis plague I dout not we deseruit
Seikand the menis of our awin mischeif:
Bakwart from God because we haif sueruit
Thairfoir we taist his punischment in greif.
Zit in his mercy haifand ay beleif
Still sall I pray his deuine Maiestie
Aganis this rage to send his releif,
Our King to saif and his Nobilitie.

Lenuoye.

Go bony bill deploir
 Of deith the dolent stound,
Quhilk did our Prince deuoir
 James Regent of Renoun.
I pray the go, declair the wo
 Sen syne that dois abound,
I gif command, throw burgh and land,
 The same zow gar resound.

¶ Our cair may moue the stonis
 And hauie rockis to rair:
Swa mony stormes at onis,
 Struke neuer land sa sair.
The cause of that, the heuins wat,
 Not I, I zow declair,

Except it be, to let vs se
How kingdomes ar bot cair.

¶ Zit lat vs not dispair
Into thir walis of wo,
God may conuert our cair
In plesure and in Jo.
He may discord, turne in accord,
And mak him freind was fo :
He may I trest, set vs at rest,
Thocht all the warld say no.

¶ It sulde releue our greif,
To se our King bening :
In him I hope releif
Of zeiris thocht he be zing.
His future age, sum great presage,
Presentis vs in his Ring :
Quha our defence, in his nascence,
Tuik haill in gouerning.

XII.—¶ The Admonitioun to the Lordis.

[BRITISH MUSEUM—Roxburghe Ballads, Volume 3.—LIBRARY OF THE SOCIETY OF ANTIQUARIES OF LONDON.]

 OR lois thou Lythquo may miserably lamēt
Thy fait Infortunat, and duilfull destanie,
That precious peirle James our Regent
In the was slane, dissauit duilfullie.
O cursit hour, o deid of fellownie

O waryit hand, o wappin violent,
That spairit not his greit Nobilitie
Sa vndeseruit suddandly to be schent.

¶ In wicket hour he saift the from the Gallous
Or schew his grace to sic ane graceles grume,
Had thow bene hangit Tratour and thy Fallowis
This cōmoun weill had borne the Laurell blume
Better Justice was not from hence to Rome,
Mair quyet peace befoir neuer King heir held,
Allace that sic ane Tratour suld consume
His dayis before our King had bene of eild.

¶ Dowglas & Hume addres zow now anoue,
His tressonabill dolent deith for to Reuenge :
With Atholl, Erskyn, and Stewartis everieone
Grame, and Lyndsay remember on this change.
Schaw now he lufit the manly Laird of Grange
Glenkarne, and Sempil, conuene with ane accord
Throw out this Realme lyke Ratches se ze range,
And seik thair blude that hes his body borde.

¶ All vther Erlis and Barrounis of renoun, Conuene zour selfis with hart and haill Intent,
All partakeris to put to confusioun :
With him that slew that Abell Innocent.
And in zour harts perfytlie do it prent,
Gif one of zow siclyke had loist his breith
How day and nycht he wald be diligent Zour cause and quarrell Reuenge vnto the deith.

¶ Edinburgh Dundie & vther Burrowtounis,
Remember how the Regent lufit zow weill
Heill nor conceill, reset nane of thay lownis,
Nother art nor part, that did his body keill.
Sen he was keipar of zour commoun weill,
Cleik on his quarrell, and schortly zow dispone
Lat neuer yat Ruffians within zour townis reill
Bot kyith now kyndenes quhen that his grace is gone.

 Zoung tender King now behind dois abyde
 Thy seruand schot was only for thy saik,
 Had he not tane thy Gouernance and gyde
 Lang mycht he leuit with Lady An his maik,
 Na tratour Hāmiltoun had geuin yat mortal straik
 War not in hope to mak thy Grace forlorne
 Thay thocht his deith wald mak thy power waik
 And than obtene thay socht sa lang beforne.

¶ Bot God that hes thy Maiestie in cure,
 Will fruster all thair fulische Interprysis
 As war thay Bouchers thy Father did combure
 Quha flemit at for thair deuillische deuysis.
 Thair fact and act, all Scotland now disprysis,
 Thair awin misdeidis hes sa vndone thair weil
 Thay dar neuer enter in Jugement nor assysis,
 Nor clame thair lands, that did thy Father keill.

¶ Quhat trow ze Tygers, that God omnipotēt
 Will wynk unsene sic wickitnes and wrang
 Ze may be sure his bow is reddy bent
 Zow to ruit out, luke ford and think not lang.
 Hammiltoū and Hepburne ze will sing baith ane sang
 Shrewit is that seruice ze haif schawin to zour King,
 Wald poysonit him self, his Father wyrreit strang,
 Now slane his Regent to mak your selfis to ring. .

 Wo worth unlefull meinis manifest,
 That ze haif socht to bruik Authoritie.
 Zit vn obtenit, quhill that our King may lest Quhome Christ conserue in his Minoritie.
 That tender plant our Superioritie
 Suld haif, quha is our kyndely King of nature,
 The King of Kingis of his Maioritie,
 Mak neuer ane King ouer Scotland of a Tratoure.

¶ Wo to the scheddars of his saikles blude,
 Wo cause of wo, sa mony did commend

Wo to thay Gylouris of godlynes denude,
 Wo to thay Pelouris, sic Interprysis pretend.
 Wo thame Inuolue, now quhen his wo hes end,
 Wo and eik wrak, mot fall that bludy band
 Wo will thay cry, and rew that they him kend,
 For wo quhen that thay lois baith lyfe and land.

 Schamt is thatsort, with schame ye wilbe schēt
 Schamt schameles, schame hes schawin vnto yis natioū
 Schamt ar yai tratouris, sic tressoun did inuēt
 Schame sorrowles will be thair Castigatioun.
 For schame thay dar neuer clame now dominatioun,
 To purches place did sa his deith preuent,
 Place haif thay loist, and fund thair desolatioun,
 That socht sic place, till God had bene content.

And God thair prydē will puneis presentlie,
 That dois pretend be murther manifest
 To Royall roume, and heich Authoritie,
 Huiking na harme sa thay may be possest.
 In warldlie welth quhilk wisdome suld detest,
 Quhen it proceidis of falset and Inuy :
 Vain gloir, dissait, or ocht that may molest
 Gude governance throw teinful Tratory.

 Wyse Nobill Lords my schedull now cōsidder
 And gif the wysest Lord the Gouernance,
 Sinder not now that ar assemblit togidder
 Quhill ane be chosin the commoun weill to auance.
 Sic as will puneis this last vnhappy chance,
 And feiris God now sen the roume dois waik
 Chosin lyke the tother, ze myster not to pans,
 For in all Scotland he hes not left his maik.

 Now is he weill and ze in wo God wait,
 Zour wickitnes and warkis hes the wyte,
 Zour Inobedience hes purchessit Goddis hait :
 Zour gredynes to eik zour Rentis greit.

In vaine ze reid the Scripture as aue ryte,
 And of the pure hes na Compassioun
 Thir ar the causis, that ze of him ar quyte
 That rewlit zow, and wald maid Reformatioune.

XXIII.—¶ Maddeis Lamentatioun.

[BRITISH MUSEUM.—Roxburghe Ballads. Volume 3.]

OUHEN bludy Mars with his vndantit rage
 With Saturne maid yis cruel cōspiratioun
 And curst Juno with birnand feirs curage
 Amangis Planettis had greitest dominatioun
 I hard ane voice with drerie lamentatioun
 Sayand O Lord help now with thy ryght hand,
 Gone is the Joy, and gyde of this Natioun
 I mene be James Regent of Scotland.

¶ Quhen Lachesis hir threid had drawin to lēth
 Prolonging furth this Princes lyfe in gloir,
 Than Atropus extending furth hir strenth,
 This fatell threid, allace for to deuoir,
 Now Justice (oh) quha sal thy sword decoir ?
 This cōmoun weil quhat wicht sal now warrād
 Sen he is gone, that Gouernd vs befoir
 That vpricht Prince James Regent of Scotlād

¶ His gude beginning quha yat culd richt report
 Quhen this Regioune of reule was destitude,
 In plane Parliament our Nobillis did exhort,
 That Innocent to tak the fortitude.
 Of this fals Ile, of Justice than denude,
 And with thair aithis promysit with him to stād
 Justice to keip in mynde he did conclude,
 Sa lang as he was Regent in Scotland.

¶ Sen Fergus dayis, his lyke was neuer none,
 In equall Justice, and deidis Martiall,
 Thir Realmes twa he knat vp baith in one,
 Quhilk neuer Prince befoir culd do at all.
 The Souage daillis he dantonit and maid thrall
 To serue thair King, he gart thame gif thair bād
 With fyre and sword for grace he gart thame call
 That prudēt Prince James Regent of Scotlād.

¶ This commoun weil, he lufit ouer all thing,
 In trew Religioun na Prince mycht be his peir
 Idolatrie but reuth he did doun thring,
 All sorsarars he puneist far and neir,
 Na homiceid, nor theif that durst appeir,
 Within his sycht for dreid of dint of brand,
 Just men he maid his fallow and his feir,
 This humane Prince James Regēt of Scotlād.

The devill seand this godly Prince sa bent,
 Throw auld malice he gaif to rage throw feid,
 His Spreit Inferne he send Incontinent,
 Amangis tratours for to conspire his deid.
 And cruelly but mercy or remeid,
 With schot of gunne yai murdreist him fra hand,
 Schort ouer twa yeiris quhē he had rung in deid
 This Innocent Prince James Regent of Scotland.

¶ Ze virtuous men lament his cairfull chance,
 Sen he is gone that suid zow fortifie,

All ze that wald the trew Gospell auance :
 Beuaill, beuaill, for that sweit Josue.
 Zour secund Moyses, that led zow throw ye se.
 Had he indurit zour Canane land had stand,
 Dispair not zit. Christ will zour Capitane be,
 Sen he is gone James Regent of Scotland.

¶ Ze pure cōmounis that lang hes bene opprest
 And ze Burrowis murne and Regrait his fall :
 Gif he had leifit, na man durst zow molest
 For quhy he was ane watcheman on zour wall
 Now sen na Prince may leif uprycht at all,
 In this fals Realme on slane in Burgh and land
 Adew now Mirrour of Justice Principall, Maist godly Prince James Regent of Scotland.

¶ This commoun weil he luifit sa tenderlie.
 Quhilk to mantene na thing maid him agast
 His lufe to it he schew maist faithfullie,
 And with his blude he seillit it up at last.
 Had he mantenit all Tratours that trespass,
 His godly lyfe in Joyis zit had stand,
 That wald he not, and sa this Prince is past,
 That Innocent James Regent of Scotland.

¶ Now ze his followeris of his Interpryse,
 Think on the murther of that Innocent,
 Extend zour strenthis and all togidder ryse,
 Pasendlang Clyde but reuth incontinent
 Meg Lochis get, that did the mys Inuent
 That Apostat that Feyndis awin Seriand
 Seis not quhill he, and his curst Kin Repent,
 The slauchter of our Regent of Scotland.

 That infant Babe, that ze haif taine in cuir
 Saif him from skaith and stif togidder byde,
 Remember quhat ze haif in hand be sure,
 Zour fais will lauch quhen thay ze zow deuyde ;

Lat na vaine gloir covetice, nor pryde.
 Expell freindschip to wrak zow and this land,
 Keip the last wordis of our Just Joy and gyde, Quhen he deceissit James Regent of Scotland.

¶ Hudge is zour fais within this fals Regiou
 With Ithand trystis cōtractand vp new bandis
 To bring zow to schame and confusioun,
 Gaird zow zow lufe, sen ze wait how it standis.
 Zour Prince and strenth, keip weill in faithful hādis
 For gif zour fais tryūphis ouer zou to stād
 Schaip zow for deid, or dwell in vther landis,
 Sen he is gone James Regent of Scotland.

Zour cause is Just, gif ze wald all persew
 Bot quhair deuisioun lurkis it is ane pyne;
 Christ hes it sed, and doutles it is trew
 That Kingdome sall come to greit ruyne,
 Quhen that deuisioun hes his sait and tryne,
 Thairfoir be war, counsall is na command:
 For gif ze perische, zour cause & freindis sall tyne
 For now thay want James Regent of Scotland.

¶ Greit is the danger ze stand in now but dout.
 And ze haif schame fra zour purpos to fle,
 Spair not for geir, bot with bauld hartis be stout
 Mantene Gods cause, to commoun weill haif Es
 And he that is of maist Magnificie,
 Zour baner sall display with his awin hand,
 To the confusioun of zour Enemie
 Sen he is gone James Regent of Scotland.

O thow that art Omnipotent eonding,
 Thre persounis Ringand in ane Trinitie,
 Help yis pure Realme, & preserue our zoung King,
 Fra Schame and deid, and feid of Enemie.
 Amangis our Nobillis plant peace & vnitie,
 Fra mercyles Strangers saif vs with thy rycht hād

Our sinnis is greit, zit mercy restis with the, Adew for ay James Regent of Scotland.

THE.—Maddeis Proclamatioun.

[BRITISH MUSEUM.—Roxburghe Ballads. Volume 3.]

TN loftie veirs I did reheirs,
My drerie lamentatioun
And now allace, maist cairfull cace
I mak my proclamatioun.
Desyring all, baith greit and small,
That heiris me be Narratioun,
Not for to wyte my rude Indyte:
Sen maid is Intimatioun.

¶ I do Intend, nane to offend,
That feiris God arycht,
Thocht murtherars, & blud scheddars,
Wald haif me out of sycht.
Thair malice vane, I do disdane,
And curse thair subtell flycht.
My name is knawin, yair bruit is blawin
Abrode baith day and nycht.

¶ For I a wyfe with sempill lyfe,
Dois wyn my meit ilk day,
For small auail, ay selling caill,
The best fassoun I may.
Besyde the Throne, I wait vpone,
My mercat but delay.

Gif men thair walk, I heir thair talk
And beiris it weill away.

¶ In felloun feir, at me thay speir,
Quhat tythands in this land ?
Quhy sit I dum, and dar not mum ?
Oft tymes thay do demand.
To thame agane, I answer plane,
Quhair thay beside me stand :
Na thing is heir, bot mortall weir,
Wrocht be ane bailful hand.

¶ Awikit race of grumis but grace
Of Kedzochis curst clan,
Be tressoun vile, quha dois defyle,
Thame self both wyfe and man.
As lait is sene, with weiping Ene,
Thairfoir I sall thame ban :
Caus our Regent maist Innocent
That cursit seid ouer ran.

¶ Quhat cruelteis thay Enemeis,
Hes wrocht be tymes past,
I lat ouer slyde, I may not byde,
Sa fair I am agast
Thair anterous actis, yair furious factis,
Auld bukis quha will ouer cast,
And men on liue, can zit descriue
Thair doings first and last.

Thairfoir my lords, as best accords
Sen se are hapnit hidder,
This I will say tuix sport and play
My wordis weill consider.
And pôder yame for zour awin schame
To mark thame be not lidder :
Lat na mans feid, throw feirfull dreid,
Zour hartis mak to swidder.

¶ For I heir say, thay will display
 Thair baners on the feild :
 Think and but dout, to ruit zow out,
 Or cause zow seik sum b } *
 At thame, rycht fane, or ane, }
 That ganzell will thay zeild,
 Stand not abak (oh) febill pak,
 Bot swordis leir to weild.

¶ Defend zour richt in Goddis sicht
 Quhome of do ze stand aw ?
 Rycht few I trow, will zow allow,
 Gif ze zour selfis misknaw.
 Stand to thairfair, fyle not the scoir,
 But all togidder draw,
 Not in Cat harrowis, lyke cankrit marrowis
 For feir of efter flaw.

¶ Do ze not se that mad menez,
 How thay ar warin crous ?
 To wirk zow tene, yai mak ye Quene,
 Thair strenth and strang blokhous.
 The murther fy, thay do deny,
 And countis zow not ane sous
 Thair proude pretence throw negligēce
 Will be maist dangerous.

To Lythquo toun, thay ar all boun
 Quhair thay the murther wrocht,
 And thinkis to de, or fortifie,
 Thair fellony forethocht,
 And trewlie I, can not espy
 Quhat vther thing thay socht,
 Bot King put doun, & clame the Croun
 Be bludy murther bocht.

¶ I pans and muse, how thay excuse
 This murther perpetrate,

* Obliterated in the original.

Or with quhat grace haldis vp yair face
 Quhair it is nominate.
 Gif (as I trow) thay it allow,
 Like Wolfis Insatiate :
 Quha can repent, that thay be schent,
 With blude commaculate ?

 Fall to thairfoir I zow Imploir,
 My Lords with ane assent,
 And think it lang, ay quhil ze fang,
 The feiris that did Inuent
 This cruetie, be tyrannie,
 To sla our rycht Regent,
 For thay maist sure, dois still Indure
 With hartis Impenitent.

¶ That man in deid, is worth sū meid
 His fault that dois confes
 Bot quhat rewarde suld be preparde,
 For him that dois transgres.
 And will not graunt, bot rather vaunt
 In his unhappynes
 Maist sure the gallous, with all his fallous,
 For thair vnthankfulnes.

For gif self lufe, was from abufe
 Deiectit out of heuin,
 Quhen Lucifer, wald be ane bar,
 To God and think him euin.
 Quhat soll we wene of tratours kene,
 That Ithandly hes streuin
 For to deface the Nobill race,
 Of Stewarts od and euin.

¶ Consider well, thair cākrit zeill
 Hes thristit mony day,
 For to posses but godlynes,
 The Crowne withouttin stay,

As now of lait, thair curst consait,
 With murther thay display :
 Quhen thay thocht gude, to drink this blude
 Be that vngodly way.

 Bot Sathan sure, dois thame allure
 With wordis fals and vane :
 Ay promysing, thame to be King,
 Quhairof thay ar full fane.
 In Paradice he did Intice,
 Be subtell craft and trane,
 The man first maid, sa God hes said
 In Sacrede Scripture plane.

¶ He said that he, suld equall be,
 To God Omnipotent,
 The Appill sweit, gif he wald eit,
 Quhairof was made restraint.
 With small defence, he gaif credence
 Bot did he not repent ?
 Quhen efterwart, he felt the smart,
 And God aganis him bent.

 Sa sall all thay, yat dois yis day
 With mischant mynde maling,
 Aganis the treuth but ony reuth
 And Crowning of our King.
 And this thay mufe for thair behufe,
 To place thair awin ofspring,
 But thay repent, thay will be schent,
 And hell at thair ending.

¶ Authoritie gif Just he be,
 Quhy do thay this Ill will him ?
 His graitfull gide, throw peuische pride
 Allace quhy did thay kill him ?
 Thair heid supreme in to this Realme
 Admit gif thay not will him

Than ze my Lords, cut of with cords
Thame will be troublous till him.

¶ Reuenge this wrang, lat tratourz hang Gods Lawis dois sa requyre,
Lat Caleb eik, and Josue seik,
The promysit Impyre.
Thocht murmurars, and murtherars
Wald all zour deith conspyre :
In wyldernes with cursitnes,
At lenth thay will all tyre.

¶ That Campion of Babilon,
That bludy beildar vp ;
With Mytrid heid, ane homyceid,
That saikles blude dois sup.
Gar cow his Crowne, or put him doun
That he may taist the Cup
Quhair with oft tymes, for saikles crymes
Mennis lyues he Interup.

¶ And se that neuer, ze do disseuer
From first contractit band,
Quhen ze our King of zeiris zing,
Maid Rewlar of this land.
Lat not Inuy, cause sum ly by,
Bot all togidder stand :
Than God the Lord, misericord,
Will be zour sure warrand.

¶ From Cail mercat, quhair as I sat
Thir wordis I did Indyte,
The wyfis amāg, that thocht greit lang
To se my awin hand wryte.
Gif ony be, that will judge me,
To speik bot in dispyte,
Gar mend the mis, committit is,
And I na mair sall flyte.

XXX.—  The Spur to the Lordis.

[LIBRARY OF THE SOCIETY OF ANTIQUARIES OF LONDON.]

UHAT menis thir mischanc murtherars ?
In muifing mair mischeif,
Thir Ruggars, Reifars, Romeraikars,
Waitting of na releif.

The mark that God gaif in his greif
To Cains cursit Kin,
Sall brod thir Burriois in the beif
For thair maist schamefull Sin.

¶ Bot breifly for to breif in bill,
Thay seme to be ouerluikit :
Seing our Lordis sa lang ly still,
Men meinis thay will miscuikit.
Zour siluer beis na langer huikit
Gar pay zour men of weir,
Zone bludy Boucheours or thay bruikit,
Fordwart zour selfis but feir.

 Thay Renigats, thay Rubiatouris
Hes stollin our Regentis lyfe,
Thay treuthles Tygars, thay trinfauld Tratours
Hes steirit vp this stryfe.
Of thame sall nouther man, bairne, nor wyfe
Eschew mischeuous chance :
Thay Ruffyis be thay neuer sa ryfe,
Thay get na helpe of France.

¶ That dolorous deid had bene to done
Had concord knit togidder,
The Lordis and Counsall of this Rome,
Of lait that war growin lidder,

That gart our Enemeis consider,
 His deith for to conspyre :
 Clyde banks thairfoir thay sall find slidder ;
 Quhen kindlit is Gods Ire.

 Fra he was gane, thay thocht that name
 Thair fences nicht ganestand,
 For why say thay thair is not ane
 Dar tak the deid on hand,
 That ar not knit all in a band,
 We may the Crowne attane,
 Zour Counsall we sall contramand,
 And Crowne zow Kingis of baine.

 Frome lyfe to deith, gif siclyke change,
 Had happinit ony of zow,
 And he zit leuing to Reuenge
 It had not bene till now.
 Reuenge ze not his deid I trow,
 Gods vengeance is decreittit :
 For giltles blude ze knaw not how Denuncit to retreittit.

 Argyle and Boyde sall to zow cum
 To gar feche hame the Quene :
 My Lords I pray zow all and sum
 To mark weill quhat I mene.
 It suld zow mufe all to be tene
 Quhen ze the message heir,
 Sen hautie wordis bot spokin bene
 To gar zow tak sum feir.

 Ze haif deposit hir as in deid,
 Not worthie for to ring,
 God was zour ground, weill did ze speid
 And haif set vp the King.
 Gif ze depoist him of his Ring,
 Ze grant the former wrang :

And syne the Quene agane inbring,
Na dout scho will zow hang.

 Be war thairfoir or ze conclude,
That scho in Scotland cum :
For be my trouth gif that ze dude,
It semis zour glas is rune.
Better it war that ze war dum,
Nor speik zour awin mischeif,
And lippin for na gude to cum
Gif ze wirk hir releif.

 Argyle and Boyde befoir war with zow,
And promysit to byde,
And now thay tak on hand to gre zow
With all the tother syde.
Bot I pray God zour hartis to gyde,
For quhen thay find zow rype :
Thay sall not meiknes mix with pryde.
And playis on Dysartis pype.

 Fordwart thairfoir with fyre and swords,
For to reuenge this cryme,
And lippin lytill in leing words :
For thocht I speik in ryme.
Treuth it was only to dryue tyme,
That thay war hidder sent :
And had thay force or it war pryme
Ze wald se thair Intent.

 Zour Counsalls or thay be concludit,
The Borderis will be brokin,
Than will thay, gif ze vnderstuidit,
On pure trew men be wrokin.
With speiris (in sport) thocht it be spoken,
This murther sone Reuenge :
Thir haistie heitis sa sall ze slokin,
Thocht it seme neuer sa strange.

¶ Not on that reuthles rageing Rebell,
 And his vnhappy band,
 With creuell causers craifing hell,
 Gods bludy curs dois stand
 Bot on the countrie of Scotland,
 Till that misdeid be mendit:
 Thair is na mendis bot sweir in land,
 With speid till thay be spendit.

¶ This Rakles Robert did report,
 In raggit Ruffyis ryme
 Sen Sempill solace to this sort
 Auallis maist in this tyme.
 With hardy hart, Reuenge this cryme,
 I say na mair Amen,
 Ga speik of Eger and Schir Gryme,

XX.—The Bird in the Cage.

[STATE PAPER OFFICE.—Scotish Series. Volume 17. (April)
 Number 72.]

Bailfull bird that wantis wingis to fle,
 Nureistin a nest richt craftie wylis to hatche:
 For fault of feit borne in ane Ark of tre,
 In Craftines to Sinon worthie matche
 A gylefall grume all gude men to dispatche.
 And be a gyde to blind men in a rank:
 Zit for sic seruise seruis bot lytill thank.

¶ A Scuruie Schollar of Machiauellus lair,
 Inuenting wylis anoyntit Kingis to thrall.
 To heis on hicht pure Pesantis full of cair
 From base estait, to Throne Imperiall.
 And mychtie men lyke wretchit Irus fall,
 And ly alaw lyke Loytring lubbers leud :
 For feir of storme fall fane thair saillis to schreud.

¶ And Doegis craft richt cunningly Imprint
 Quha can in hart pure Dauids Regne to stay :
 Achitophell misordour to Inuent.
 A proud Haman the faithfull to betray.
 Sobney the Scribe fals tressoun to display.
 Uproris to rais ane Atheist Abiron,
 To Stalwart Knichtis ane gylefull Ganzelon,

¶ Ane flattring face, with outward schaw serene
 Sour Aloes with bitter gall commixt.
 Ane luring bait fond fischis to wirk tene,
 Not spying deith till thay on lyne be fixt :
 Quhan tyme is tynt, than find yai trew this text :
 Ouir lait it is the stabill dure to steik,
 Quhen sturdie steid is stollin and far to seik.

¶ To Ciuill weir, and Intestine discord,
 This bird can blaw the Trumpet craftelie,
 Quhais strenth and force consistis in pratting word
 With Serpentis sting, vnder simplicitie.
 A wylie wicht to practeis palzardrie.
 With warldly wit weill furnissit at will,
 Quhais Deuillische dryftis puttis all in poynt to spill

¶ This birdis counsall confoundit hes yis land
 Turnd vp syde doun of richt and equitie :
 Displacit peace with discordis feirfull wand,
 That mouit hes thift, reif, and crueltie,
 Murther but mercy, bludie terrannie,
 Wandreth wanrest, feirfull ambitiouun :
 Aspyring vp with prude to heich renoun.

¶ This bailfull bird richt beinly can vpbeild
 In Castellis strang hir noysum nest to byde,
 The feildis plane can not fra schame hir scheild.
 Quha heichest clymmis the soner may thay slyde :
 In warldly wit (by God) quha dois confyde,
 Will be bet doun be duilfull destanie :
 And end thair lyfe with wretchet miserie.

¶ O monstrous bird God nor ye gleddis ze get Or Rauinnis the rug with bludie beik in bittis,
 The Pyet pyke thy ene on gallous set,
 As Haman hangit hie on hicht with tittis.
 The forkit Clauer besyde the Croce that sittis,
 Mot be thy beir at thy last funeral,
 Quhen Dustifit to dance sall furth the call.

¶ I traist in God, that anis sall cum the day,
 Pluk at the Craw quhen barnis sall with yis bird :
 Or blind Harry with hir to sport and play,
 With fauldit neif and tak hir mony gird.
 Keip weill thy taill gude Phillip, I am hird
 The to award, from buffettis heir me by,
 The bony boy with sounding voice sall cry.

¶ Dirthin bedreidis the Prouerb sayis of auld,
 Ane scabbit hors will feill quhair he is sair :
 Quha giltie bene of vicis lastly tauld,
 Will deme of thame all men speikis lait and air :
 Quhairby thair lyfe is ay bot lasting cair,
 Fretting with feir in Inward conscience
 As hoiplost wichtis without all patience.

¶ Euin so sum man that menis not in his mynd
 Bot monstrously for to mantene misordour,
 Achitophellis air, ane Ganzelon of strynd :
 Falser than theuis that leuis on the bordour.
 Quha craftelie his awin affairis to furdour,
 Will think I speik of him in this my ryme
 Johne Gukstounis Eye to bleir quhen he thinkis tyme

¶ The Lenuoy.

¶ Jak in the bokis, for all thy mokis
 A vengeance mot the fall :
 Thy subteltie, and palzardrie
 Our fredome bringis in thrall.
 Thy fair fals toungh, dois still Impung
 Our Crown Imperiall.
 Lyke wauering thane, thy proces vane,
 Will brew the bitter gall.

¶ Thy feddrum fair, will wirk the cair
 For all thy Syren sangis,
 Ane futles gyde, that mon abyde,
 To pay for all our wrangis.
 With wallaway, thoull curs the day,
 Quhen Justice falset fangis,
 With helteris hie, to ty on tre
 Thy poysonit Edder stangis.

Remord in mynd thy greit madnes,
 Recant thy cairfall cowardnes,
 Leid not our Lordis with wilfulnes,
 Lyke blind men in the myre.
 Sen thou hes wrocht sic wickitnes,
 Be thy auise and craftines,
 Or thou depart to hell furnes,
 Repent and haue thy hyre.

¶ This bill Maddie the sendis,
 And biddis to end it reid,
 It schawis hir dew commendis,
 But fauour or zit feid.
 God send thame euil to speid :
 Our King that vilipendis,
 Or zit dois seik thair deid,
 That dewly him defendis.

¶ Amen say ane and all,
 Of faithfull in this land
 And for trew concord call:
 As God dois vs command.
 Strang is the Lordis hand,
 To keip all his from thrall:
 And with his threitning wand,
 Will mak his fais to fall.

XXX.—The Halsome Admonition.

[STATE PAPER OFFICE.—Scotish Series. Volume 17 (April)
 Number 73.]

Lamp of licht, and peirles Peirll of pryse,
 O kenely Knicht in martiall deidis most ding
 O worthy wicht most vailzeant war & wyse,
 O Capitane ay constant to the King.

O Lustie Lord, that will na wayis maling,
 O Barroun bauld, of Cheualry the floure
 O perfyte Prouest, but maik into this Ring
 O gudely Grange, but spot vnto this houre,

¶ I the beseik to call to memorie,
 The worthie deids done be that Prince sinceir
 King James the fyft, quha restis in heuin so hie,
 To the quha was his tender seruand deir.
 How in the day he vsit the as his peir,
 And luifit the so as man culd lufe ane vther

At nicht in bed his fellow and his feir
Esteming the as thou had bene his brother.

 And how his Sone our Regent of Renoun
That restis with God, quha did thir thingis persaif, Thocht he be gone, and with his fais put doun
Zit in his lyfe he luift the by the laif.
Ay geuing the quhat thing that thou wald haif,
Denying nocht that lay into his handis
For thy seruice thy fie was not to craif,
Bot recompancit with gold, with geir and landis.

 And quhen the Duke put the to banischment,
And from the held thy landis mony zeir
Thow knawis thy self gif he was diligent
To get thy pear, and slaik the of that weir.
And to the get thy lands thy guds and geir, Thocht thair was sum that tuik thy rowmis in few Zit he to the gat thame as is maist cleir,
To preif he was to the ane Maister trew.

 Fra tyme the Lord did call him to that cure,
Into this Realme that he suld ring allone
He the estemit of steidfast faith most sure
Thairfoir that hauld, and worthie hous of stone.
He gaif to the with Jowallis mony one,
As vnto him that he luiffit by the rest
The quhilk in deid he wald haue done to none,
Of all his brether that he luiffit best.

 Seytoun, Schir James, bot & the Schiref of Air
Efter the feild he gaif thame in thy cure
The Duke him self, and Hereis thou had thair,
For in thy handis he thocht thame ay most sure.
Sum said to him thairin he did Iniure
To put sa mony greit men in thy bandis
His answer was, quhill that he micht Indure,
His lyfe and all, he wald put in thy handis.

¶ Hauing this hauld, as I haue done declair,
 In Counsall hous the Toun with ane consent
 Cheissit the to be thair Prouest and thair Mair
 As man thairto meit and conuenient, Quhilk office is, in deid richt ancient,
 Under the King this Burgh to reull and steir
 During thy office, culd thou stand content,
 Thow micht to Lordis be perigall and peir.

¶ Thir officis the farther did promote,
 It neidis na preif, thy self will testifie
 Amang the Lordis thou gat baith place and vote
 At Secreit Counsall in materis most hie.
 Lyke as thame selfis sa thay estemtit the,
 Into thair caus baith bent Just and vpricht Quhen tyme requyris, it suld Reuengit be,
 Think on his deith, that brocht the to sic hicht.

¶ In humbill wyse heirfoir I the Exhort,
 With tentyue eir vnto my taill attend
 I the desyre thre thingis in termis schort
 First in Gods caus be constant to the end.
 Syne next our King, with all thy micht defend Himself, his lawis, his libertie and Croun,
 Thirdly vnto the warld thou mak it kend
 He was thy Maister Bothwell hauch put doun.

¶ Into Religioun thou was richt feruent,
 God gif the grace thairin to perseueir
 That tyme at Leith thair was na man mair bent
 During that Seige I saw the prick fall neir.
 Of lyfe nor landis that tyme thou tuik na feir;
 Ay venturand quhair greitest war the dangeris
 For to set furth the word of God most cleir
 And for to freith thy Natiue Realme fra strangeris.

¶ And now thou seis, how mony dois maling,
 Baith tyme and tyde schawand thair force & micht,

To that Intent that Jesabell sulk Ring
 Quha wald suppres the word of God most bricht,
 And from our King (allace) wald reif his richt, Quhome to thay swore thay suld be alwayis trew
 Als dois defend with force baith day and nicht
 Thay Tratouris strang, our Royall Regent slew,

¶ The word of God, for euer soll preuaill,
 And als his kirk soll haue the ouer hand
 Pharo and his, he brocht in mekill baill
 Quhen he led Israell saif throw se and sand.
 And als the Kingis Authoritie soll stand
 As Dauids did thocht Saull did him molest
 Sa soll our King at lenth posses this land
 As vtheris hes in quyetness and rest.

¶ This godly caus did euer prosper still Sen he was King, our Gouernour and gyde
 Baith at Carbarry and the Langsyde hill
 The michtie God was euer on his syde.
 Now in the North his fais thay durst nocht byde
 Quhair throw that pak did lois thair men of weir
 And quhen thay war the last tyme vpon Clyde
 Thair durst na fa into thair sicht appeir.

¶ Murther thou knawis will not vnpuneist be,
 Nor neuer was sen Cayn Abell slew
 The Scripture plane the same dois testifie
 That murtherars Gods wraith soll not eschew.
 Sall thay eschaip murdreist our Regent trew ?
 Of vertewis well, of euerie vice denude
 Thocht thair war nane his deith that wald persew
 The michtie God he wald Reuenge his blude.

¶ Dois thou not se ye hand of God agane yame
 Wirking thair wrak, for breking his command
 Thocht Lethingtoun with tratling he do trane thame Garring thame trow the Frenche men is at hand.

And Duke De Alb ay reddy for to land
 With mony Hulk on hicht of Arthure sait
 Quhill that tyme cum we sall lay on the wand
 And gar our fais gif clene ouir all debait.

¶ Quhat neids ye skar, thocht Ingland do support vs,
 To puneis sic as proudly dois Rebell
 That tyme at Leith thow knawis thay did comfort vs
 And maid vs fre quhen strangers did vs quell.
 And neuer socht na proffite to thame sell
 Thow neids not feir, that hous thay neuer craifit,
 The Regent sayis sa far as I heir tell
 Wald thow be trew, thair can na better haif it.

¶ Thocht at this tyme, thow haif that warlyke craig,
 And is in hart curagious and bald
 God will nocht mys to scurge the with a plaig
 Gif in his caus thow lat thy curage cald.
 As thow may se thick scurgis monyfald,
 Lich upon thame that proudly dois disdane
 Except the Lord be watche man of the hald
 Quha walkis the same, thair laubour is in vane.

Thow hes bene ane, sen first this caus began,
 And als hes sene, how God gart it proceid
 Heirfoir I pray zit do the thing thow can Into Gods caus, and to Reuenge his deid.
 And gif thow swerue, richt sair in hart I dreid,
 That sindrie sall thy doingis discommend
 Auise heiron sen now is tyme of neid
 Mark weill I pray this Schedull that I send.

XXX.—The Tressoun of Dunbartane.

[STATE PAPER OFFICE.—Scotish Series. Volume 18 (May) Numbers 23 and 24.—A Lennox Garland. Edited by Joseph Irving, Dumbarton 1860.]

N Mayis moneth mening na dispyte,
Quhen luiffaris dois thair daylie obseruance
To Venus Quene the Goddes of delyte,
The fiftene day befell the samin chance.
The Generall raid with mony Demylance,
Downe to Dunbartaine doand na man Ill,
Quhair furious Fleming schot his Ordinance
Willing to wraik him, wantit na gude will.

Mair I lament the great Ingratitude
Of cruell Catues kankirt and vnkynde,
Quhat gart zow schute to slay zone men of gude ?
Lunatyke Monsters mad and by zour mynde.
Degenerat Stewartis of ane Hieland strynde,
As mix me balme and poysone put into it,
Rycht as the tre is nureist be the rynde :
Cardanus counsell causit the to do it.

That Bastard Bischop bred ane greiter blok
Laitly expremit, I neid not speik it heir,
Thocht thou be cummin of ane Royall stok,
The Kings hous and als his Consing deir.
Gif naturall kyndness coulde in the appeir,
Thow hes na cause to keip him in thy hous
For airt and pairt ressetting him I feir,
Of thy auld Lordschip beis not left ane sous.

Mycht thou not licence Inglis men to ryde
Throw all this Realme vpon thair awin expensis
Bot thou vaine bable bouistrit vp in pryde ;
Crabit but cause, and caryit by thy sensis.

Throw Sorcerie and vther vain pretensis,
 Doist thou beleif the wichtnes of thy wawis
 May keip zone knaif that slew our saikles Prencis
 Na weill I wait God will reuenge that cause.

Gif that was foule, now foular may be spokin
 Without respect to honour lyfe or landis,
 Bot not the first tyme that thy faith was brokin
 Thankit be God he chaipit of thy handis.
 Haifand thy traist as all men vnderstands ;
 Dissaitfully thow schot but ryme or ressoun
 Bot had not bene ane slack was in the sands
 Weill had he payit zow tratouris for zour tressoun.

Ganzelons gettis relict of Synoins seid,
 Tratouris to God, and mainsworne to the King
 Deir sall ze by zone foule unduchtie deid,
 Betraissand strangers vnderstude na thing.
 I put na doubt, man for thy deidis Inding,
 To se vs shortly in thy place possest
 At euerie port a spald of the to hing
 As tratouris sould for schuitting vnder trest.

Makcloid, Makclaine, nor he that slew Oneill
 Or zit quhat micht Johne Moydirnoch do mair ?
 Ane Turk, ane Jow, or than the mekle Deill,
 To thy foule tressoun trewly na compair :
 Weill hes thow leird it at the Bischoppis lair,
 Becum his prentise broderit in his band
 Gif thow denyis, thair was ane dosane thair
 Better nor thow, dar fecht it hand for hand.

Praise be to God he chaipit of that chance
 Ze plaid the knaiffis, and he the Nobill knicht
 I hope in God or ze get helpe of France
 Of better freinds to se ane blyither sicht.
 Our cause is Just, the King hes kyndly richt, Groundit on God and the foundatioun laid :

Thocht men throw murther mene to mount on hicht
Law sall he lycht downe as the Lord hes said.

Ze sawe zourselfis the Inglis men raid neir
For all zour craking caiget within ane Cro,
It is na Fables furth of France thay feir Cum fra the Paip and the grand Pryore to.
Thay haif zour Quene in keping (quhair is scho ?)
Lang may ze luke or sche releif zour weiris
Ze will not wit quhat Inglismen can do,
Quhill Drureis bells be roungh about zour eiris.

Than sall ze cry cor mundum on zour kneis,
Murnaud for mercy, and able for to mys it :
Quhen ze luke downe to Wallace Toure and seis
Sogeuris of Berwik brekand vp zour kist.
Thair sall ze se zour bastard Bischop blist,
Out of his hoill weill houndit lyke ane tod
That bludy Bouchour euer deit of thrist
Soukand the soules furth of the Sanctis of God.

For saikles blude and murther maid sensyne,
Gone is his grace, ze haif ane godly part of him
Trewly my Lord, and I war in zour lyne
The Deill a bit sulde byde within the zet of him.
Wald ze ga seik ane Secretit place weil set of him
Cardanus pyn weill closand in ane Spreit,
Pull me out that, thair is na mair to get of him,
Bot as ane bledder blawin fra heid to feit.

In waryit tyme that Bischop hes bene borne
Mars hes bene maister at that Balials byrth,
Throw him his freinds ar houndit to the horne
Baneist and slaine, vncertane of ane gyrth
Gone is thair game, and murning is thair myrth, Thair cattell caryit, thair Granges set in fyre,
The worlde may se thair wisdome was na worth
Murther left ay his Maister in the myre.

Now fair weill Fleming, bot foule ar thy deids
 The Generall this Schedul at schort to the sends Thow shall heir ma nouells as farder proceids,
 Bot not to thy sythment as sum men Intends.
 The actioun is not honest thow defends,
 Gif thow be angrie with ocht that I reheirs
 The narrest gait thow can gang seik amends.
 Is mend thy maners, and I sall mend the veirs.

XXXIII.—Ane Ballate of the Captane of the Castell.

[RICHARD BANNATYNE'S MEMORIALES OF TRANSACTIONS IN SCOTLAND 1569-1573. 4to, (Bannatyne Club) 1836.—Scottish Poems of the Sixteenth Century. Collected by John Graham Dalyell, Edinburgh, 1801.]

T the castle of Edinburch, Vpoun the bank baith greine and rouch,
 As myne alone I lay,
 With paper, pen, and inke in hand,
 Musing, as I could vnderstand,
 Off the suddan decay
 That vnto this puir natioune
 Apeirandly dois come :
 I fand our Congregatione
 Was caus of all, and some Whois auctoritis, instructoris,
 Hes blindit thame so long,

That, blameles and schameles,
Both riche and poure they wrong.

These wicked, vaine veneniaris,
Proud poysoned Pharisianes,
With thair blind guydis but grace,
Hes caused the puire cuntrie
Assist vnto thair traitorie,
Thair Prince for to displace :
For teine I can not testifie
How wrangouslie they wrocht,
When thai thair Prince so pitiouslie
In prisone strong had brocht ;
Abused hir, accused hir,
With serpent wordis fell,
Of schavelis and rebellis,
Lyk hiddeous houndis of hell.

These dispaireid birdis of Beliall,
Thocht nocht but to advance thaim sell,
Fra thai had hir down throwin ;
With errore and hypocrisie,
To committ open traitorie,
As cleirlie now is knowin :
But the grit God omnipotent,
That secreitis thochtis dois serche
Releivit hes that innocent
Out of thair rage so fearce ;
Provdydet and guyded
Hir to vncouth land,
Whair wander and sclander
With enemeis none sho fand !

Sen tyme of which ejectione,
This cuntrie is come in subjectione
And daylie seruitud.
With men of weir in garisone,
To the commones oppressione,

By slicht, and suddrone bloud ;
 Whose craft, ingyne, and polycie
 Full reddy bent is euer,
 Be treasone vnder amitie
 Our nobles to disseaver :
 Some rubbing, some budding,
 Thair studie thai employ,
 That slichtlie, vnrichtlie,
 They may this realme enjoy.

This guyding gart grit greif aryse
 In me, wha nawayis culd devyis
 To mend this grit mischance ;
 And als I argoued all the cais,
 I hard ane say, within this place,
 " With help of God and France
 I sall, within ane litill space,
 Thy dolouris all to drese !
 With help of Christ thou soll, or Pasche,
 Thy kyndlie Prince posses ;
 Detrusaris, refuisaris,
 Of hir authoritie ;
 Nane cairand or spairand,
 Shall outhier die or flie.

" Thought God, of his just jugment,
 Thole thaim to be ane punishment
 To hir, thair supreme heid ;
 Zit sen thay war participant
 With hir, and sho now penitent,
 Rycht suirly they may dreid ;
 As wicked scourges hes bene seine
 Get for the scurgene hyre,
 When synneris repentis from the splene,
 The scourge cast in the fyre :
 Swa Mortone, be fortone,
 May get this same reward ;
 His boasting, nor posting,
 I doe it not reguard.

“ Bayth him and all thair cumpany,
 Thocht England wald thaim fortifie
 I cair thaim nocht a leike ;
 “ For all thair grit munitione,
 I am in suire tuitione,
 This hauld it sall me keip.
 My realme and Princes libertie Thairin I sall defend,
 When traitouris salbe hangit hie,
 Or make some schamfull end.
 Assuire thame, I cuire them,
 Ewin as thei do deserve ;
 Thair tressone, this cessone,
 It sall not make me suerve :

“ For I haue men and meit aneugh,
 They know I am ane tuilzeour teoch,
 And wilbe rycht sone greved ;
 When thei haue tint als mony teith
 As thei did at the seige of Leith,
 They wilbe faine to leive it.
 Then quha, I pray you, salbe boun
 Thar tinsall to advance,
 Or gif sic compositione
 As thei gat then of France ?
 This sylit, begylit,
 They will bot get the glaikis ;
 Cum thai heir, thir tuo yeir,
 They sall not misse thair paikis.

“ As for my nyctbouris, Edinburch toun,
 What salbe thair part, vp or downe,
 I can not yit declar ;
 Bot one thing I make manifest,
 Gif thei me ony thing molest
 Thair buithis salbe made bair.
 Gif fyre may thair buildingis sacke,
 Or bullat beat thaim downe,

They sall nocht faill that end to mak
 The staires made in this toun.
 Swa use thaim, and chuse thaim,
 What pairt thei will ensegw;
 Forsake me, or take me,
 They sall drink as thei brew!"

He bade me rise and muse na mair,
 But pray to God both lait and aire,
 To sauve this noble ludge,
 Which is, in all prosperitie,
 And lykwayis in aduersitie,
 Our Princes plane refuge.
 Thairfoir, all trew men I exhort,
 That ze with me accord,
 That we all, baith in ernest and sport,
 Aske at the leving Lord.
 That hanged, or manged,
 Mot ilk man mak his end,
 Wha dewlie and trewlie
 Wald nocht this house defend!

XXXIV.—The Exhortatioun to the Lordis.

[LIBRARY OF THE SOCIETY OF ANTIQUARIES OF LONDON.]

LUSTY lords & barrounis yat bene bauld
 That for gude caus ar now assēblit heir
 Pluk up zour harts, lat not zour curage cauld
 And prise ye lord zour capitane in weir.
 Will ze him serue ze neid nocht for to feir,
 The craft, the wit, nor policie of man

For quhy the Lord will zit zour Baner beir
As he hes done sen first this caus began.

 Haue ze forzet how that he did vs luif
That time at leith quhē strangers did persew
Our enemeis harts ze saw that he did muif
To cum ouir Tweid vs to help and reskew,
Quhair we and thay our enemeis ouirthrew
Making vs fre that lang in thrall had bene
Syne in this Realme plant.. his gospel trew but scheding blud, quhilk hes not oft bene sene

Fra ze began from blude to purge this land
Thay murtherars thay neuer durst zow bide
He gaif hir anis, and put her in zour hand
But ony blude, vpon Carbarrie syde.
Syne efter that, quhen lymmers loust yr bryde
He faucht for zow vpon the Langsyde hill
Zour fais wist not in what hoil yame to hyde Sū chaist, sum slane, sum tane into zour will.

 He send Moyses to gouerne zow and gyde
Zour commoun weill to reule and als redres quhair throw yis realme but rest did rin & ryde
To bring the same, to rest and quyetnes.
His diligence my young can not expres
Planting Justice baith in Burgh and land
Dāting rebels, quhilk proudly did transgres
His malk rāg not, gif yat his dayis had stand.

 Richt prudently the Lord he did prouyde
For zow from tyme, he saw yat he was slane,
And wald not thoill, zow be without a gyde
But after Moyses he raist Josua agane.
Zow to conduct to ye land of Canan
Mair Fortunat nor Moyses was befoir
In faitis of weir ane worthy Capitane
The Gentiles lands to zow for to restoir

Thair Parliament of Linlithgow he did stay
 Syne Breichen gat it, bade him not ane blast
 Down was geuin ouir, for feir of weir assay Paslay he wan, and now Dunbartane last
 His Capitanis maid all his fais agast
 Sum tane, sum slane, sum chaist into the se
 Thir deids suld not, with silence be ouir past,
 Bot worthie ar Eternall Memorie.

Zour godly caus hes now tane gude succes
 In Ingland lait, I neid it not declair,
 Quhair my lord Chancelar tuik greit besines
 With your gude freind the Clerk of Registrair
 Thair trauell, wit, nor gudis yai did not spair
 For to vphald the Kings Authoritie,
 In presence of thay strangers that wer thair
 Working for him in his Minoritie.

 Ze do tryumph, albeit that ze be few
 Zour enemeis thay dar zow not ganestand
 Quhat ye do schaip, ye Lord himself dois sew
 Quhat ye duyse, he wirkis it with his hand,
 Thairfoir mak haist, lat nane be in this land,
 To leif lyke Lords, syne proudly to rebell
 Gar thame baith sweit and subscriue ye band
 Or failzeand this, do with thair leuings mell,

And gif ze dreid, yat sum will ait his ouirhaill,
 And will not keip, nor zit obserue thair bands
 For startling hald the kow fast be the taill
 Appoint nane sic but pledgis in zour hands,
 And keip thame sure, sen ze se as it stands
 For cum that tymc that all yat sort desyris,
 That wil but dout send zow in vncouth lâds
 To seirche and seik, zour meit into the myris

Sen thair Intent to zow was neuer gude
 As be thair deids richt cleirly may be sene

Gif thame na leif to play with yow buk heid,
 As thay haif done, ay waitand on yair quene.
 Bot puneis all the quhilk ye knaw vnclene
 Of outhier blude, & quyte yame for yair meids
 And spair all sic will serue his grace serene,
 And had na wyte of nouther of thair deids.

I wald ye did sum mair at this Canuentioune
 Nor did your fais at thairs thay held at Pace
 Quhat yai did yair, I neid not to mak mētioun
 Bot weill I wait, sū of yame rewis yat race.
 Zit top of wit was borne vp throw ye streit,
 This commoun weill had stand in better cace
 Had it fallin in his toun fell in his feit.

Sen God hes put the sword into your hand
 Justice to do alyke to riche and pure.
 Tak heid yairfair and na wise brek command
 Be circumspect of this your charge and cure
 Gif ye neglect, than God I yow assure
 Will frō yat rowme thoill you to be detrusit
 Planting vthers into that charge ye bure
 And gif yat sword to yame can ryghtly vsit.

Be bent yairfair, and byde not this in blüder,
 Baith the word of God & comoun weil auāce
 Ze neid na ma bot Gedronis thre hunder
 To quhip your fais or yai get help of France
 Mak to lyke mē sen ye haif ordinance,
 Ding draffen doū yat hald quhairin yai prydē yame
 Bring in ye north with būvart bow & Lance,
 Gif thay rebell with fyre and sword ouir ryde yame

How & what way ye suld apost your bordour
 Maddeis counsall is verray excellent
 Scho did prescriue ane gude & godly ordour
 That to performe, had ye bene diligent :
 Hard ye the pure, I wait ye wald lament
 Sa cruelly thay Tyranis dois oppres thame,

Slaying yarie selfis, yair gudis reit and rent
For feir of God, I pray yow to redres thame.

Quhat mā did hoip of grāge now dois appeir
His cloikit craft of malice dois outspring,
As in his Proclamatiouns ye may heir
He dois Rebell and will not serue the King,
Traitours yai ar agane yow to maling,
He being Crownit in lauchfull Parliament,
Quha dances fastest with him into yat Ring,
To his Crowning baith sweir & gaif consent.

Quhen the Regent gaif him that hauld ye saw
He was the Kingis, & sweir theirfoir to stand,
Albeit yat now, his grace he will nocth knaw,
Nor zit Lennox for Regent of this land.
Zit Robert Hepburne being in his hand
And saifly enterit within that place,
He said he was reset by his command
And send Robert to my Lord Regents grace.

Quhill yat he gat yat hauld and hous in hand,
Into this caus he was baith bent and bauld
Bot fra thyne furth than he gaif ouir yat band
And in this caus he leit his curage cauld.
This is the treuth as trew men to me tauld,
That samin tyme his maister was on lyue
He wald not lat him enter in that hauld
With na seruands bot outhier four or fyue.

 He hes not onlie sueruit fra our actioun
Bot dowbill murther he dois fortifie
Desyring bargane of ony of our factioun
Of his degré, estait, and qualitie.
We haue nane sic, ye knew in cumpanie,
Hirn for to match quhilk playit ye dowbil knaif
For first he slew ane Maister cruellie,
And syne betraist the last ye may persaif.

 Bot zit I knew yair is ane hundredth heir

Of gentill men, and cum of Royall Race
 On hors or fute, with quhinger sword or speir,
 Dar weill him matche, & meit him face for face
 And preif him fals and Tratour in this cace
 He dar not fecht for this is his refuge,
 He wald compeir at euery tyme and place
 Gif that he had ane unspectit Judge.

¶ And als ye se, he planely dois accuse,
 The Regents grace of cruell Tyrannie
 Aganis his fais quhilk he dois schaw ane vse
 In casting doun baith place and policie,
 Sen thay misknaw thair Just Authoritie,
 And will not serue, nor zit obey cpmmands
 Ze may be Law subuert thair places hie
 Syne tak fra thame yair lyuis geir and lands.

I knew thir letters ye fand into Dunbartane
 Quhilk dois declair his dowbil deids Inding
 Is only caus, I am baith sure and certane
 Quhilk garris him mak yis boist & manassing.

¶ Bot zit ye knew it is ane commoun thing
 For weill I wait ye haue sene mony sic,
 Tuiche anis the gaw, & yan the hors wil fling.
 Fra tyme ye spur and hit him on the quik.

¶ It is your hous that maks him be sa bauld,
 Agane baith God and King for to disdane
 Except the Lord be watchman of the hauld,
 The Psalmist sayis thair watching is in vane
 As ye haue sene within thir monethis twane,
 Ane greiter strenth ye gat as I record,
 Swa will ye zone, to God gif ye be bane
 And swa commits your wisdomis to the Lord.

XXV.—Ane Admonitioun to my Lord Regentis grace.

[STATE PAPER OFFICE.—Scotish Series, Volume 21 (November), Number 100.—It is there marked “1571, November. A ballad against the bringing in of English forces into Scotland.” Another copy of the same is marked “December,” 103–1, and Indorsed by Lord Burghley, “A ballet to ye Regent agaynst coming in of Englishmen.”—Sir Richard Maitland of Lethingtoun’s Manuscript Collection of Poems 1555–1586, in the Pepysian Library, Magdalene College, Cambridge.—Ancient Scotish Poems, never before in print. But now published from the MS. Collections of Sir Richard Maitland. Edited [and mutilated] by John Pinkerton, London, 1786.—The Poems of Sir Richard Maitland, of Lethingtoun, Knight. With an Appendix of Selections from the Poems of Sir John Maitland Lord Thirlestane, and of Thomas Maitland. Edited from the Drummond MS. in the Library of the University of Edinburgh. 4to, (Maitland Club), Glasgow 1830.—The Authorship of this Ballate is doubted, while not unlike those of Sempill, it is supposed to be by Lord Thirlestane. As it, however, evidently forms one of the series, it has been judged right to reprint it here.]

AIST loyal lord, ay for yi lawtie lowitt,
Now be not lakkit for deloyaltie!
Thocht to ye princis place thow be promowit,
Be not abusit be authoritie.
Bot schaw thi treuth, and thy integricie.
Sene we sa far ourselfis hes submittit,
And king and contray Lawes and libertie
Unto thy cair, and cradit, haue committit

Thy hous hes ay bene trustie, and intair;
Defamit nocht with fraud, and fickilnes.
Bot schaw thyself bayth scharp, sage, and sinceir;
Indewit with vertew, wit, and worthines,
Ingyne, judgement, justice, and gentilnes;
Craft, conduct, cair, and knawlege to command:

Heroik hart, honor, and hardines :
Or in this storme thy stait will neuer stand.

We haive the chosin to ye cheifest charge,
Oure tossit galay to governe, and to gyde.
Bewar with bobbis ! scho is a brukill barge,
And may na bitter blastis weill abyde.
Thow may hir tyne, in turning of a tyde,
Cast weill thy cours ; yow hes ane kittil cure.
Off perrellis pance ; and for sum port provyde ;
And anker sicker, quhar thow may be sure.

All Boreas' bitter blastis ar nocht blawne:
I feir sum boide, and bobbis be behinde.
Be tyde and tempest thow may be ovirthrawne ;
And mony fairlie fortouns thow may find :
As channellis, cragis, bedds, and bankis blind ;
Lekand wanluks, quhairby thow may be loist.
Bewar, thairfoir, with weddir, waw, and wynd,
With uncouth coursis, and unkawin coist.

Be war w^t strangears in thy sterne to steire
Thocht on ane course we can nocht condescend
Suppois sum present perrell now appeir
And sum hes wyritt and will not with us wend
Be meitar meanes thow mon that make mend
Noe dangeris be ye double to divert Thairfor I pray the prudenthe spend
And put nocht all in perrell for a pairt.

Thow will put all intill appeirand perrell,
Gif Inglis forceis in yis realme repair.
Sic ar nocht meit for to decyde oure querrell ;
Thocht farlandis fules seme to have fedderis fair.
Be thay acquentit, thai will creip inner mair ;
And wilbe noysum nychbours, and Enorme :
And schortlie will sit till our sydes as sair,
As now the rebels, quhome thay suld reforme.

That freindschip is ay fecfullest afar;
 And langest will indure with lytle daile.
 I feir with ws and tyme it wirk to war,
 Fra thai aganes oure partie anes prevaile.
 Quha wait bot syne thai will ourselfis assaill ;
 Auld fayis ar sindill faythal freindis found :
 First helpe the halfe, and syne or harrill the haill,
 Wilbe a woful weifair of oure wound.

Oure brethren may remember zit in France
 The fay^t and freindschip yat thai w^t thame fand
 And how thay did the word of God avance
 Fra the new heavin they gat into yair hand
 And how thay never pairtit w^t that pand
 Quhill bayth ye syddes yame forcit to reteir
 Even at Leith gif yat yow lat thame land
 The samyn practis plainlie will appeir.

Be thair exempill learne experience,
 Ane foreyne mache, or maister, to admitt.
 Reid, fra the Saxons gat preeminence,
 How sone thai socht as souueraignes to sitt.
 Reid quhow thay forcit the Britoun folks to flitt ;
 And zit posseids that peipils propertie.
 Bewar ! We may be weltred or we witt :
 And lykeways lose oure land, and liberty.

Ane thousand sic exemplis I could schaw ;
 And mony nobill natiouns may name,
 Quha lost at lenth thair libertie, and law,
 And sufferit hes great sorrow, sy^t and schame ;
 That for to helpe thair hermes, and hurte at hame,
 Feyosit forayne forcis in to thair support,
 Quha fulzeit syne thair fredome, force, and fame ;
 And thame subdewit in the samyn sort.

Fleand Charibe bewar in styll to fall ;
 And sa eschew cruill dissentioun,

That oure estait to strangers be not thrall,
 The canker of our auld contentioun
 Will keip na coūnand nor conventioun.
 Bot gif yow gif thame credit to correct us,
 Be craftie way, will, and conventioun,
 And subtell slycht, thai will seik to subject us.

This realme wt eis the rebellis may repres
 We neid na forene forces for sa few Thair landis thay loup that reagne is les and les Sa suit not sic as seiks us to subdew
 Qlk gif thow do quhat euer may eusew
 To fergus blude we rather will obey
 Nor in or tyme be trators toyitt vntrew
 And gif or realme to Ingland as a pray.

Scotland came never zit in servitude,
 Sen Fergus first ; bot ever hes bene frie.
 And hes bene alwais bruikit be ane blude ;
 And kin of kings descendit gre be gre.
 Gif that it be in bondage brocht be the,
 Thay wareit weir thy weirdis and wanhaip !
 Thairfoir thir forene fechis sa force,
 That catchit we be nocht with ye eftir-claip.

Markand mynt at the honour, laude, and prais,
 The vertew, worde, worschip, and vassallage,
 Off sic as doichtelie did in thair dayis
 To keip this realme from thraldome and bondage :
 Mark als the vyle vituper, and the wage
 Of untreuth, tresoune and of tyrannie :
 And how sum hes honour, and heretage,
 And Lyfes, losrt, for thair deloyaltie.

Sa for thy factis thow may be suir to find
 The lyke reward of vertew or of vyce
 Thairfoir be not sylit as a bellie blind ;
 Nor lett thyself be led upone the yce,
 Nor, to content thy marrow's covatyce,

Put not thyself in perrell for to perish.
 Nor beir the blame, quhair vthers takis the pryce.
 Nor beitt the buish, that vthers eit the bereis.

The throne of tryall, and theatre trew,
 Is for to regne, and rewle above the rest.
 Who hes the woyne him all the world dois vew ;
 And magistrat the man dois manifest.
 Sen thou art in the princes place possest,
 Louk to be prasit as thou plays thi pairt.
 And, as thou levis, so luvit be and lest ;
 And always delt with eftir thi desert.

Finis Amen.

Supposit be Lord Thirlstane.

With spreit opprest this plungit in to cair,
 Remembryng me quhat mater to compyle
 Endlang ane Park I past without repair

Be Snawdoun syde the seuint day of Apryle,
 And as I walkit wandering not ane myle
 Ane pieteous spreit appeirit to my thocht,
 Sayand, allace, and waryit be the quhyle
 That I was borne, or in this warld upbrocht.

 Can I nocht tell gif be Illutioun
 Or gif be feir sic fantaseis we tak,
 Bot this be said in schort conclusioun
 Deplorit ane plaint, and planelie to me spak
 Poetis of me hes mater for to mak
 In tragedie quhat tyme I heir remanit
 And with that word I went sum thing abak,
 And bad say on, and with God saif me sanit.

 ¶ I was (said he) ane Lord leuand on lyfe,
 Ane bastard barne that can I not deny
 My Father was ane Erle and had ane wyfe Thocht he abusit his body and lay by.
 In Goddis Ire begottin sa was I
 My mother was a Dame in Dundaf mure
 Bot quhidder it was in feild keipand the Ky
 Or fischand Lochis Lin I am not sure.

 As for my surname seik my mothers aith
 Quyhylis Cuninghame yai callit me heir & yair bot gude John Cowane gaif me meit and claih Quhill I was seuin yeir auld and sū thing mair
 the Prouest of Hammiltoun cūmand by for cair Fand me with Ky ane kyndlie occupatioun,
 And Hammiltoun he me huif I sow declair
 Ane sorie Surname for my awin saluation.

To preif myspreit and say my scher^o Ingyne
 With John of Cliddisdail yai .. usit^z ae to striue
 Be worsting first in faith the feild was myne,
 I brak his heid to haue prerogatiue.

Quhat sall I wryte zow in my wittis five ?
 I was coequall with Achitophall,
 Or subtil Sinone knaifrie to discriue
 And all my deidis mair Diabolicall.

 In leirning letters lang tyme at ye Scule
 My pregnant spreit surpassit all the laif,
 Quhill I was cowit and cled up lyke ane Fule
 In Stemming Rokket riches to ressaif.
 Than twa yeiris Noueis notit for ane knaif
 Zond in Kiluinning my prentischip I past
 Bella fortuna to me sic giftis gaif
 To want na graith and ay the Gallous last.

 Thā my Lord Arrane from Albany ye Duke,
 Obtenit the gift of Murray be ane myance
 Quhen Abbotschaw sic hauie haitrent tuik
 At the haill hous of Lennox and thair alliance.
 Quhaitfoir he coist and left thame at defiance,
 Than I fund Jok was into Paslay plaist
 Smart in my schuitting & singular in my sciēce
 And sum men sayis the bybill I Imbraist.

 For feir of that, thay gart me fle to France
 In waryit tyme I trow I went of towne,
 Quhair I begonth with guthorne for to dance,
 To loup on Lassis lait and play the Lowne.
 My Stēming Sark, & Rokket was laid doun,
 Fra tyme that I hard tell the King was deid
 Than I began haill Tutour to the Crowne
 To steir my tyme the temporall lawis to leid

 The first that euer vaikit was Dunkell
 And I was gaipand lyke ane gredie gled,
 The Cardinall deit, and than Sanctandres fell
 My power haill unto the Paip I sped
 Quhen whan they had rypelie all my b. wes* red,

Aganis thair Cannoun Law thay gaif decreit
 For I was bastard borne of vnlawfull bed
 Zit furtherit I becaus thay fand me meit.

¶ Without respect to God or feir of faith,
 Plumand but pietie I did oppres the pure
 Be fenzeit causis I confiscat graith
 Men criminall to accuse I tuke na cure,
 Quhen it was gottin I gaif it to my hure
 Quhome I possest in speciall Stanehous wyfe
 Of all the barnis my Lady Jeltoun bure
 Scho me constrainit to mak Ilk ane a lyfe.

Rowpand for riches quhill all my barnis wer staikit
 As houngrie Lyoū lousit out of a band,
 Sum benefice I bocht or euer it vaikit
 And sum I wardit waitand on thair land.
 Kilburnie haldis Drumry behind the hand
 Raith and Bernbowgall & mony honest man
 Na wrangous conqueis Christ wil thoil to stād
 Euill was it wairit, and weill war I it wand

¶ Be iustice airis I pledgit all the pepill
 Than spairit nane, thocht thay wer Innocent,
 To Magnifie my name I maid ane Stepill
 Of euerie pleuch I tuik fyue pund of Stent,
 Swa of this lyfe the Lord was discontent
 Seand my faith not foundit on ane Roik
 As babell fell sa Paslay may repent
 That I the maid of Malesounis of foik.

¶ Than was I Legat licent be the Paip,
 With dispensatiounis, sawis for euerie sair
 To eik my pois I leit thame pas gude chaip
 By quha sa wald, I wantit na sic wair.
 For holynes thay heipit on me mair
 Greit Metrapolitanе of the Kirk of God,
 Quhen I was Hird the scheip was in anesnair
 Lyke till ane flok of hennis befoir ane Tod

¶ Quha landit than, bot Lennox out of France
 To battel boun with him was bernis bauld,
 Sair I in dreid, quhill I deuysit that dance
 Of Glasgow Castell gat it bocht and sauld,
 Greit was the riches fund within that hauld,
 Plairrer or pois we neuer left plak*
 Coistlie apparell that can not weill be tauld
 We left him bair till all was on his bak.

¶ Efter the feild we followit him sa fast,
 Spuilzeit his places, & tuik baith gudis & geir,
 Quhill all the land he left us at the last Quhair Lawrence Neisbit chaipit verray neir.
 Contrair my conscience, and the actis of weir
 Murdreist his men that micht me nocht resist
 That saikles blude rang fer and twentie zeir,
 Quhill Palmsoneuin that same day I deceist.

¶ Bot to my taill heir I returne agane,
 Quhen ze began in goolynes to gloir
 I tuik my womit wickitlis in vane,
 Contrair my conscience I profest befoir
 My mynd was than the Messes to restoир,
 Bot now to lait, I lat that Law allane
 Had I fund graith my honour to decori
 I caird not by, quhat way the warld had gane.

¶ At Haryis Mariage I bure hid Inuy
 Feirand he procreat children with the Quene
 His putting doun I publicly deny,
 Zit botis & hūmis declairis zow quhat I mene
 And scho wer wrakit, all the warld may wene
 Than sould the Duke but dout ressaif ye croun
 This was my purpos planely to obtene
 Under sum craft to cow the Stewartis doun.

¶ Than was scho caryit captiue as thay tell
 And quha nor I was fainer of that fact ?

* This Line is much obliterated in the Original.

Except the countrie come not with our sell
 Quhilk was the only caus we bure abak.
 For feir of Murray sic myance gart I mak
 Be fraud and gyle we gat hir of Lochleuin,
 Seikand our gloir we gat baith schame and lak
 Our fals intent was sa tryit out in heuin.

¶ Zit cuttit I away their wardly strength
 James Erll of Murray Regent of Renoun,
 As I sall schaw zow schortly at mair lenth
 I being captiue tane to Striueling Toun
 Dunbartane Castell Deuill mot ding the doun
 Quha wald beleif but thow was wicht aneuch
 Bot zit the Lord is Maister of Mahoun
 Inspyrit thair spreitis, & gart thame speill that heuch

¶ Bot quha may leif, fra tyme his glas be run
 As I haue schawin heir schortly to conclude,
 Sone was I helterit fra the hous was wun
 To Snawdoun syne, accusit with men of gude,
 Of pointis four, bot stify I withstude,
 Except the Regentis deith I nocht denyit,
 I was the only man gart spill his blude
 And mekle mair gif all the treuth wer tryit.

¶ Gude pepill heir to haue zow not abusit,
 Just ordour led I lat zow vnderstand
 In Parliament I was forfalt and accusit,
 Quhair I was baith connict of lyfe and land.
 Denuncit Rebell, and fugitiue fra hand
 Quhairfoir I knew my deid gif I wer gottin,
 Thay socht na Law, bot thay befoir yame fand
 And will be vsit quhill we be deid and rottin.

¶ And quhair ze speik of auld perticular
 Without auise of thair Nobilitie,
 The Erll of Angous and my Lord of Mar
 Glencarne, Ruthuen, Cathcart, and Duchiltrie

Methuen, Lochleuin, with Lairds aboūdantlie
 The Justice Clerk my dittay red perqueir
 Than fra I saw I was condampnit to die
 This was my haill Confessioun ze sall heir.

¶ Sequitur Confessio.

‡ Gude pepill all, I pray zow to pray for me,
 Quhat may my rent of riches now decoir me ?
 This far I speik in presence of zow all
 Complenand heir with pietie I deploir me
 Quha is the Lord to lyfe may now restoir me
 Heirfoir go mark this in Memoriall
 Twyse being bischop with sic beriall,
 Hard to beleif sum tyme to se me hing
 Gif I had seruit my God, and syne my King.

¶ Quhair ze accuse me of the Kingis v... *
 Gif I it knew, God nor I want my heid
 Exceptand quhen I hard the hous was fyrit
 I feirit myself and dred sum deidly feid.
 Than I persauit that he was past remeid
 I knew sum Tratouris had his deith conspyrit
 Thocht Johne my seruand said as he desyrit
 Under Confessioun speikand to ane Preist
 Mair beist was he that bure it not in his breist

¶ My former faith I can not weill Recant
 Nane I accuse I come not heir to Sant
 Gif to reueild, may help me heir I dout
 As to the Regentis deith in deid I grant,
 I weill awow it, becaus he leit me want,
 That ze may tell till all that standis about
 My voce is waik, I may not weill speik out,
 And of my Manus tuas I haue sic haist
 With ite missa est said I gaif the Gaist.

IRST quhen the newes begonthe to ryse gretly they maid me wondre.

Quhow that so grett a gospellar so fellounly could fondre

Bott seing quhow all erdry thingis wor subiect to imi-tatioun

Than said I, it no grett mervall albeit the congregatioun
 Wor no les than ye puir Papistis Inclynit to fornicatioun.

Now is the cours Platoman completit haillely ;
 The sone, the mone, and sevin sterris reuoluitt in ye sky,
 That makis the worlde tourne top o^r taill, & will resson

XXXIII.—¶ My Lord Methwenis tragedie.

[LIBRARY OF THE SOCIETY OF ANTIQUARIES OF LONDON.]

 HOW emptie pen pas but experience with dull indyre and do thy diligence
 This pure Cōplaint with pietie to deploir
 Of Muses vane I ask na Eloquence
 Bot only God of his greit Excellence
 Him to ressaif in Euerlasting gloir
 Quhome dolent deith hes laitly done deuoir

* "Todlyar may cum fra tod, as godlyar fray God."—Note on the margin of the original.

Unlukellie allace, gif man nicht mend it
 Slane with ane schot, sa is the gude Lord endit.

Methwen may murne, and all the bounds about.
 For Harry Stewart, that was bauld and stout
 Constant and kynd with qualiteis conding
 In smallest danger nane beleuand dout
 Invynous Fortoun swa did waill him out
 Lyke as at Roxburgh raid scho slew our King
 Ane greit foirtakin of ane weill war thing
 To se the saikles puneist sa with roddis
 The scharper scurge is cūmand for the Toddis.

Sic is thair craft in clymming to the Crowne
 The pure King Harry pieteously put downe
 Nocht be thair force, bot fyring of ane trane
 The Erle of Murray murdreist with ane lowne
 And Lennox last ze saw in Striuling Towne.
 Gude George Ruthuen with thay rebalds slane,
 Garleis, Dundas, quhilk wer baith trew & plane Dowglas of Lyntoun, & gude westiraw was last with lytill meaning fra the men be past.

¶ Bot to my taill and Tragedie returne
 The gude Lord Methuen makis me to murne
 That all my senses suddānly doun fais
 Quha hes the breist nor it in baill wald burne ?
 To se zone tratoures do sa foule ane turne,
 Gif that our Lords wald craib for ony cais wa worth the tyme he went about zone wais wa worth the Towne, the Castell and the craig Sic tyme sall cum, that God sall pour his plaig.

wa worth his weirds (gif ony weirds can be) Parcas, Lacheses, Atrapus all thre
 Fy on the Fortoun with thy fenzeit smyle war deid substanciall maid of stane or tre
 I suld not rest bot me reuenge on the.

Micht thou not spair yat Lord to liue a quhyle ?
 Ane of the best was borne in all this Ile
 Gif it wald rute, to reckin out sic taillis
 Gude to be war, quhen wickitnes preuaillis.

¶ Of twentie zeiris, zing and sa discreet
 Meik of his maners, mansuetude and sweit,
 Lord lyke allace, he had ouir lytill feir
 Aganis his fais, ay forment on his feit
 With lāmis vult, and with ane Lyouns spreit
 Quha had mair grace to gourerne men of weir
 And gif I spak, of Culuering, bow, and speir
 He was not borne was better of sic playis (war he not Lord) nor lyke him of his dayis.

¶ Zing, lusty, lufesum, liberall and large Ane greit defender of our chosin Barge
 In trublous time yow micht haif steirt ye ruther
 Few better heir bene Chiftane to hauie charge
 Aganis Lord Greid to beir the goldin Targe
 In all this land thou left not sic ane vther
 The sācts of God may say thay want ane brother
 Sic as at na tyme can thay get for graith
 Sa frak, sa fordwart to defend thair faith.

¶ In the was wit, wisdome, and worthynes,
 In the was grace, groundit with godlynes,
 In the was meiknes and humilitie,
 In the was fredome, force and ferynes,
 In the was manly mowis and marynes, with mercy, science, and ciuilite
 To the Dame nature gaue abilitie
 Pringnant of wit, of policie but peir,
 Rype of ingyne, with iudgement perqueir.

¶ In honest pastyme was thy haill delyte
 Thow bure the toung that neuer spak dispyte
 Walkryse in weirs, and watcheman to the rest

For na offence culd thou be forisit to flyte
 Aganis thy seruandis, thocht thay wer to wyte,
 But with thy wysdome weyit it at the best
 Thy houshald trim, and treit weill thay confess Quhairfoir thay mys the mair nor all the laif
 Quhen thay remember on the giftis thow gaif.

Had Stewarts stoutnes, as the mater stands
 Thay wald not fail to fecht it with thair hands
 To se yame murdreist doun yat dois belāg yame
 Bot sum ar feirit for fyring of thair lands
 And sum ar lyand obleist under bands
 That dar not steir, suppois the tother hang yame
 Blist be the barne yat is not borne amang thame
 Thay beand beistis, that hes bene men befoir
 Cōpairit with Gedds, that dois thair fry deuoir.

¶ Fy on the Atholl, quhat dois thow requyre ?
 May not thir murthers mufe thy hart to Ire Gif thow had mettall man to bring the to Thy dowbill faith may not abyde the fyre
 Swa misbeleif fall leif the in the myre.
 Or hes thy wyfe the wyte of it, quhair is scho ?
 Defend the caus man quhill the King cum to Gif naturall kyndnes kindillis vp thy breist
 We beand doun, na dout thow salbe neist.

¶ God sauе King James, thow may say allace,
 Exceptand only God mon gyde thy grace
 For temporall Lords thay leif the few on lyue,
 Thy Father murdreist in ane mischanc place
 Syne baith thy Regents of ane Royall race with sindrie vther Nobilis four or fyue
 And last of all, I laith wer to discryue
 The manly Methwen mischantly put downe
 Slane for thy saik, for sauing of thy Crowne.

¶ For the mantenance of thy lyfe and law
 I note bot few, or nane with sic ouirthraw

As only Ruthwen, this my ressoun quhy
 His Father first, gif I the suith suld schaw
 Deit in exyle for honest caus ze knew
 His douchtie brothers deith can nane deny
 Now Methwen last, beleuand sorrow by,
 Quhilk hes mair barrat to his breist inbrocht
 Nor all the laif gif he culd leif his thocht.

 Thocht we be subiect to mortalitie
 Zit God Indewis vs with sic qualitie
 That natural kyndnes causis vs to cair
 Bot let na Carnall Corporalitie
 Conplane on Christ for partialitie
 To tak his awin men outhier lait or air
 Lat deid to deid and die not in dispair
 Ryse and reuenge the Ruthwen on zone rout
 Quhat will it mend to murne thy senses out.

 As to the Lords that hes begun this actioū
 I feir thair tyme be turnand to detractioun
 Gif thay repent not this I spak befoir
 Exame thair conscience of particular pactioun
 Gif thay be fauourers of the tother factioun
 (And gif swa be) thair mys mon be the moir
 God will not be abusit with sic vane gloir,
 The storme approches quhen ye Poills ar fairest
 The langer spairit, the plague is ay the sairest

 The day is neir, as I dar weill deplane zow
 The wraith of God is lyke to gang aganis zow,
 For spairing men of Macheuillis Scuillis
 How may ze saue zone smaiks yat wald haif slane zow
 And ze wer in yair hāds yai wald not hane zow
 Thay play the men, & ze the febill fullis
 Quhat is the caus, let se zour curage cuillis ?
 Particular proffeit durst I speik it out
 Zit thay ar daylie murdreist doun thay dout.

¶ To mak sic change, ze wair zour wit in vane
 As thairs for ouris, and ouris for thairs agane
 Thair mō ze grant yair groūd als gude as zours
 Bot quhair ze gat thame, wald ze flour the grane
 That beand done, na dout thay wald be fane
 For to renounce thair Law and cum to ours,
 Do ze not sa, ze sall thoill scharper schours
 Sic vane excambion can I not considder
 As marrow tratours and the trew togidder.

¶ I dar be bauld to say sen this began
 Had we bot vsit the victorie we wan
 With gloir to God that gaif them in our hands we nedit not or now to want ane man.
 Bot quhen we tak thame solistatioun than Dois clap thair heid, the counsall sa commandis
 Quhairfoir I feir, that God sal burne ye wandis
 As for exemplill I can let zow seit
 For spairing sinfull how the saikles deit

 As Quheit is strukin for the stra besyde
 And siluer fyne mon to the Furnes glyde
 To get the dros deuydit as we se
 Thocht King Josias did in Christ confyde
 Befoir the plaigue come God will sa prouyde,
 He will not thoill the just with thame to die
 Bot quhair he takis away sic men as he
 The riche, the wyse, the Capitane, or the gyde
 Thair sall the pepill punischment abyde.

¶ Quhat nedit Noy for sin to suffer wrak ?
 Nor faithfull Lot, bot for the wickits saik,
 Caleb and Josua in cūming to the land
 For Ophny and Phines that the Battell straik
 The Innocent Ely all his banis braik,
 The Ark of God was caryit of thair hand
 And zit thair fais nicht better haue lattin it stand
 Suppois the saikles slane was for offences
 Zit did the Phelistims faill of thair pretences.

¶ And gredy Acan for the geir he hid Twa goldin braislettis lytill thing he did
 Zit was the pepill puneist for sic playis
 Haue we sic wrangous geir ? na God forbeid
 As Crowats, Sensours, or ane Challeis leid
 Quhilk will be found na fault now heir a dayis
 For spairing Agag as the Scripture sayis
 The hous of Saule was puneist and his seid
 Not spairing Jonathan for his douchtie deid.

¶ Siclyke King Davuid thoillit pane and greif
 His wicket barnetyme brocht him to mischeif
 His Capitane Joab Absolone forbure
 Bot far ma Joabs heir for thair releif with solistatioun quhen we tak ane theif
 Suppois ze wist he wrocht zour self iniure
 Swa sum beleuis haue baith the sydes sa sure
 And zit I hope thay sall not want thair hyre
 As Absolone set Joabs corne in fyre.

¶ The King Roboam raschely did ouirluik
 The auld wyse counsall, and the fulische tuik Quhairfoir he tynt his kyndlie Trybes ten
 And Jeroboam in that samin buik
 Set vp new Idols and his God forsuik,
 Quhill Abiah slew fyue hundred thousand men
 Swa Bennadab was Captive as ze ken,
 Bot quhair the iust dois ioyne thame with forsakin
 Be war thay get not wicket Acabs takin.

¶ Quhat dois it profeit Poetrie prophane ?
 Sen trew Preicheours speikis it to zow plane
 Zit neuer mercy in zour mynd remordis
 As fruteles seid it neuer growis a grane
 Bot to my taill heir I returne agane
 This Tragedie may staik to tell the Lordis
 Ane thousand fyue hundred Sempill sa recordis

Thre scoir and twelf suppois the veirse be vane
The thrid of marche was worthy Methwē slane.

¶ Finis with the Dytone
¶ Quod Sempill

¶ The Lord to delyuer the laif of this blude
And send vs ane sythmēt of yis suddane slaunchter
The King & his counsall inspyre yame with gude
And mak vs not an futestuil to our fais lauchter.

XXX.—Ane premonitioun to the barnis of Leith

[LIBRARY OF THE SOCIETY OF ANTIQUARIES OF LONDON.]

NE Cūning Clerk Experience
And Maister of Intelligence,
New landit in Inchekeith ;
This lytill Sedull schortly sends
To all that the gude caus defends
That is the barnis of Leith.

¶ Becaus I hard of ane Conuētion
Now to be maid for this dissentioun
That is into this land.
That anis thair may be finall pace :
How sone I vnderstude the cace,
I maid me to frahand.

¶ To send this Sedull in a gayth
That name of zow kep ony skayth

For laik of Premonitioun :
 For oftymes into treating trewis
 Cūis tydingis yat richt mony rewis
 Be Tratorie and Seditioun.

 As for exemplillis gif I list
 I haue anew wald I insist
 Baith Forane and at hame
 Bot to my purpois to proceid
 Of peace and concord thair is neid
 In pure Scotland be name.

¶ Quhilk neuer in sic perrill stude
 Sen that our Lord deit on the Rude
 Foull fall thame hes the wyte :
 For it is ouргane with a flude,
 Of murther and of saikles blude :
 Allace for leif to flyte.

Scotland this blude hes first begun,
 And lang in bludschedding hes run,
 Ane Patronē of mischeif :
 The rest at it beginnis to leir
 Allace that pietie is to heir
 I pray God send releif

 For innocēts ar murtherit downe without remors in land and towne,
 Quhat leid may leif on lyfe :
 And thay hald gait I trow frahand
 Sir murther salbe in all land
 Of Children man an wyfe.

That seis als greit as Moyis stude
 Sall drowne ye warld of māis blude
 Quhat mischeif do thay mene :
 Zone cursit battell as I trow
 Quhilk thay at Trent did all auow
 Thay think now to sustene.

For murtherars dois all considder
 Thay and ye Papists rynis togidder
 Thay ar ane blyssit pak.
 And thair wer not a God abone
 I wald be fleit I tell zow, sone
 That all suld gang to wrak.

Bot sa lang as our God dois Ring
 Quhilk salbe ay without ending
 We neid not for to feir.
 Thocht yai suld all rin by yair mynd
 Our God to vs salbe sa kynd
 Thay sall vs neuer deir.

Bot zit sen baith in France and heir
 Thay haue one butt as dois appeir
 That is to cut all doun,
 That Justice lufis and haitis vice Thairfoir my ladds of Leith be wice
 Ze ken zour warisoun.

 I pray zow all be circumspect
 Zour enemeis dois not neglect
 Occasiounis to ouirsyle zow,
 And gif thay may, thay will not spair
 Outher be foul play or be fair,
 Agane zit to begyle zow.

Ze haue mair neid thame now to feir
 Nor quhen thay come in feir of weir
 Downe to the Gallow Ley :
 For than ze knew thay wer zour fais
 Bot now thay cum in freinds clais
 Quhilk is ane sairer sey.

 I speik not this that ze suld stay
 From zour Cōuentiou and zour day
 Or ony wayis dissauē thame :

Bot that ze may prouyde befoir
 To haue ane pyn for euery boir,
 And to be richt war with thame.

 Ze knew thair faith in tymes past
 Thairfoir luke that ze festin fast,
 And tak gude tent about zow :
 For trewly and ze be not wyse
 Ze sall not mys to se ane gyse
 That sall not weill content zow.

And zit I rid yame leaue yair tressoū
 And euin be weill content of ressoun,
 Sen Fortoun with a Reill
 Hes wrocht thame ane vnabill charr
 And blawin thame blind or thay wer warr
 With turnin of hir Quheill.

 For quhy befoir thay did pretend,
 The Quenis authoritie to defend,
 To gar men trow thay ludahir :
 Howbeit yai wald haif wist hir swou mād
 Intil a bait vpō Lochlownmōd
 But boddum air or Ruther.

Thairfoir hir caus thay did procure
 Becaus yai thocht yat scho was sure
 And keipit to thair hand :
 Bot zit sic farleis hes bene sene
 That Frāce wil haif hir brocht hame Quene
 And fred out of Ingland.

 And gif that be I wald thay wist,
 That sū of thame mon flit thair Kist,
 For all this brawling beir :
 Bot sillie saulis thay ar sa daft
 Thay ken nathing I trow, bot craft :
 Thay ar bot zit to leir.

¶ It wer ane pitie to begyle thame
 I wald blind Jamie wald gang wile thame
 The moyane for till find :
 How that yai micht eschew ye quene
 And that thay micht (the parrel sene)
 Go saill ane vther wynd.

Zea thocht sum leuch and sum did dāce,
 Quhen thir blak tydingis come fra France
 Blind Jamie tauld me ells.
 That quyetly yai news did fyk yame
 And sum of thame dois euin mislyke thame
 Als mekle as zoursells.

Thairfoir I trow and thay be wyse,
 Thay sall leave of thair Interpryse
 And rather gre with zow :
 Nor with the hous of Guyis to mell
 Quha is als godles as thair sell
 And kens thair gymps I trow.

for get yat hous yair hād abone yame
 I wed my heid yat yai sal tone yame
 And trym yame for thair triks :
 Ze thay can think on auld done deids
 For brint barne the fyre ay dreids,
 Thay will not thole sic prikis.

I wald fane warne zow of al dāgers
 I couſal zow be war with strangers
 That halds zow baith in hand,
 I dreid ze ly lang be the eiris,
 Or thay think time to end the weiris
 And troubill in this land.

¶ It wer gude gif ze culd aggre Amang zour selfis and let thame be Ze may wit quhat I mene :

for quhē yat strāgers reuls zour roist
 It wilbe sure on Scotlands coist
 As hes bene hard and sene.

¶ And wer ze weill aggreet I tell
 Than Scotland nicht do for the sell,
 And set als lytill by thame
 As they do it for all thair power thay wald be fane to seik zour fauour
 And to zow als apply thame,

¶ Bot till aggre and ze delay
 Than Scotland will be bot ane pray
 As will be schortly sene :
 Till gredie gormondis waitand on Quhen thay may se occasion
 To rute zow all out clene.

For sword and derth hes zow opprest
 And also ze haue felt the Pest
 Bot zit few dois amend :
 Than desolatioun is the last,
 Of Gods plagues quhē thir ar past,
 Quhilk doutles he will send.

Zea I foirspeik ceis not thir weiris,
 The tyme sall cum within few zeiris
 That nane of Scottis blude :
 In Scotland dar him self auow,
 Mair nor in Jurie dois the Jow
 For feir of Natiounis rude.

¶ Thau sall zour pure posteritie
 In wandering wyde fra this coūtrie
 Amang all vther Natiounis
 Cry out and murne with woful cheir
 That pitie salbe for till heir,
 Thir kynd of exclamatiounis.

¶ Allace that euer thay wer borne,
 That dwelt in Scotland vs beforne
 And loist vs sic ane land, quhilk our forbears ans thocht ours with plesād castells townis & towrs
 And all things at command.

Sum Lords sum Lairds sū les degré
 Thair commoun welth and policie
 As ony Natioun had,
 And now na Scottisman dar be thair
 Allace quhat hart will not be sair
 To see Scottismen sa sad.

¶ Than sall thay warie curse & ban
 The murtherars yat yir weiris begā
 Quhen Chronickles thay reid,
 Thā Edinburgh that Castell strang
 Sall wareit be that stude sa lang
 Sic murther for to feid.

Thairfor yir plaigs wald yai eschew
 I counsall thame in tyme to rew
 And thair mischeif repent:
 Quhilk gif thay do ze may aggre
 Bot otherwise na pace salbe
 Thocht ze thairto consent.

For thocht that Saul wil Agag spair
 Zit God will haue his will but mair
 Fulfillit or he sace:
 Gif this ze do not vnderstand
 Speir at John Durie or John Brād
 Thay will expone the place.

thocht murtherars says yat yai thrist blude
 Zit let na nobill mē of gude
 Be craft that was brocht on it

And rewis yat yai haif tane sic part,
Repenting trewly from thair hart
Feir, thocht Johne Knox expone it

Bot gif yat thay grow proud & heich,
And skar at zow as thay wer skeich,
And on na wayis will bow thame
Let yame pas on to thair defensis
It salbe on thair awin expensis
Or all be done I vow thame

Than quhidder ze conuene or noct.
Keip thir premissis in zour thocht
Ze that of Leith ar barnis :
The abstinence drawis neir ane end,
Thairfoir I pray zow now attend,
Think on Experience warnis,

XXX.—The lamentatio of the Comounis of Scotland.

[LIBRARY OF THE SOCIETY OF ANTIQUARIES OF LONDON.]

UHAT thief, quhat reif, quhat murther, and oppressioū ?

Quhat saikless slauchter, quhat mortal meserie ?

Quhat pouertie, quhat derth and Tribulatioun ?
Dois Ring be Grange all leidis on lyfe may se
The schame is thyne, thocht we the sorrow drie
Curst Nemrod richt of Babilone the cheif,
We Commounis all lowd vengeance cryis on the Blaming thy tressoun the caus of all our greif.

¶ We sillie pure anis quhair we wer wont to gang
 With Coillis and Cokillis with Fische and sicklyke wair
 Upon our bakis als mekill as we micht fang
 With mirrie sang all tripping into pairis.
 To wyn our leuing in mercat at sic Fairis
 Now we allace but reuth ar reft with theif,
 Haue we ane lyart na baid bot all is thairis
 Blaming thy tressoun the caus of all our reif.

¶ Na vther lyfe we pure men bade of better
 Nor with our Naiggis to gane to Edigburgh sone,
 With Peittis, with Curuis and mony turfe of Hedder.
 Ay gat gude saill syne lap quhen we had done.
 For mirrynes and with the licht of Mone
 We wald ga hame but outhir fray or chace
 Quhair now in sorrow fra dure to dure we clune,
 Blaming thy tressoun of all our cair allace.

We Coilzearis, Cadgearis, and Carteris in ane rout
 Be bludie Wolfis that grange hes maid to steir,
 Our hors is reft, our selfis ar doung but dout
 Quhair we did trauell we dar not now appeir.
 Out of our Ludge we tak of thame sic feir
 Thocht it wald vs ten thousand Crownis auance
 With morning Prayer we curse thame maid this we...
 Blaming thy tressoun the caus of our mischance.

Allace we Chapmen may with Creilmen murne
 Thay sillie men that brocht thair butter and egges
 To Edinburgh Croce and did na vther turne,
 And we agane wald by ane Fraer of Fegges
 Baith prenis and nedillis and sell to landwart megges
 Than micht we trauell quhair we dar not this day
 Bot lyis at hame, but meit, na drink bot dregges
 Blaming thy tressoun the caus of all our fray.

¶ Quhat wicht on lyfe will not vs pure pietie?
 That wont to bring the woll, the skin, and hyde

To Edinburgh Towne in peice and Cheritie,
 Fra Selkirk, Hawik, and the partis of Clyde.
 Quhair now allace in hoill and boir we byde
 As wratches werie the Corenothe we carpe
 Dar not keik out for Rebellis that dois ryde
 Blaming thy tressoun of this our sorrow scharpe.

We Tinklaris, Tailzeouris, we craftsmen out of nûber
 That be our craft had ay ane honest lyfe,
 We wait of nocht bot mekill cair and cummer
 Our Joy is turnit in wo and mortall stryfe.
 All our gay garmentis of sindrie fassounis ryfe
 We thame wedset our bodyis to sustene
 Na work ado bot beg baith barne and wyfe
 Blaming thy tressoun that causis vs complene

We Merchandis all that with our Merchant pakkis
 Did trauell ay, fra Towne to Towne, to Fairis
 Thow hes vs baneist, thow hes vs fleit fra crakkis
 We sit at hame na saill is to our wairis.
 Thocht we wald trauell thy reiffaris sa vs clairis
 With reif but reuth, but pietie with extortioun
 But mirth in meserie thay horribill houndis vs tairis
 Blaming thy tressoun the caus of our oppressioun.

We commounis all with cair we may lament
 That had sic peice sic rest and vnitie
 And now allace ar rugit, reuin and rent
 Our steidis are flowne, our cattell reft trewlie
 With weiping wallaway nane may we wyte bot the Thow Feind Infernall thow garris vs walk our so Quhair we afoir did sleip richt quyetlie
 Blaming thy tressoun the caus of all our wo.

Bot sen with sith ze Cammounis do complene
 With sob full sair richt trewly sall I tell
 I James Dalzell Indwellar in the Dene,
 Be Grange smaikis I wait send be himself

Hes schot my wyfe throw birket lyre and fell
 Scho greit with barne syne gaif the gaist with plane
 Than cryit my bairnis with mony zout and zell
 Blaming thy tressoun that had thair Mother slane

¶ Thay reuthles Ruffeis but reuth with crueltie
 Did slay my husband but caus into my sicht
 Downie Ros be Name ane Cuitlar of craft trewlie
 With gūnis him gord but mercy on the nicht
 I and my bairnis soll craif Goddis plaigues ful richt
 To fall the grange thow cruell Cokadraill
 With fourtie ma nor did on Pharo licht
 Blaming thy tressoun that causis vs bewaill

Sen not but caus we wyte the of this wa
 With panefull pech, with mony grank and grane,
 The curse, the wareis, but blys fra top to ta
 Lat neuer thy freind se oucht of the bot schame.
 With cursit deith that mony man the blame
 Lucifer was heich, bot Lord thow threw him downe
 Sa will he the, thow graceles Grange be Name
 Blaming thy tressoun with sorrow but Renowne.

¶ O tenefull Tyrane, O Gyant mekill but micht,
 Of vicious deidis thow art the only Fontane
 Quhairfra all vice but vertew springis full richt
 As dois the watter out of the Rok or Montane
 We pure soll cry with erie hartis fast dontane
 To the O God, to scourge this wicket wicht,
 In Just exemplill to all the warld maist certane
 Blaming thy tressoun the caus of all our plicht.

¶ Had thow bene trew but tressoun to our Roy
 And to his Regent, gaif the that hauld to keip,
 As thow did sweir, we had not had this noy
 We micht had peice, quhair now in weir we weip,
 In wo but weill, but plesure in pane sa deip
 Be the O Tratour, that Rebellis did ressaif

Into that hauld with the thairin to creip
 Ha tressoun vntrew will gar ane widdie waif.

¶ Now lat us all with hart and mynde vs dres
 Baith euin and morne, richt law downe on our kne,
 With hyddeous schout all we baith mair and les
 For vengeance Just, with tene to fall on the.
 O thou O Lord, and God in persoun thre
 Consume this wratche with Brintstane fyre and thūder
 That persecutis thy Sanctis with crueltie
 Ha tressoun vntrew ane tow will schaik in schunder.

¶ Preserue with nicht fra slicht of fais defend Our King gude Lord, and als his Regent eik :
 Lat neuer thair nicht, but richt, with hand ay bend
 Haue strenth or power thame for to hurt or wreik.
 We thy pure liegis sall pray and als beseik
 To send the grace, lang space in weifair wend
 That we may se the puneis vice but meik
 Ind tressoun all sessoun with this we mak ane end.

XXXI.—The Lamentation of Lady Scotland, compylit be hir self, speiking in maner of ane Epistle, in the Moneth of Marche, the zeir of God 1572. (¶) (X) (¶)

[LIBRARY OF THE FACULTY OF ADVOCATES, EDINBURGH.—Scottish Poems of the Sixteenth Century, collected by John Graham Dalyell, Edinburgh 1801.—I now find that there is also in the Library of the Faculty of Advocates, Edinburgh a copy of No. X. (page 50) “Ane Tragedie; in the forme of ane Diallog betuix Honour, Gude fame,” &c.]

To the Richt Honourabill and godly Leirnit Gentleman, the Laird of Dune, (John Areskine,) Minister of Goddis Word, and Superintendent of his kirk in Angous, Mernis, &c., P. R. his humbill Servant. S.

To quhome suld I my Rurall veirse direct,
Bot vnto him that can thame weill correct
Befoir quhome suld this mater ga to licht,
Bot to ane faithfull Godly Christin Knicht
To quhome can I this lytill through propyne,
Bot vnto ane of Excellent Ingyne
Not for the termes; nor for the worthynes
Of ony thing that I do heir expres:
Bot for becaus I aucht, of bound dewtie
To dedicat to him sum Noueltie.

Go, bill, than, to the Laird of Dune I send the;
Beseiking him to tak his pen and mend the.
Mend the, (alaik) quhy suld he tak that pane?
To sicht the ones, it will bot vex his brane.
For as, in sum Schyre, thair is bot ane myre,
Quhilk is ouir all, that man and beist dois tyre;
Sa into the, he sall bot ane fault find;
Quhilk is ouir all, befoir, and als behind.
Zit not the les I knew him sa discret,
Gif he mend not thy veirse and haulting feit,
Zit at the leist sa surely he will byde the,
That Poets name sall se the to diryde the.

Pas on, than, bauldly, and to him deploir
This present stait fair weill : I say no moir.

¶ The Lamentatioun of Lady Scotland, &c.

E vapurs wak, and watters in the air
Ze Seyis sa deid ze fludis and fontanis fair
Heir my complaint ; to zow my cace I mene
That ze may wellis gif to my febill Ene,
To testifie with teiris my wofull cace,
And with zour murning weid absconse my face.

¶ My husband, deir gude Johne, the Cōmounweill,
To quhome I did all my affairis reueill,
As he to me did in our faithfull dayis,
But fraude, or gyle, or tressoun ony wayis :
Than, lusty, gay, and flurisching wer we,
Trew faithfull Children he begat on me.
Sic lufe and faith to vther thay did beir,
That thay knew not quhat beist was Ciuite weir.
My heid wald not disdane my leggis and feit,
My Eine foirsaw all perrallis micht me meit.
My hands and armes, ay ready to defend me,
To snib my children gif thay did offend me.
My body was weill cled with Policie,
My Hat was of Justice and Equitie.
My Coller, of trew Nichtbour lufe it was,
Weill prenit on with Kyndnes and solas.
My Gluiffis wer of fre Liberalitie,
My Sleiffis wer of to borrow and len glaidlie ;
My Lais and Mailzeis of trew parmanence,
My Stomak maid was of clene Conscience ;
My waist was gyrdit with Sobrietie,
My Leggs and feit schod with Simpliciteie ;
My hart was haill, my stomach weill dispositit ;
Of peice and rest my Bowellis wer composit.
Quhat wald ze moir Schir commoun-weill and I Held hous lang tyme ; bot Sathan had Inuy

To se vs so ; than callit he Seditioun,
 With pryd his Sone, to quhome he gaif cōmissioun,
 To tak with thame discord, and Nichtbour feid,
 (Efter, I mene, that our gude bairnis wer deid,)
 To poysoun me with thair Infectit cryme,
 With sum of my awin children of this tyme,
 Of quhilks I pray the Lord God mak me fre :
 Ambitioun will not lat thame aggre.
 Thir mony zeiris thay haue me disconfortit,
 I trauell zit as I had thame aduortit :
 The malice greit that ilk to vther beiris,
 Dois ryfe my bowells with thair Ciuite weiris :
 Sair boistit thay my husband commounweill,
 And maid thair vowis and aithis him for to Keill.
 In ony part quhair thay him with me fand :
 Quhairfoir, for feir, he fled from me Scotland.
 Away, sum sayis, to Veneis is he gone,
 Or to the Swisches, as thay do suppose,
 Quhair he is saif from danger, hurt, or skaith :
 Heir wald he deit of cauld and hounger baith.
 Thus am I left as wedow in distres,
 For commounweill; my bairnis left Fatherles.

¶ Children I had, in all vertewis perfyte,
 To peice and Justice was thair haill delyte.
 Sum of displesure deit for wo, and cair ;
 Sum wyreit was, and blawin in the air ;
 And sum in Stirling schot was to the deid,
 That mair was geuin to peice nor Ciuite feid.
 Bot ane was slane, vnto my skaith and schame,
 Becaus he socht to fetche my husband hame :
 He was my deir and best belouit Sone ;
 All that he did, for my weiffair was done.
 Lyke ane gude Mediciner, or gude Syruge,
 Of euill humouris, he did my body purge.
 Quhat wald ze moir sen James in Falkland deit,
 Nane for my weill sa weill with me aggreet,
 Nor zit sa weill did lufe Schir Commounweill,
 Nor vnto me bure sic ane feruent zeill.

Murdreist he was in Lythgow tratrousie ;
 The murtherars vnto my heid did flee,
 Quhair thay tuik hald, and zit dois hald thame fast,
 And ay sensyne my heid hes bene agast.
 For quhy throw falset and Subillitie,
 Thay chaist away Justice, and Equitie ;
 For laik of qubilks, my heid dois wark and zaik,
 And all my body trymbill dois and schaik :
 For quhen the heid is seik, the Prouerb is,
 That all the members be the worse, I wis.

¶ My claihs ar reuin, that pietie is to se ;
 Particular weill hes spuilzeit policie.
 My Coller rent is be Dame Fremitnes,
 The Prenis thairof ar reft be sad Nysenes ;
 Dame Nigartnes my Gluifis hes hint away,
 Tak for himself my Sleifis dois reist and stay.
 My Lace and Mailzeis tane be variance,
 My Stomak worne is be dissimulance ;
 My belt is cuttit of pure Gluttonie,
 My leggs and feit now schoed with Pouertie ;
 My hart is seik, my stomach keipis na meit,
 My bowells Rumbills, as thay wald vther eit.
 Now, for to couer all'this vilannie,
 Ane Cloik thay gif me of authoritie.
 Authoritie (alaik) na les thay mene,
 For thay desyre neuer to se thair Quene ;
 Bot that thay may in hir Name bruik offices,
 With power to cleik vp the benefices.
 Nane I excuse on ather syde; for quhy
 Ilk ane his awin hous seikis to edify,
 And nane dois cair for Commounweill ane prene.

¶ I grant I had ane Douchter was ane Quene,
 Baith gude and fair, gentill and Liberall,
 Dotit with vertewis and wit Naturall ;
 Prignant in Spreit, in all things honourabill,
 Lusty, gude lyke, to all men fauourabill.
 Schamefull to euill, baith honest, meik, and law :
 Thir vertewis all, scho had quyhls scho stude aw

Of God Eterne, as of hir Gouernour,
And quhen scho did regaird hir hie Honour.
Bot at the last throw filthy speiche and counsell,
That scho did heir of sum curst Kittie vnsell,
Fra scho gaif eir to sic vyle bawderie,
God, Schame, and honour, scho forzet all thre.
It wer to lang the vices to reheirse,
Quhairin from thyne scho did hir self exerce.
The Reider wald thame think maist Insolent,
Bot I thame leif, becaus thay ar Recent:
For quhilks scho was thocht vnworthy to Ring,
Ane Crowne to bruik, or ony Royall thing.
Sa all my Children, with hir awin consent,
Deposit hir in oppin Parliament.
Than wald scho that thay suld hir awin sone crowne,
Quhilk thing thay did sa Syce vp and Sink downe:
God sauе his grace: for quhy the same is he
In me that hes the trew authoritie.
Praisit be God, I haue fre at command,
That fair zoungh Prince in Stirling, my richt hand.
Wer not in hope I leif to se that day,
That he sall purge thir foul humouris away,
And me restoir agane vnto my helth,
Zea, caus my Children flurische in all welth.
Wer not he is brocht vp in all gude thing
Affeiring to ane Godly Prince and King,
Be gude Lord Deddy my trew faithfull freind,
Cum of ane race of men to me maist kynd.
For Lady Minnie, I dar tak in hand,
Happy is he hes sic ane Gouernand.
Wer not thir things that maks me leif in hope
At libertie to se this Lyoun scope
One day to Rore, and Ramp vpon his fois,
To bring thame law, that now sa proudly gois;
Wer not thir thingis, I say, and vtheris mo,
I wald dispair, and die for pane and wo.
To zow Vapouris, and watters in the air,
And seyis sa deip, I downe my plaint declair

Ze seyis, I say, gif passage, and ze can,
Till sum faithfull to bring hame my gudeman.

¶ And ze, my Kirk, my Faithfull Mother deir,
That purgit art of Channoun, Monk, and Freir,
Of Papist Priest, Papist and Papistrie,
Bot not, allace, clene of Hypocrasie,
Of auarice, pryde, and ambitiou,
Thocht ze haue left all Superstition.
I grant the word of God is trewlie Preichit,
And in the schuills Exercise trewlie teichit ;
Zit, sayis the Commounis, ze do not zour office,
For upaland thay haue not dew seruice.
The rowmis appointit pepill to confidder
To heir Gods word, quhair thay suld pray togidder,
Ar now conuertit in scheip Coits and Fauldis,
Or ells ar fallin, becaus nane thame vphauldis.
The Parische Kirks, I mene, thay say misgyde,
That nane for wynd and rane thairin may byde.
Thairfoir na pleasure tak thay of the tempill,
Nor zit to cum, quhair nocht is to contempill,
Bot Crawis and Dowis cryand and makand beir,
That nane throughly the Minister may heir :
Baith Fedders, Fylth, and Doung, dois ly abrod, Quhair folk suld sit to heir the word of God ;
Quhilk is occasioun to the aduersaryes,
To mok and scorne sic things befoir zour eyes.
Thus to disdane the hous of Orisoun,
Dois mak folk cauld to thair Deuotiooun ;
And als thay do disdane to heir Gods word,
Thinking the same to be ane Jesting boord,
Thay go to labour, drinking, or to play,
And not to zow vpon the Sabbath day :
So thay prouoke the wraith of God, allace,
Quhilk hes maid me to fall in this distres.
Zit suld I not blame zow, that sic dois perische,
Bot Lords and Lairds, & Cōmons of ilk Parische,
The quhilk wer wont for to caus euerie pleuch,
In vphalding the Kirk, to pay aneuch.

To do the same, ze suld thame zit exhort,
 Togidder that thay suld the pure support.
 The Prouerb is, of Palice, Kirk, and brig,
 Better in tyme to beit, nor efter to big.
 Ze Collegis and Uniuersitie,
 That to all vthers suld exemplill be,
 I se zour tempills cassin downe and reuin,
 The maist part are bot theikit with the heuin.
 This quhilk to zow I do sa planely wryte,
 The Commounis speiks of zow, and dois bakbyte.
 Amend sic things, I humblie zow beseik,
 And dit the mouths of thame that sa dois speik.
Making zour lyfis and Conuersatiouns
 To preiche and teiche lyke vnto zour persouns.
 It suld be ze, Mother, suld me Instruct;
 It suld be ze, to Christ suld me conduct.
 It suld be ze, suld schaw me the richt way,
 How I suld serue my God baith nicht and day;
 It suld be ze, that suld do diligence
 For to aggred this Ciuile difference.
 It suld be ze, throw Preiching, suld me mufe
 To Cheritie and freindly Nichtbour lufe.
 It suld be ze, that suld gif gude exemplill
 Of lyfe and warks to thame dois zow contempill.
 It suld be ze, that suld be at all tyme
 Clene without spot, and purgit of all cryme.
 It suld be ze, Mother, it suld be ze,
 To quhome the pepill suld giue eir and Ee;
 It suld be ze, schortly, I say no moir,
 That to all vertewis suld zow Indeuoir.
 ¶ And ze, my Barrouns and Nobilitie,
 That dois oppres my pure Communitie,
 Quhair is zour wit, zour ressoun, sence, and feill,
 To fle away my husband Commounweill,
 Quhat haue ze wyn sensyne, lat se zour ganis:
 Gar prysé zour proffeit & esteme zour panis.
 The panis, I wait, the proffeit will surmont
 A greit daill moir nor ze can mak zour compt.

I find, sensyne the Zow hes borne the bell,
Wysis Maisters bene in geuing haill Counsell.
To Lords and Lairds; I speik generallie,
As may be sene, allace, ouir weill on me.
Hwine, Huntly, Grange, and all ze of that syde, Behald now how ze do the mater gyde,
To caus my Sisters France & Ingland scorne zow.
That walterars of Courts ze lat suborne zow:
Zit ze and thay did sweir with aithis conding,
And did subscryue to be trew to the King.
In takin quhairof with all ze did aggre,
To Crowne and place him in authoritie.
Gif ze wirk weill, zour deids ane day will schaw,
For raising fyre aganis my actis and law,
In halding towns and strenths zour King aganis,
Putting the rest of zour brether to panis;
Quhome I excuse not, as I said befoir,
For I persaif ambition and vane gloir,
And gredynes to reule, dois blind zow baith,
Quhilk dois redound to my greit hurt and skaith.
Zour tennents plenzeis, that thay ar opprest
Be zow and zours, that dois thame soir molest;
Ze hicht yair maills, yair pleuchs ze dowbil on yame;
Thay tyne thair tyme at sic things to opone yame;
For na rest will ze get into zour raggs,
Gif sum sect knaw that thay haue geir or baggs.
Zour Nichtingaills will sing sa in zour eiris,
That ze sall nichtly haue Domestik weiris.
Zone carle, (quod scho), my Joy, dois beinly dwell,
And all prouisioun hes within himself,
In barne or byre, in hall, Girnell and Seller;
His wyfe weiris weluot on hir Gowne and Coller;
Thay ar sa riche, that thay do vs misknaw;
Than better sone to drug, nor lait to draw.
Sone is his Gersum hichtit, and his Maillis;
Him self growis waik, his geir and houshald faillis:
Quhair sic wer wont to haue Guse, Cok, and Hen,
Breid, drink, and bedding, to treit honest men,

Now drink thay Mylk and Swaits in steid of Aill,
 And glaid to get Peis breid and watter Caill :
 Quhair sic wer wont to ride furth to the weir,
 With Jak and Sword, gude hors, Knapscall & speir :
 Quhair sic wer wont brauely to mak thame bowne,
 With Lord or Laird to ryde to Burrowis towne ;
 Quhair sic wer wont at all Games to be reddy,
 To schuit or loup, for to exercse thair body :
 Now mon thay wirk and labour, pech and pant,
 To pay thair Maisters Maillis exorbitant.
 Ryue out the Mures, the bestialls gers intak ;
 Thay ar sa waik thay dow not beir a Jak,
 And gets waik bairns, euill nureist, in distres :
 Sa be sic wayis my Commouns dois dicres.
 My torment sair constrynis me this to speik ;
 Na inerwell quhy, for I am wondrous seik.
 Beseiking zow my seiknes to remeid,
 Quhilk may be done, ceissing zour Ciuile feid.
 To follow Christ and his Commandement,
 Quha said, befoir his last department,
 Ilk one lufe vther with sic freindly lufe,
 That ze may be the bairnis of God abufe,
 And cleith zow with fair Garments clene & quhyte,
 Without malice, coutentioun, or disperte,
 Aganis my cuming, quhilk trewly salbe,
 Quhen ze leist wene, in twinkling of an Ee.
 Thus said the Lord to zow, and to all men,
 That be thir marks thay sall Gods children ken.
 Heirfoir, my Nobills, seik peice, do that ze can
 To follow Christ, and chais away Sathan,
 With his Supposts, and all that taks in hand,
 For to diuorse me from my gude husband.

¶ Now ze, my Burges, Craftis, & Merchand men,
 And ze my Commounis, with my hynd zemen,
 To zow I haue sum purpois for to say,
 How, quhen, and quhy, my husband fled away.
 First thair come in lurkand vpon zour gait,
 Pryde and Inuy, with falset and dissait.

Thir four socht ludgeing all the towne about,
 Quhat suld thay seik, lang tyme thay lay thairout.
 Till ane Zule euin, zour wifes to counsall went;
 Than spak ane Lawers wyfe, baith trym and gent:
 Cūmers, (good scho), it is pietie to se
 Folk in a towne for cauld and hounger die;
 It is mair schame in Burgh for to se beggers,
 Nor is it skaith in Crawmont to want dreggers:
 Quhairof dois serue our greit cheir and fair bigging,
 Bot for to help the pure that gais a thigging?
 Quhairof dois serue our husbands gold and rent,
 Bot to sustene the pure and Indigent?
 Zit lat vs ludge zone twa that gais befoir,
 Pryde and Inuy, gif we will do no moir.
 And gif our husbands speirs quhy did we so,
 Answer we may, we left them vther two.
 Now gif ze pleis Cummers, I sall begin
 This same cauld nicht to tak ane of thame in.
 We knew thame not, (quod thay); bot tak ze ane,
 We must not leif the vther bird alone.
 Sa thay did skaill; and scho tuke with her Pryde;
 And on the morne scho come furth lyke ane bryde,
 With her new Gaist als proud as ane Paycok,
 And in her hart scho did her Cummers mok;
 Quhilk quhen thay saw, with speid thay ran in hy,
 And for dispyte amangs thame ludgit Inuy,
 In counterfuting her in all kin things,
 Courche, Coller, Cloik, Belt, Braislets & Rings.
 Then wox the Lawers wyfe richt proude in hart;
 Bot zit her Cummers callit scho apart,
 Saying, Cummers, quhat is the caus, and quhy,
 That, in dispyte of me, ze treit Inuy?
 Becaus, (quod thay), that ze alone tuik Pryde,
 And thocht that we suld not marche zow besyde.
 Thairfoir we thocht in that point ze did wrang vs:
 Aggre, (quod scho), and ludge thame baith amang vs
 Quhilk thing thay did, and all did condiscend
 To treit and keip thame to the warlds end.

Thus hes zour wyfis thir twa tane to be thairs,
And left the vther twa for zours affairs.

Quhilk seing ze and zour wairs gros and grof,
And with zour wyfis thir two so muche maid of ;
Ze gros geir left, and went for wyne and spycses,
Frenche claith and silks for to cleith vp thir vyces ;
Quhilks for to out with dowbill met and mesure,
The vther tway ze ludgeit at thair plesure.
Quhat wald ze moir ze wait weill quhat I mene ;
Disluge thame now, and chais thame from zow clene.

¶ Ze Hammer men, ze that maks schois & claiths,
Ze treit thir twa with mony manesworne aiths ;
And ze lykewise, all Crafts in Generall,
Alaik, I feill zow to thame bound and thrall :
Mairouir, zour drinking Extraordinair
Maks of zour wyfis and biarns euill to fair :
Quhen ze wald drink in hous, ze may be bauld
To do the same at hame with zour houshaulde.
All byganis mend : in tyme to cum, luik ze
Begyle na man, bot wirk zour wark trewlie.

¶ To yow, my Commouns, quhat mair can I say ?
I pietie yow as far furth as I may ;
Now pure ze ar, zit purer wald ze be
For vsing proud pure Prodigalitie.
Thair is na Lord nor Laird in all this land,
Bot ze man counterfeit in claiths fra hand,
Fra top to ta, thocht ze suld beg and borrow.
Johne, ga your way, for it will not be for zow ;
Ze suld your ground grube with Simplicitie,
And mak your claiths conforme to your degre.
Bot ye, your wyfe and bairns, can tak na rest,
Without ye counterfeit the worthyest :
Buft brawlit hois, Coit, Dowblet, sark and scho,
Zour wyfe and bairns conforme mon be thairto.
Leif of, and leirne your bairns to saw and teill ;
Sic doings chaist away the Commounweill.
All thir foifalts that I haue done reheirs,
That Lords, Lairds, Ladys & Lawers dois exerce,

Kirk, Burges, Merchand Cōmouns Crafts and all,
 Hes haill the wyte of this my wofull fall.
 Amend heirfoir, and call to God for Grace,
 Beseiking him to gif vs rest and peace
 In our lyfe tyme, that we may trewly knaw
 Ane God Eterne, ane Faith, ane King, ane Law ;
 And at the last to bring vs to his gloir,
 To Ring with him in blys for euer moir. Amen.

The Conclusioun be P. R. to all and Sum.

¶ All that this reids, the mater sad will think ;
 Sum that this heiris, I wait, will discommend it ;
 Thocht all and sum heir at partly do schrink,
 Zit sory I that thay suld be offendit ;
 Heirfoir, I wald that this wer blythlie endit.
 For to mak all or sum lauch at the last,
 Than all and sum sall heir, in tyme bypast,
 Quhen Fornicatioun haldin was na cryme,
 How that sum Prelats did walk, pray and fast,
 And serue in Kirk according to that tyme.

¶ A Prelat ane day in his bed, to sport him,
 Did clap his lufe with kissis soft and sweit ;
 In this meane tyme, thair was, to recomfort him,
 Peirtryks and pleuers piping on the speit.
 Than vp he rais, and maid him for thame meit,
 With gude quhyte wyne and all the partinence.
 Quhen he had tane this on his Conscience,
 He gaif ane greit pech, lyke ane weill fed stirk,
 Och Lord, (quod he), now gif me patience ;
 Quhat stres thoill we to serue thy haly Kirk ?

 OW Katherine de Medicis hes maid sic a gyis,
To tary in Paris the papistes ar tykit,
At Bastianes brydell howbeit scho denyis,
Giue Mary slew Hary, it was not vnlykit ;
Zit a man is nane respectand this number,
I dar not say wemen hes wyte of this cummer.

Zone mask the Quene Mother hes maid thame in France,
Was maikles and saikles, and schamfully slane,
Bot Mary conuoyit and come with ane dance,
Quhill princes in sences was fyrit with ane trane ;
Baith tressonabill murtheris the ane and the vther,
I go not in masking mair with the Quene Mother.

¶ Italianes ar tyranis, and tressonabill tratoris ;
For gysours, deuysours, the Guysianis ar gude ;
Bot Frenche men ar trew men, and not of thair natouris ;
Than, Charlie, I farlie thow drank thy awin blude,
I wyte bot thy mother wit, wemen ar vane,
I greis neir to Ganzelon, nor grit Charlie Mane.

¶ Thy style was Treschristien, maist Cristen King,
 Baith hiest and friest, and neist the impyre ;
 Bot now Prouest Marschell in playing this spring,
 And ressoun for tressoun prouokis God to ire ;
 Beleuis thou this trumprie soll stablische thy style ?
 Our God is not deed, zit be doand an quhyle.

¶ Suppois that the Papistes deuysit this at Trent,
 To ding vs and bring vs with mony lowd lauchter,
 With sic cruell murther is Christ sa content,
 To take the and make the ane Sanct for our slaunchter ?
 Albeit he correct vs, and scourge vs in ire,
 Be war with the wand syne he wapis in the fyre.

¶ For better is pure men nor princes periurit,
 Baith schameles and fameles, we find thame sa fals ;
 With sangis lyke the seryne our lyfis thou allurit ;
 Ouiryslit vs, begylit vs, with baitis in our hals ;
 Or as the fals fowler, his fang for to get,
 Deuoiris the pure volatill he wylis to the net.

¶ In Ilis nor in Orknay, in Ireland Oneill,
 Thay dar not, thay gar not thair lieges be stickit :
 Solyman, Tamerlan, nor yit the mekle Deill,
 Proud Pharao, nor Nero, was neuer sa wicket ;
 Nouther Turk nor Infidell vsis sic thing,
 As be their awin surreo, being ane king.

¶ Baith auld men and wemen, with babis on thair breist,
 Not Iuking nor huking, to hurll thame in Sane,
 All beand murdreist downe, quhat do ze neist ?
 Processioun, confession, and vp Mes agane ;
 Proud King Antiochus was sum tyme als haly,
 And yet our God guschit out the guttis of his belly.

Thy syster thou maryit, thy saces was sour,
 Sic cuikrie for luikrie was euill interprisit ;
 Ze maid vs the Reid Freiris, and rais in an hour,

Abhorring na gorring that nicht be deuisit;
 Thou playit the fals hypocreit fenzeing the fray,
 But inward ane rageing wolf waitand thy pray.

That France was confidderat with Scotland I grant,
 Baith actit, contractit and keipit in deid;
 The kyndnes of cutthrottis we cure not to want,
 Denyis thame, defyis thame, and al thair fals seid;
 It was bot with honest men we maid the band,
 And thou hes left leifand bot few in that land.

Our faith is not warldly, we feir not thy braulis,
 Thocht hangmen ouirgang men, for gaddaring ourgeir;
 Ze kill bot the carcase, ze get not our saulis,
 Not douting our shouting is hard in Goddis eir;
 The same God from Pharo defendit his pepill,
 And not zone round Robene that standis in zour stepill.

¶ Now, wyse Quene Elizabeth, luik to yourself,
 Despite them, and wryte thame ane bill of defyance;
 The Papistis and Spanzards hes partit zour pelf,
 As newly and trewly was tald me thir tythance;
 Beleue thay to land heir, and get vs for nocht,
 Will ze do as we do, it sal be deir bocht.

Giue pleis God we gre sa, and hald vs togidder, Baith surely and sturely, and stoutly gainstand thame;
 They culd not weill conqueis vs, culd ze consider,
 For ourmen are dourmen, and likis weill to land thame;
 Quhen Cesar himself was chaist, haue ze forzet,
 And baith the realmes be aggreit, tak that thay get.

¶ For better it is to fecht it, defendant our lyfis,
 With speir men and weir men, and ventour our sellis,
 Nor for to se Frenchemen deflorand our wylfis,
 Displace vs, and chace vs, as thay haue done ellis;
 I meane quhen the Inglismen helpit at Leith,
 And gart thame gang hame agane spyte of thair teith.

¶ I cannot trow firmly that Frenchmen ar cummen, Persayfand thame haifand thameselfis into parrell ;
 The Lord sauie Elizabeth, thair ane gude woman,
 That cauldly and bauldly debait will our quarrell
 With men and with money, baith armour and graith,
 As scho hes befoir tyme defendit this Faith.

Thocht France for thair falset be drownit in dangeris,
 For causis and pausis thay plait into Pareis,
 Zit we ar in war estait, waitand on strangeris,
 Not gyding, deuyding our awin men from Mareis ;
 So weid the calf from the corn, calk me thair dures,
 And slay or ze be slane, gif sic thing occures.

Bot how can ze traist thame that trumpit zow ellis,
 Decoir thame, do for thame, or foster thair seid ;
 And thay may anis se thair time, tent to zoursellis,
 Baith haitfull, dissaitfull, ze deill with in deid ;
 Anis wod and ay the war, wit quhat ze do,
 And mak thame fast in the ruit gif thay cum to.

¶ God blis zow, my brether, and biddis zow god nicht
 Obey God, go say God, with prayer and fasting,
 Christ keip this pure ile of ouris in the auld richt,
 Defend vs and send vs the life euerlasting ;
 The Lord send vs quyetnes; and keip our zoun king,
 The Quene of Inglands Maiestie, and lang mot thai ring.

¶ Finis, quod Simpell.

XXXIII.—¶ The Sege of the Castel of Edinburgh.

[BRITISH MUSEUM, LONDON.—A FACSIMILE REPRINT IN BLACK LETTER with a Prefatory Notice by David Constable, Advocate, Edinburgh. Sm. 4to, (TWENTY-FIVE COPIES PRINTED), London, 1813.—Scotish Poems of the Sixteenth Century, Collected by John Graham Dalyell, Edinburgh, 1801.]

USCHMET of Beruik mak zow for the gait
To ring zour drūmis & rank zour mē of weir
Addres zour armour boūd zow for debait
With sound of trūpet mak zour steids to steir

Sen ze are freikes that weil dar fecht but feir.

As for exampill we haue sene zow ellis,
Lyk as the last tym that zour Camp come heir
Lend vs ane bourrouig of zour auld blak bellis.

Zour camp conuoyit but cūmer throw the land
In gude array and rewlit by thair rank.

Reddiē to pas as plesit us command,
Throw all our bounds to the west sey bank.
Thocht sum mē say ze serue bot lytill thank Suppose occatioun cum first of thame sellis,
As thay haue brouin y^t bargane sa thay drank
And rewis y^e tyme y^t euer thay saw zour bellis.

I will repeit na poleceis put doun,
Sen plesit God that we aggrie to giddir.
Except thay crak thair credence to tho Croū.
Than fair weil thay the find resseue the fidder
God sauē hir G. that will our cause considder
And as I dout not will ourdryue thir dangeris
As scho befoir tyme send hir forces hidder
To keip yis coūtrie cline fra forrane strāgeris.

To call to mynd hir mony fauld gude dedis,
First scho reformit the fals Idolatrie,
I am in dout in ony realme quha redis.
Of sa lang tyme with sic tranquillitie,
Sic faithful justice with ciuillitie.
Sic frendschip keipit to hir fais sa lang.

Scotland may say for oure utilitie.
That neuer ane bettir prince in Inglād rang.

That beand done scho did conferme a pace,
And maid thā freindis yt lāg tyme had bene fois
With stancheīg bludesched wes not eith to ceice
That men may pas not sperand quhair he gois
Syne at the sege of Leith scho sparit ane pois
And dang the frenchmē quhilk we docht not do
Quhill hame thay past in spyt of all thair nois
With lose of men and left munitiou to.

Quhat young hes langage to declair at lenth
Thair greit artalzerie nor thair men of weir.
France wes not able to withstand thair strenth
For powder, and bullet, bowis, and uther geir
Quhat chargis wes hir schipis at, may I speir, Surmonting fiftie hunder thowsand frankis,
And zit for all the graith hir grace send heir,
Ingraitfull people gauē hir lytill thankis.

Our Regent slane syne as I said befoir
Stryfe and contentioun rais in to the land.
Treasoun, inuy, did uertue sa deuoir,
Quhill all wes done as murthour did cōmand.
Wes nan sa stout durst tak the steir on hand
Sa has the cause bene quat wer not for shame.
Quhil we sic frendschip furth of Ingland fand
Thay send ane army heir with Leuenox hame.

Conuoyt with Drurie duchtelie in deid.
And as I hoip mair haist wes neuer done.
To Glasgw past with mony trapit steid
Thair skalit the sege releuit the castell sone.
Doun to Dunbartane on the morne at none,
He raid bot few not fering thame agane him.
Zit of that parrell I prayse the Lord abone,
He chapit weil fra uillanis wald haue slane him.

That panefull progres I think ill to tell,
 Sen thay ar bowit and bruderit in our band,
 Bot at this present tyme exem zour sell,
 Quhat comfort hes thair Quene send to this land.
 Is not the cannone cum at zour cōmand,
 Strecht to distroy the tratouris wald ouir gang us
 Commonis may crye lang mot that frendschip stand
 And blis hir banis sic blythnes brought amang us.

At Leith thay landit harmeles in the Heuin,
 With powder and bullet gunne and uther geir,
 Drest all thair platfurmes into dayis seuin,
 Not laiking na thing that belangit to weir.
 Sum workmen had we or the camp come heir,
 Jacques Gelliam gangand lyke ane besy be.
 The gabiounes makand haist the trinschis neir, Quha mycht do mair but ordinance nor we.

The walis wes heith we culd not weil persew thame
 Bot quhen we gat thame doun full deir thay bocht it
 Be syde the woll at syndrie tymes we slew thame,
 That euer thay saw us some of thame forthocht it
 And poysenit woll to drink quhat docht it.
 Infekit watter sowlit thame cheik and chin,
 Persauing that sorrow mair thay socht it.
 Bot keppit standfulis at the sklatis thair in.

The castell segit and all beset about,
 With sowseyis wyde inueronit be flycht.
 Montanis and myndis leit neuer man luik out,
 For ordinance thay dang at day and nycht.
 By weirlyk uolyis thocht the walis wes wycht,
 Zit dowbell battrie brak thame all in inschis,
 Of Daueis toure in all the toune menis sycht,
 Thay riggein stanes come tumland ouir the trinschis.

The uehement schot zeid in at ather syde
 By threttie Cannonis plasit at partis seuin.

Quhill thay thair in mycht not thair heidis hyde,
 For Pot Gun pellettis falland from the heuin,
 The Bumbard stanis derectlie fell sa euin.
 That in to dykis by dint it deidly dang thame,
 Quhil all the houssis in the place was reuin.
 The bullatis brak sa in to bladis amang them.

Continewand this ane dosand of dayis or mair,
 Quhill tyme apointit neuer man durst steir.
 The larum rang the Regent self wes thair,
 My Lord Ambassat to stuid uerry neir.
 The manlie Generall lyke the god of weir,
 Not usit to sleip quhen sic thingis ar a do,
 Our Cronall als quha is ane freik bot feir,
 With all his Capitanes reddie to ga to.

Schir Harie Leis wes present at that charge,
 My Lord Burlayis sone to stuid besyde.
 Cottoun and Dyar saw the sowt at large
 And Schir George Carie to the knauis he cryde, Zit Hume and Crafurde to the laue wes gyde,
 With certane Soiouris of the garysoun.
 Four Capitanis followit at thair bak to byde, Sempill and Hectour Ramsay and Robesoun.

Bot Hume wes first that ouir the walis wan,
 As I heir say I wes not thair my sell.
 The Generall sayis he playit the uailzeant man,
 With prayssis mo nor I intend to tell.
 Thocht Crafurdis ledder wes to schort an ell,
 Zit ouir the walis he wan I wat not how.
 Dunbartan to quhen sic lyke fortoun fell,
 Thir wes the men that wan it I tell zow.

The Generallis band come bauldlie at thair bak, Schir Frances Russall with ane gudlie grace.
 Zarlie and Crintoun nather of thame wes slak,
 Twa uther Careis, Knowis, and Capitane Kace.

Than wes persewand at ane uther place,
 Breikwell, and Lammy, Mechell & Capitan Game,
 Bauld Capitane Reid, that euir held to his face.
 Pickman, and Wood, did uailzeantly the same.

Spreill, Spadyn, Traill, Hutsoun, and all the laue, Bartoun and Stirlie, Capitan Duberie slane.
 Thoise at the bak wall wes the brasche thay gaue,
 For lake of lederis thair thay wrocht in uane.
 The men within maid sic defence agane
 Thay schot gude Manfrild in athort the throat.
 Quhill force did fail and than I saw thame fane.
 To cry Peccau with the waithman noit.

Halyburton Strauchan with thair standarts stuid
 Seirburne & Schaftoun hes followit on thame fast.
 Aueris and Barrat baith wer men of gude, Gresseone and Hanis wes laith for to be last,
 Crippis and Cantrell to the parrell past.
 Auld Capitā Leirmount with ane luik to bang thame Gude M. Setoun maid thair grumis agast,
 He gart the Cannones ga sa thik amang thame.

Out gais the Hergbut in the Cannon glydis,
 Brak al in bladdis thay docht not weil abyde thame.
 Trottar and fiftie fell and loste the bydis.
 The laue sa fleit thay wist not quheir to byde thame
 Dismontit cannone slew the men besyde thame.
 The Suddartis swarfit and said thay wald not sar
 The house wes gude had thay had grace to gyde thame
 Quhen all wes done we had not bene the war

Let na man lipin in to warldlie strenth,
 Bot Godlie ground thay may na thing induir.
 Tratouris and treason sal be tryit at lenth.
 Quhen men wald fanest all thair uices smuir
 Sa Grange beleuit the Madin Castelliuir.
 Haueand sic forssis to defend his touris.

Bot Mell with Madenis quhen thay play the huir,
Win anis the entrie and than the house is zouris.

The Madene Castell it wes callit long,
With honour ay that nobill style it buir,
With wemenis will ze do thame lytill wrong,
To iaip thame sa I think it na iniuir,
Na mair our Madene Castell playit the huir,
Bot tuik appointmēt quhen thair wes na parel
Smaikis had the wyte I say the hous wes suir,
Had thay bene graticous with ane Godlie quarel.

Thay micht not byde it for the greit munitioune,
Bot drew in factiones quhan the larum rang.
Sum thocht it gude to cum and seik remissioune
And sum said best the Secreter to hang.
To his ilusiones we beleuit ouir lang.
Ane crukit Ethnik and ane crewall Tod,
Inuentand wichecraft ay deuysand wrang.
Lat nan geue credence to ane drytand God.

Then Grang grew sleyit & wald na mair defēd it
For want of watter with ane poysonit well,
His men wes slane and mekle powder spendit
And wantit force to fill the wallis that fell Thair febill smaikrie I think ill to tell
With luik lyke Lyounes and sa lytill done.
Fy drūkin dastartis ze haue schamit zoursell
That said sa weill and syne gaue our sa sone.

Durīg this pointmēt thair wes change of graith
Sū gat ane butiene for thair being thair
Gien wes the credence giuen to suddartis faith
Baith gold and siluer and of Marchand wair
Ane tho tuik to ane . . . skaith*
Be thair expenssis for thair cuming hidder.

* This Line is much obliterated in the Original.

Than on the morns thay maid the pluk up late
Baith Scottis & Inglis syne all zeid togidder.

Upon that spuilze I will spend na tyme,
Thay socht na tailezours for to bule thair breikis
The suddartis luiffis wes sa ouirlaid wt lyme
Sum gripit gold and gat the thing he seikis,
Sū stude beside and gat not worth twa leikis,
As I heir say I wes not thair to se.
Sū gat thair handfull of thir halfmark steikis
Will haue na mair within ane zeir nor we.

Thay schot na keyis to brek the coffiris than,
Ane day of blythnes for the men of weir.
Sum stuid besyde ane wondderous forte man
Ane duilfull day for thame that loist thair geir.
First saw it tane and syne thay durst not steer :
Thair wes compleit the prophecie of Knox,
Doun fra that Crage Kircaldy sall reteir,
With schame and sclāder lyke ane hundit fox.

With gild of pepile sa thay brocht thame doun,
As birdis but plumis spulizeit of the nest.
Part cryde quhair is he lat us se the loun,
Go to and staen him lat him tak na rest.
Quhē thay y^t buir him saw thame selfis opprest,
Thay cryit for succour for to sauē thair lyuis
The Generallis lugeing thair thay thocht it best
Thay led him in thay war sa red for wyuis.

The Regent then gart mak ane inhibitioun
To leue the spuilze under pane of deid
He carit for thing bot the Kingis munitioun,
As for the leue thair wes bot lytill leid.
To tak the hous thair wes na mair remeid,
With all the faultis mycht follow he wes fane.
Againis ane Haiknay I sall wed my heid
Grange beis not Capitan of that Craig agane.

With this the Generall wes reterit a bak,
 Went doun to Leith quhair he had bene befoir,
 Speik as ze pleis it wes ane uailzeant ak,
 And Drurie deulie did his full deuoir.
 God gatand thākis the Quene suld haue y^e gloir
 We thank hir Majeste as the mater standis
 God sauē hir grace hes scho not gart restoir
 Zone captiue rebellis in the Regentis handis.

By expectatioun of the commoun speiking,
 Wes it not thocht that Ingland suld begyle us
 And sum allegit it wes the Regents seiking
 To sell the King and sa thay wald ouirsyle us.
 Creip in our stronthis and suddanelie exyle us
 O Rural pepill rusticall and rude.
 We ar the men that all the warld dois style us,
 Remembryng ill and gaue na thankis for gude.

Ingratiuous pepill ignorant and uane,
 Quhy do ze noit zour nychtboris ay with ill.
 Wer thay not blyith for to get hame agane, Thocht sum beleuit thay wald haue tareit still
 To do zow plesdir thay haue schauin gude will Baith spent thair lyues & largelie of thair geir
 Alace my Joyis ze had bot lytill skill
 That trowit that Inglād wald haue tareit heir.

Quhat danger wes to bring sa greit munitioun,
 In forane landis with sic ane force indeid,
 The only caus wes to auoyid suspicioun,
 That men suld say thay come not heir for greid.
 Thocht sum thair be of cankreit Cain seid,
 Sawaris of discorde dois na uther thing.
 Speik as thay pleis schame fal thair lippis y^t leid
 Thay mene na thing bot to mantane the king.

Haif thay not thre tymes in this threttene zeir,
 Ay quhen we socht thāe send thair forces hedder

Baitht Schippis & Gūnis & martial mē of weir
 To win our kyndnes geue we culd considdir.
 And now the last tyme quhen we send to bid her
 Hes scho not helpit to holk out zone Tod,
 Lang moit thir countreis leue in pace to gidder
 And grow in freindschip to the feir of God.

The Lenuoy to the Regent.

O richteous Regent of ane Royall race,
 Tratours may trimbill to behald thy face,
 Fering thy furie for thair foul offencis,
 Geue gloir to God that hes the geuen sic grace.
 Riches with reasoun for to reuill that place.
 Thow beand plantit in the sait of Prencis,
 Geue thou wald prosper in thy iust pretences,
 Beir equall ballancis baith to riche and puir
 That beand done lang mot thy dayis induir.

Sen God hes wrocht it I am weill content
 To mak of the that onlie instrument.
 To caus this countrie for to knaw the king:
 It wes the leuing Lord Omnipotent,
 That maid the Barrones sa obedient,
 And not the force that thow to send may bring.
 Did neuer Regent in this Realme sic thing.
 Considdering alwayis as the mater stude,
 And maid sic greance with sa lytill blude.

To speik of Regentis we haue had sic thre
 Sen God wes borne thair na bettir be.
 For wisdome, manheid, and for Godlynes, Quhairfore hes God now laid this charge on the Bot lat us ken that it is onlie he.
 That rewlis the Realme & not thy richteousnes
 Remember Ahab for his febilnes.
 Quha gart king Benhadab in scherat go,
 Quhilk wes his wrak be war ze do not so.

Quhairfor put God the powar in zour hand ?
 To puneis lounes that hes ourlaid this land.
 By murthour, treasoun, done fra zeir to zeir.
 Geue ze obey not brekand that command,
 I am in dout geue zour estait sall stand.
 But sone be rutit fra this Realme I feir,
 Spair neuer Agag for na brybe of geir.
 Quhat come of Saull with his face Ocin thair
 Ga Reid the Bybill it will sone declair.

To seik exempillis of that samin tone,
 My Lord of Murray wes degradit sone,
 For not fulfiling of the Lordis desyre.
 First God promouit him in the place abone
 Bot fra he saw that Justice wes not done.
 He leit the wickit cast the wand in fyre,
 Be war sic materis moue not God to yre.
 Geue ze be myndit on this mold remaine,
 And plesit God I wald not change agane.

Lanuoy to the Ambassade.

My Lord Ambassade I haue lang forzet,
 Quhairfor indeid I haue not done my det.
 And be sa cairfull for oure countrie men,
 For wit and wisdome worthie to be tret.
 In baith the landis thair is bot few to get.
 That wrocht sa Godlie in this muse ze ken.
 My dull indyte can not direct my pen,
 And thocht I culd it wald contene ane buik,
 To put in paper all the panis he tuk.

He is not borne of better qualytie,
 Of quiet speiche with greit moralytie.
 Swering nor bairdrie may he nan abyde
 Detestand pryd and prodigalitie.
 As equall Juge but persealytie.

For feid or fauour unto ather syde.
 Abone all uices subject leist to pryde,
 Ferme in his faith and full of Godlynes,
 With marciall hart myrrenes,

Weill micht the counsals beir ane gude euend [cōmend ?]
 That sic Ambassade into Scotland send.
 To speik uprichtlie and the treuth declair,
 For na expensis did he spair to spend,
 Quhill pece wes brocht into ane final end.
 Quhar as he fand us at the pluckup fair.
 With walkryfe labour and expensis sair,
 God knawis in Scotland quhat he had ado,
 With baith the sydis or he culd bring us to.

In winter weddiris baith in wind and rane,
 Sum tyme with seiknes sa ourset with pane.
 He raid throw montanes many mose and myre
 In frost and snaw quhen all the folkis are fane,
 With double bonatris for to hap thair brane.
 Then wes he worssand our ane wondie swyre,
 Sum tymes at nycht syne not to se ane fyre
 Ar we addettit to sa trew ane strangear,
 That for our proffeit put him sell in danger.

As Caleb send wes for to se the land,
 The gydis that come gart Moyses understand
 The land wes feirfull and the pepill strang,
 Because he knew it wes the Lordis cōmand.
 He wald not stay bot stoutlie tuik on hand,
 Richt unabasitlie all that gait to gang.
 Ourthrow thair castellis & thair gyantis dang,
 Brocht thāe to miserie maid ane mynt to wrāg us
 He wes y^t Caleb sen he come amang us.

I dar be bald to say this hundredth zeir.
 He wes not stangear borne mair welcum heir
 Nor plesit the Preichours half se weill as he,

On pure nor riche he neuer sparit his geir,
 And geue ane Suddart had bene schot in weir
 He somzeit not to ga him self and se.
 Quha with this countrie culd sa weill agrie.
 To play the wise mā quhen he wes with Lordis
 Syne help the puiranis as the cause recordis.

Soureasoun wald that ze returne a bak
 We thank zow hartlie of the Godlie ak.
 Ze wrocht amang vs for to saif our blude,
 I zow beseik thir sempill wersis tak.
 With als gude will as ony man can mak
 Because ze knew my cunning is not gude.
 Ze man excuse my rurall rymis rude,
 God saif our King and send him lytill a do,
 The Quene of Ingland and hir Counsall to.

XXXIV.—Ane Complaint vpon Fortoun.

[GEORGE DANIEL's Collection, now in the possession of HENRY HUTH Esq., 30 Princes' Gate, London.—THE PHILOBIBLON SOCIETY :—Ancient Ballads and Broadsides, published in England in the Sixteenth Century, chiefly in the earlier years of the reign of Queen Elizabeth. Reprinted from the Unique Original Copies, mostly in Black-letter, preserved in the Library of HENRY HUTH, Esq., London. Printed by Whittingham and Wilkins 1867.—A COLLECTION OF SEVENTY-NINE BLACK-LETTER BALLADS AND BROADSIDES, printed in the Reign of Queen Elizabeth, between the years 1559 and 1597. Published by Joseph Lilly, London 1867.]

NCONSTANT warld, fragill and friuolus,
 With feinzeit Fortoun, quha confides in the Sall find his lyfe cairfull and cruellus,
 Led in this vale of wofull miserie ;
 Quhat potent princes in prosperitie,
 Hes sho deposd from their imperiall places !
 Hir craft quotidian we may cleirly se,
 As men in mirrouris may behauld their faces.

The worthie Bocas, in his morall buke,
 The Fall of Princes plainly dois compyle ;
 Amangs them all quha euer lykes to luke,
 Sall finde Dame Fortounis fauour for a quhyle ;
 For with the one eye sho can lauch and smyle,
 And with the vther lurke and play the loun ;
 Sum to promotioun, and some to plaine exile,
 Lyke draw-well bukkets dowkand vp and doun.

¶ That variable witch makis all the warld ado !
 Quhat kingis and countreis hes sho brocht to end !
 Assyrians, Persians, Grekes, and Romans to,
 The monarches fourre micht not hir force defend.

Bulworkis nor battellis bydis her nocht a bend ;
 Quha may withstand her straik, quhan sho list stryke ?

This nicht aneuch, the morne nathing to spend !
 Imago in Luna, and sho lukis baith alyke.

To pen the speciallis it passis mony a hunder,
 And makis the tyme ouer tidious to declare ;
 Sum sho promouis and sum sho puttis to vnder,
 And sum rewardes with wandring heir and thair ;
 And sum incastrat captiues in the snair,
 And sum for flatrie dois hir freindship find ;
 To all estates vntruethfull, quhat sould mair,
 Turnand her volt lyke woddercok in wind ?

To paint her out it passis mine ingyne,
 How wonderfully she wirkes in all thir thingis !
 Sum fra thair birth brocht vp with doggis and swine,
 Tane fra the pleuch and placit in sait of kingis.
 The brutell beist ane barbour wolfe vpbringis
 The first borne Romain callit Romulus,
 Quhais blude as zit into that regioun ringis,
 By expectatioun of auld Amelius.

Cyrus siclyke was be ane bitche vpbrocht,
 Cround as a king ane cruell man of weir.
 Pareis in Troy that all the toun forthocht,
 Preseruit from slauchter be souking of a beir.
 And swa was Thylaphus with ane hinde, I heir,
 Medas with imates and maid ane michtie prince ;
 Plato with beis quha did sic prudence leir,
 That all men meruelled of his eloquence.

Without respect to blude royall or clan,
 Pureanis promouit that na man wald presume ;
 Torquinius Priscus, a baneist marchant man,
 Chaist out of Corinth and cround a king in Rome.
 Siclyke was Seruis from ane shipherd grome,
 And Tullus Hostilius fand her fauour neist ;

Is, was, and salbe quhill the day of dome,
Sic doubill dealing in Dame Fortounis breist !

Quha findis hir freindship of fauour hes aneuch,
To warldly glore sho gydes them all the gait ;
Tuke sho not Gordias from the spaid and pleuch,
And quickly placit him in a princes sait ?
How far may Darius bragge of her debait,
Tane fra the stabil ouer Persia to ring ;
Pure Agathocles from a law estait,
Ane porteris boy to be ane potent King ?

Of Justine the suinehird sho maid ane empriour,
Ouer Constantinople ane king and cround him thair ;
Gyges the gait-hird ane michtie conquerour,
To Lydia land she maid him lord and aire ;
And Wallancianus from his landwart fair,
Tane fra the pleuch to place imperiall ;
Cambyses, Nero, be the contrair clair,
Was thair awin burreois to thair buriall.

Sa Fortoun mountit neuer man sa hie,
Fostered with folie, suppose she make them faine ;
Bot with ane tit sho turnis the quheill, ze sie,
Doun gois their heid, vp gois their heillis againe !
Of Alexander to write I war bot vaine,
Ouer fifty landis he lord was at the leist ;
Zit threttie dayis lay efter he was slaine,
Unbureit in Babell lyke a brutell beist.

Xerxes, quhose armeis maid the riuveris dry,
And schippis subumbragit all the seyis on breid,
Did sho not wait him with sic foule inuy,
Pray to Pericles, that put him to his speid ?
Of Julius Cesar gif thou lykes to reid,
In his triumphant toun victorious,
Slaine be his Senatis, schamefully in deid,
By his awin kinsmen Brutus and Cassus

Sum auld exemples heir I man induce,
 To bring my purpose to more speciall ;
 Quha was mair worthie gif I wald make ruse,
 More stout, more trew, nor hardy Hanniball?
 Dauter of Romaines, to Carthage ane castell wall,
 The onely thing quhairin he maist reioysit ;
 Do quhar he docht in deidis marciall,
 By his awin pepill petiously deposid.

Sicklyk was Sipio, saiklesly schot furth,
 That vinqueist Hanniball lyke a warriour wicht,
 His vailiant workes was weyit bot litils worth,
 Quhen he was baneist with a bair gude nicht ;
 Not lyke a captaine, nor a kindly knicht,
 Bot lyke ane beggar baneist in exile ;
 Sa Fortoun montit neuer man on hicht,
 Bot sho can law him within a litill quhyle.

Alchebead of Athenis was Duke,
 Of princely parents and ane royall race,
 To keip his toun sic trauell undertuke,
 He maid his fo-men fle befoir his face ;
 To his rewarde he gat nane vther grace,
 Ingraity baneist to their awin grit skaith :
 And Tymistocles in that samin place,
 By their awin burgessis thay wer baneist baith.

Experience teiches me not to flyte with Fortoun,
 With auld examples that dois na thing belang vs ;
 Marke James of Dowglas present Erle of Morton,
 And of the best that euer was borne amang vs ;
 Danter of theuis that dayly dois ouer-gang vs,
 Key of this countrie that kepit vs from skaith ;
 I speik na farther in feir thay sould gar hang vs,
 Preichouris and poiettis are put to silence baith.

Few things wer done bot Mortoun interprisit them,
 Dumbar and Brichane and mony vthair bloke ;

Speik quhat thay pleis, he wrocht them and deuisit them;
 He and his freindis ay formest in the flocke ;
 He faucht zour querrell as kein as ony cok,
 Reuengit zour murthers ma nor twa or thrie ;
 Ane nobillman and of ane ancient stoke,
 His valiant deidis demereitis not to die.

¶ Ane of the speciallis did mentene zour croun,
 Zour ferme protectour in zour tender zeiris ;
 He maid zow vp and all zour fo-men doun,
 His marciall manheid did mentein zour weiris ;
 Gif he did wrang, rewarde him as effeiris.
 Gif he did gud, God wald he sould be tret ;
 Bot as the prouerbe speikis, it plaine appeiris,
 Auld men will die and barnes will sone forzet.

Was he not rewler ouer zour realme and rigioun
 Quhill all was pacifeit be his prudent wit ?
 Stude he not stoutly be the true religioun,
 Ane of the first that maid the freiris to flit ?
 Franke on the feildis, and formest at the bit,
 Without respect to baggis or bodie to ;
 Zour faithfull subiect, and sua he sal be zit,
 To do gude seruice, as I haue seene him do.

Than at Carbarrie hill he held a day,
 With litill bludeshed Bothwell was put a-bake,
 Quha slew zour father and fibilly fled away,
 Syne socht zourselfe to bring this realme to sake.
 How mony clawbackes than suppose thay crak, Conuenit with Mortoun quhan Bothwel tuk the chase ?
 Try or ze tine him and trow not all thay spak, Lat workes beir witnes, vaine wordes sould have na place.

Sone after that the Counsell crouned zoursell,
 Quhan godly Murray as a regent rang,

Zit thair was some that bauldly did rebell,
 That to zour lawis wald nouther ryde nor gang.
 Quha thair conuenit for to reuenge zour wrang,
 Albeit zour action was thocht innocent?
 It was the Dowglasses douchtaly them dang,
 And pleit zour proces in that parliament.

Quha could declare our langsum lyfe in Leith.
 Fechtand all day and syne lay in our clais?
 Gif Lindesay lykes, that Lord can tell zow eith;
 Quha was zour friendis or quha zour mortall fairs,
 Or quha gaid formest breistand vp the braies.
 I dar not pen the speciallis, I do plaine zow;
 Bot weill I wait, howeuer the warld now gais, Thai find maist freindship was fardest than again
 zow.

Syne at Langsyde feild zour grace may ken,
 Mortoun was thair ane man among the rest;
 In Striuling toun, out of his dowie den,
 Maist lyke a fox thay fyrit him in his nest.
 In Edinburgh Castell quhair thay war possest,
 He them desplaced that purposit to undo zow.
 Quhan ze grow auld, I wait ze will confess,
 Mortoun hes bene ane faithfull saruand to zow.

Quhan Regentis deit and all the lytes inlaikit,
 The Counsell did conuene and set ane day;
 Thay cheisit him Regent in that rowme that waikit,
 With sad advise, for few or nane said nay;
 Bot zit I think thay playit zour grace foule play,
 Gif he was knawin than of thir crymes conuict,
 Gif he be saikles, surely I dar say,
 Thay haue defamit him with ane fulich trick.

To dant the theuis had he nocht mekill ado,
 Abandoned the borders that na man durst rebell?
 The Armestrangis, Eluottis and the Johnestons to,

With twentie vther clans I can not tell,—
 During his dayis thai durst not ryde ane ell ;
 The hirdis and hinde men in their labeis lay ;
 Bot thair estait, as now ze sie zoursell,
 All nicht to walke and fane to wirk all day.

Aganis grit lordis committing small offence,
 With iniust challenge thay aucht na man to chessoun ;
 Mortoun hes ay bene vpricht with his prince,
 But spot of cryme or ony point of tressoun.
 Albeit gude saruice be not tane in seasoun,
 His workes may witnes he neuer sparit for perrell ;
 Laityl accusit but outhir ryme or ressoun,
 As sindrie schawis me for a saikles querrell.

Daft fulis defyis him because thay finde him sage,
 And cowartis contrarious for his hardiment ;
 Young men for glaikrie can not agrie with age,
 And waisteris inuyis him for his gouernement.
 And sacreit counsell can not be content
 To suffer lordshippis in equalitie ;
 Zit I beseik zour grace of gude intent,
 To play the prince but parcialitie.

Adwise zow weil, sen he hes not offendit ;
 To keip sic senattis it sall decore zour land ;
 Of rasche detreitis cums rew and may not mend it,
 As Scottismens wisdome dois behinde the hand.
 Wyse lordis are ill ta make I vnderstand,
 And trewly in kingis is to abhorre ;
 This sempill counsall, syr, is na command,
 Bot wald to God that na man louit zow war.

XXXV.—Heir followis the Legend of the Bischop of St Androis Lyfe, callit Mr Patrick Adamson, alias Cousteane.

[Scotish Poems of the Sixteenth Century. Collected by John Graham Dalyell, Edinburgh 1801.—DR DAVID IRVING in his “History of Scottish Poetry, Edinburgh 1861” remarks that “This Poem of Semple is supposed to have been written so late as the year 1583,” and “to have been printed from a Manuscript; but where the Manuscript is to be found, the Editor has not thought proper to inform us.”]

The Preface.

ALL faytful brether that on the Lord dependis, Mark weill this schedule that I have send you heir,
Pestiferus prelatis, that Papistrie pretendis,
Sic deuils but dout sall in or dayis appeir;
Yit God forwairnis you be the weidis they weir,
To ken the lupus in a lamb skyn to appeir,
Makand thair godis of warldlie gudis and geir,
The flock new foundit, and thay in furringis happit.

Veneriall pastoris, in vomiting thair fayt,
Lyk to ane tyke returning to it agane,
Filling thair purses with the spirituall grath,
Plucking the pellottis or ever the scheip be slane:
Goddis true preceptis and preiching to prophane,
Layand thair cuires in warldlie busines.
Thir are the propheitis, I speik it to you plane,
Coverit with coule of clockit holines.

Lyk to the scrybes, closing the yeattis of heawin, Sayand the Pope sic power to thame gave;
Hyding the keyis was treuly to thē gewin,
Thinking yt Christianis shall na entres have,
A scabbit scheip wald fane infect the lave,

Causing sedition into the kirk to ryse.
 Heirfoir, bewar what sermond ye resave ;
 In rottin bosses no balme liquor lyes.

To Bischop Balaam brecking the law of God,
 They may succeid weill as his sone and air ;
 Or Coran, Dathan, reving Aarons rod,
 With thair usurpet priesthood playit no mair.
 To Amasias I may them weill cōpair,
 Sleayand the faytfull flock wtout offences ;
 Tane and incarcerat, keipit heir and there,
 Beggit and banist, bearing the wraith of princes.

In Maccabeis, wha ever lykis to luike,
 By Alchimas and Jason they may leir,
 Mensuorne byschopis that Moses law forsuike,
 Renūcing God for warldlie gudis and geir,
 With Kingis unchristned cūand to the weir,
 Contrair thair cōsciēce and their kyndlie friendis.
 What dois our bischopis now, may I not speir,
 Servandis to Sathan for his takkis and teindis ?

I may cōpair thē to a plunted fyre,
 But heit to warme you in the winteris cauld ;
 Or to a visioun* cled with trym attyre,
 Covering a skyn vncamelie to behald.
 The pleasan plane-trie will the leavis vnfauld,
 With fairest schaddow to save the sone in sýmer.
 Be thir lait bischopis may this teall be tauld,
 Bearand no fruite bot barren blockis of tymber.

Vntruethfull teacheris, in thir tymes bypast,
 Some hes bene sene from yeir to yeir ;
 Bot in this latter aige they flock so fast,
 That I beleive in deid the day be neir.
 Judas Iscariot, for a gleib of geir,
 Betrayed his Maister lyk a trato^r tod.

* Or, visorne.

Annas and Caiphas, gif they both war heir,
Culd do no mair to slea the sanctis of God.

Blind Baals bischopis, provoeking God to yire,
Your sinfull leaving hēs the scheip ouersyled,
Compared to swyne returnig to the myre
In thair awin filthes to get thair fames defyled.
Albeit they be now Tulchin bischopis stylit,
Having proude kingis and counsallis to decorir thē,
Anld God, is God, and will not be begylit,
When Plutois palice beis provydit for them.

May Scotland beir sic bischoppis for the gallous,
St Androis, Glasgow, for yt gait anes grantit,
What have ye lost, forloppen, leying fellowes ?
Fraudulent fellowes, that tuyse there fayt recāted.
The spreit of God was anes into thē planted,
Preiching his doctrine, as indeid they did,
But fra they gan the drapping grise they wald [wanted]
Thair clocket knaverie culd na moir be hid.

Vngratioust gnydis, yt God has never anoynted,
Lyk to our fayfull pastouris past befoir,
But be the devile, I dout not, heir appoyntit,
Godis holie scriptour for to cloik and smoir.
For no rewarde they work but warldlie gloir,
Plaing placebo into princes faces,
With leyis and letteris doing thair devoir,
Pynand true preichouris, for to possess there places.

Voracious woulfis, I wish you to rewolk,
Ere in the den of darknes ye most lye ;
Of Godis true mercies, lyk to mercat focke,
Selling for lucre, quha so lykis to by ;
Libidinous drückardis they dowe not to denye ;
May no man had thē be thair yeis and nayis.
Thir are the propheitis, planelie ze may espye,
The Lord called lyers in the latter dayis.

Thair maister, Pluto, hes there spreitis posses,
 Who with his Lord in lyk contritione fell.
 Thinkand his wit and beautie by the rest,
 Against the word of God he wald rebell.
 Through his presūptous prydē he past to hell,
 Leaving the heavinlie harbrie whair he satt.
 Gif they repent not sone, assure they sall
 Receave sic mercie as thair maister gat.

This Adamsone may weill be borne of Eve,
 Takand his vices of his wicket mother;
 Lykkest to father Adam, I beleive,
 Surpassing Cain cursed, or ony vther:
 For he slew nothing bot his onlie brother;
 And this hes drowned hole dioceis, ye sie.
 Wanting the grace, when he shuld gyde the ruther,
 He lattis his scheip tak in at luife and lie.

Reforme thair faythis, gif they be found astray
 From thair vocatione cleane degenerat;
 Preis not to enter be the wrangous way,
 As bastard brethren, being reprobate;
 With hert cōtreit, and handis elevat,
 Seik thair salvatione of the samyn sort;
 They will not find the father obstinat,
 When synnaris knoxis in casting vp the port.

Heirfore, deir Brétherne, I wish you to bewar;
 Sen ye are wairned, I wald not ye were blekkit;
 To thair deceatfull doctrine come not nar,
 Singand lyk syrens to deceave the elected;
 Both art and part of Papistrie suspectit,
 As ye may see be thair workis inventit.
 To Edinburgh baillies my buike salbe directed,
 Desyrand lycence to get live to prent it.

Ground you on God, the rocke and corner stane,
 As Paull dois speik to the Corinthianis.

Swa live thir lyars, and thair lawis allane ;
 Packand thair penche lyk Epicurianis,
 Contrair to Christ, lyk Antichristianis,
 The plane polluters of his holie tēple ;
 Lyk to Scrybes and fals Pharisianis,
 Bellie god bischopis : Quoth your brother Semple.

A Envoye.

Now, papir, pass ; and gif they speir who send the,
 Tell thame, a true mā bayt to King and Croun.
 Curious poyetis, I knew, will vilipend the,
 Saying, thou fares but of ane saucie lowne.
 Yet with the rascall people up and downe,
 Finding our friendis, cōfess to be myne,
 From the New Castle cūing to this towne :
 Concluding this, we toome a tas of wyne.

The Legend or Discourse of the Lyfe and Conversatione and Qualiteis of the Tulchene Bischope of Sanctandrois. Set furth by R. S.

O all and sundrie be it sene,
 Mark weill this mater quhat I meine,
 The legend of a lymmeris lyfe,
 Our Metropolitan of Fyffe ;
 Ane schismatyke, and gude swyne hogge,
 Come of the tryb Gog Magoge ;
 Ane elphe, ane elvasche incubus,
 Ane lewrand lawrie licherous ;
 Ane fals, forloppen, fenyet freir,
 Ane rāungard for greid of geir,
 Still daylie drinckand or he dyne,
 A wirriare of the gude sweit wyne ;
 Ane baxters sone, ane beggar borne,
 That twyse his surnaime hes mensuorn e
 To be called Cōstene he tho^t schame,
 He tuke vp Cōstantine to name.

Some to the schoolis this knave cōvoyes ;
 Beggand his breid amonges the boyes,
 He come to letters at the lenth ;
 Then when he grew to witt and strenth,
 He tuike the ministrie on hand,
 And servit at Syres vp a land ;
 Bot through presūptious height and pryde,
 He layed that office sone asyde ;
 Manna and quales he thot no fude,
 The pottis of Egypt was tuyse as gude.
 Thinking that poore professione vaine,
 He changed his surname over agane ;
 Now Doctor Adamsone at last.
 Whairthrow he ower to Paris past,
 As pedagoge to young M'Gill,
 Employing ay his spreit to ill.
 To lerne disceat and subtil sawis,
 He studeis long tyme in the lawis ;
 Ilk day devysing sindrie wylis,
 Not ane nor tua that he beguyles :
 Thair was no Scotismā dwellane thair,
 Bot he deceaved them les or mair :
 Maitland, Melwill, and Matchevellous,
 Learnet never mair knaifrie in a scholehous ;
 Which tua resembles, as I suppose,
 Architophell, and fals Triphone :
 Then finding out ane new fas cast,
 Amongis the prentaris is he past,
 And promeist to set foorth a buike.
 Grit sowmes of money from them he tuike ;
 Bot Bacchus, and the bordall toe,
 Maid him sic busines adoe,
 That he myt gett na buikis cōpyld ;
 And sua the prentaris were beguylid.
 Now Holyglass, returnīg hame,
 To play the sophist, thought no schame :
 Through sindrie realmes thot he had ranged,
 Yit nathing in his maneris changed.

Then, heiring tell how Lowrie landit,
The cōgregatiōne him cōmandit
To serve a kirk, and keip a cure ;
Persaying thair professiōne pure,
He thot it but ane vaine vocatiōne.
He thristed, ane easiare occupatione,
Amonges the lawers for to lyve ;
Bot fra that rang not in his sleyve,
He wald with thame no mair remane,
Bot maid him for the court agane.
The erle of Lennox, levand then
Our regent, and a worthie man,
Vnto his brother him directed,
With secreit earrandis vnsuspectit,
For pois to pay his men of weir ;
Bot how, alace, as ye shall heir,
Betrayed thame bayt with a tryme cōvoy.
Makand his bargand with a boy,
Was ower to Flanders fled and ferreit,
Cryand out, harmesay, he was herreat ;
Lamēting sair his lose and skaith ;
And this gait he beguylit thame bayt :
Bot yit with tyme his trickis were tryed,
He had nea young for to denye it.
Than, gif he had not fled for feir,
Gude Matchewell had mist his meir.
To tell how he bestowit his poise,
The faice is weill sene on his noise :
For be his craig ye may weill ken
Gif he be ane of Bacchus men.
Than, whan he had na vther vaine,
He maid him for the kirk againe.
Bot for to tell what test he tuke,
Dysertis Duschet was the buike ;
And maid ane sermone, some confydis,
To plesour fock on bayth the sydis.
His mynd was mair on heich promtione,
Groundit on geir, nor gude devotione ,

Without respect of true religione,
As we have manie in this regione.
Yet in the pulpet we saw him greit,
Playand the publict hypocreit.
Then men, beholding his cōtritione,
Beleavand he had changit cōditione.
Then through to Paislay he was send,
Lascivous maneris for to amend.
What fruite come of his ganging thair ?
Sic preist, sic pariche ; what suld mair ?
For, neather with preaching nor wt reiding,
Tuke he that faythless flock in feiding ;
Bot meit in campo did cōmand them,
And left thē some war nor he fand them.
To tell you quhat this cāpo meins,
Thair daylie to the drinck cōveins
The obstinat papistis of the toun ;
This pastor with his scheip sat doun,
Bot maid no wōrk, I mak yōu plane,
To bring the lost scheip bak agane.
To copowt cōplene there he calld thame,
Bot never findis whair he forbade thame
Thair vglie aithis abhominable.
They finding him so favorable,
They thankat Gōd that they had fūd him.
Ecce quā bonū et quā jucundū
Est habitare fratres in unū.
Freir Johnstoun, and Maquhane about him,
Tua pallartis that the Pope professis,
Rysing at mydnycht to there messis ;
Vidi, scivi, sed non audiebam,
Potum merū cū fletu miscebam ;
Carruse, and hald thē cānikin klynclene,
Yit wha were there to sie thair drinking ?
They hald it still vp for a mocke,
How Maister Patrick feed his flock ;
Then to the Court this craftie lown,
To be a bytescheip maid him boun ;

Becaus St Androis then dependit,
To heich promotione he pretendit.
The kirk began to tak suspitione,
Then knawing weill the knaifis cōditione,
They callit him into thair Assemblie,
Bot not so welcome thair as hamelie.
Greit oethes he sweiris, w^t feinyeit face,
That he suld never inioy that place ;
And bad thame hald him vnsuspect,
He was not gewin to that effect.
Bot bettir packet afternone,
The foullest turne that ever was done,
Ben ower the bar he gave a brocht,
And laid among them sic a locket ;
With eructavit cor meū,
He hosted thair a hude full fra him ;
For laike of rowme, that rubiature
Bespewit vp the moderator ;
While the Assemblie thocht grit schame,
Saying he was seik, and send him hame,
And laid him backwardis in a bed,
But not so weill nurtorit as fed.
Sone efter that, incontinēt,
Earle of Mortoun gat the regimēt ;
Then sett he to, with saill and ayre,
To seik some lowiner harbore thayre,
And caist his anckers on the raid,
And long tyme with the Lord abaid.
His towes, I find, hes bene so fyne,
For all the stormes hes bene sensyne,
His schip come never on the schalde,
But stack still on the ancker halde.
His office daylie was, indeid,
The chapter to expone and reid.
When he that sermone celebrat,
He had a word accustomat ;
The propheit meinis this, gif ye mark it,
Auld Captane Kirkburne to him harkit ;

Perceaving weill St Androis vaikit,
And syne how sone the knave was staikit,
To all men levand he compleinis,
I watt now what the propheit menis.
This foirsaid bischope beand deid,
Maister Johne Wynrame was maid heid,
For sowmes of silwer that he had lent thē;
Bot he besought thame to content thē:
He cravit na digniteis prophane,
But his awin silver hame agane.
Fra Holiglass sone hard this thing,
He toned his dussie for a spring,
And held the Regent so in hand,
And maid him weill to vnderstand
That he sould pay the foir said sowme,
Gif he were enterit in the rowme;
And mair, as he wald bid him doe,
To give his servantis pensiones toe.
Sua, with his craft, this carlingis pett,
Hes fangit ane grit fisch in his nett.
Bot fra he was a byschope stylit,
Mr Johne Wyndrome was begyylit,
Had he not had a sure probatione,
And cald him on his obligacione.
Bot Doctor Patrick still replyed,
With trickis and delatouris he denyed,
And maid manifest to men of law,
That he had his discharge to schaw.
Bot how his discharge was gotten,
When Holieglass is deid and rotten;
His smaikrie sall not be forgett,
How Docto^r Patrick payit his debt.
Ane new cōceat this knaif hes tane;
To Willie Vylie he hes gane,
The Regents awin cubicular,
His servant and his secretare,
And him besought to lat him see
Of missive wrytingis tuo or thrie,

Fra Maister Jhone Wydrome to my Lord,
And hecht him crownes for to accord.
This simple boy, suspecting nocth,
Thrie of the wrytingis to him brought.
Ane of thame law subscryvit, ye ken,
As custom is to noble men :
He cuttit off the bill above [abone]
And filled the blank with falset sone,
Discharging him the foirsaid sowmes.
It cūand in the Sessiones thowmes,
To Maister Wyndrome they cōpleanēt,
Wha swair that he had nevir sene it,
And tuike in hand for to impryve it.
Thair Matchewell had bene mischevit,
Were not his falsett was cōfessit,
And sic a moyen with him dressit,
Five hūdrehth merkis he to him gave,
And tuik in hand to pay the leave.
At certane dayis, thair was na doubt,
Bot fra he fand the tyme ryn out,
He pat him off with mowis and mockis,
And had no will to louse the boxe.
The superintendent saw na better,
Bot raid agane, and raisit a letter,
And gat the harlat to the horne.
Bot Howliglass, lang or the morne,
New falsat forged out for to defend him ;
Ane fair suspentione he hes send him.
The vther to the Sessione pleinyeit,
And said it was both fals and feinyeit,
And socht inspectione for impriving.
The lygger, feiring lyfe and leving.
He saw na bute, but bagis to louse,
And swoir he maid it but in mowis :
As Maister Andro Wilsoune wrocht it,
And secreitlie said he forthoght it ;
Beseikand him to keip it close,
Or word ran to the comon woice.

The vther wald na mair reprise him,
 Bot all men he forbade beleive him,
 Or ever to trow ane wòrd he spak,
 But Holiglass behind thair back.
 So in Sanctandrois happened then,
 Ane callit Scot, a mareit man,
 Nocht verie riche in worldlie guddis :
 Save tua pure aikers of borrow ruddis ;
 Yit with the glaikis he was owerthane,
 And in adulterie he was tane ;
 Maid to be punisit for his paik ;
 But he was stubburne in his talk ;
 Iniurit the elders, what suld mair ?
 This byschop, beand present thair,
 Desyrit him hame, and he suld seay
 Gif he culd lerne him to obey ;
 For all his crackis, doe what he can
 To know the law of God and man.
 Sua to his castell tuik him hame,
 This dubil drunckerd thought na schame ;
 Fuorth secreitlie he callis him syne,
 And fillit him fow with aill and wyne ;
 Persuading him to sell his land,
 And gat his letters in his hand.
 This beand done, as I have said,
 Vpon his duschet vpe he played,
 Gevand the man so mony terroris,
 That brocht him in a thousand erroris,
 That for his lyfe was no remeid,
 Gif he abaid the law but deid.
 The pure man, being fleid for feir,
 Gave him the land, and gat na geir ;
 Maid sayle syne to the Easter sees,
 And, lyk ane dyver, thair he deis ;
 Whairto this bischop tuik regard,
 And enterit sone to Nabothis yaird.
 The sillie wedo a quhyle defendit,
 But scho grew pure, and so scho endit,

And left hir malisone, cōsider,
To Lowrie, and the land together.
Whether hir malisone tuike effect,
Or gif it was the gude wyne sect,
Or surfeating of sundrie spyces,
Or than a scurge for clockit vyces ;
Bot sic ane seiknes hes he tane,
That all men trowit he had bene gane ;
For leitches my^t mak no remeid,
Thair was na bute to him bot deid.
He, seing weill he wald not mend,
For Phetanissa hes he send,
With sorcerie and incantationes,
Reising the devill with invocationes,
With herbis, stanis, buikis, and bellis,
Menis mēbers, and south runīg wellis ;
Palme croces, and knottis of strease,
The paring of a preistis auld tees ;
And, in principio, sought out syne,
That vnder ane alter of stane had lyne,
Sanct Jhones nutt, and the for^e levit claver,
With taill and mayn of a baxter aver.
Had careit hame heather to the oyne.
Cutted off in the cruik of the moone ;
Halie water, and the lāber beidis,
Hyntworthe, and fourtie vther weidis :
Whairthrow the charmīg tuik sic force,
They laid it on his fatt whyte horse.
As all men saw, he sone deceissit :
Thair Saga slew ane saikles beast.
This wald not serve ; he sought ane vther,
Ane devill duelling in Anstruther,
Exceeding Circes in cōceattis,
For changene of Wlisses meatis :
Medusa's craftis scho culd declair,
In making eddars of her hair :
Medea's practicques scho had plane,
That could mak auld men young agane.

By Achates, the witches god,
 Mercurius, with his charmed rod,
 The aunciet king of Bactria,
 That first inventit magica,
 Could not so weill of stowen geir tell,
 As could this vglie hund of hell.
 With this, the word yead through the toun,
 How lurcan Lowrie played the lowne :
 Heiring how witches wrang abusit him,
 The kirkmen calld him and accused him,
 And scharplie of theis pointis reproved him,
 That he in sorcerie beleavit him,
 Whairthrough his saule myt come to skayt.
 The witche and he cōfessing bayth,
 Scho tuike some part of white wyne dreggis,
 Wounded rayne, and blak hen eggis,
 And maid him droggis that did him gude.
 His ansr. being rashe and rude:
 Suppoise the devill maid that graith,
 The seiknes sua oversett my faith,
 At that tyme, to asswage my sair,
 I wald have tane it, I tauld thame thair.
 Then did the elders him desyre
 Vpon the morne to mak a fyre,
 To burne the witches both to deid :
 Bot or the morne he fand remeid.
 He dred sa sair they suld have schawin
 How his knaverie was to thē vnkawin ;
 Laich in a lyncbus, whair thay lay,
 Then Lowrie lowsit thē, long or day,
 And had no will they were corrected ;
 Yit with the people he was suspected,
 Trowing the teallis befoir was spocken,
 Becaus they saw no presone brocken.
 There was his pretticques weill espyed ;
 But with his ansr : he replyit,
 And said, na man, at his cōmand,
 Wald tak the presone hous in hand ;

Into that dūgeon was sic din,
As Beelzebub had bene therin ;
That nevir a man durst stire qll: day :
And sua he neckit thame with may,
And brocht the teale bravelie about,
How Pluto come and pullit thē out.
Yit few or nane this Lourie beleavit,
Becaus they culd not get it previt :
They prayit him to amend his lyfe,
And trow na witchcraft in a wife.
For oghit the kirk culd him forbid,
He sped him sone, and gat the thrid ;
Ane carling of the Quene of Phareis,
That ewill win geir to elphyne careis ;
Through all Braid Abane scho hes bene,
On horsbak on Hallow ewin ;
And ay in seiking certayne nyghtis,
As scho sayis, with sur sillie wychtis ;
And names out ny^tboris sex or sewin,
That we beleavit had bene in heawin.
Scho said scho saw thame weill aneugh,
And speciallie gude auld Balcleuch
The secretare, and sundrie vther ;
Ane William Symsone, hir mother brother,
Whom fra scho hes resavit a buike,
For ony herb scho lykis to luke :
It will instruct hir how to tak it ;
In sawis and sillubs bow to mak it ;
With stones that mekle mair can doe
In leich craft, whair scho layis them toe.
A thowsand maladeis scho hes mēdit.
Now being tane and apprehendit,
Scho being in the bischopis cure,
And keptit in his castell sure,
Without respect of warldlie glamer,
He past into the witchis chalmer,
Closing the dure behind his bak,
And quyetlie to hir he spak,

And said, his work lome was not worthe,
 Lowsing his poyntis, he laid it furth.
 Scho sayned it with hir halie hand ;
 The pure pith of the pryoris wand :
 To help that raipfull scho hes rest him,
 Whairfore, ye say, my ladie left him.
 For scho had sayned it tuyss or thrise,
 His rubigo began to ryiss
 Then said the bischop to Jhone Bell,
 Goe, tak the first seye of hir yor sell.
 The witche to him her weschell gave,
 The Bischops blessing to resave.
 What dayis of pardone then scho wan !
 The relicques of that holie man
 Micht save her saule from purgatorie.
 His wyfe, cōceiving jelowsie,
 Cryed out his deid, when it was done,
 Ran through the tovn, and tauld it sone.
 Ane syiss was socht sone to the wyfe.
 Whairas ane aunciēt laird of Fyiffe,
 Of gude report, that may be trowit,
 Befoir this Bischope weill awowit,
 Eather at Semblie or at Sessione,
 As he wha hard the wyffis cōfessione,
 That this was suirlie thair proceeding.
 Whair sic men gettis a flock in feeding,
 The sillie scheip wilbe devorit,
 And Goddis true doctrine daylie smorit.
 This beand done, he thought sic schame,
 He my^t not tarie weill at hame,
 But ower to Edinburgh he hes past,
 Procured a licence, at the last,
 To ryde to Londoun with a letter,
 Becaus they culd not get a better.
 Wist he what his cōmissione bure,
 He my^t weill serve for sic a cuire.
 Sic lipps, sic lattouce, lordis and lownes,
 Auld creased workis payit with crackit crownes.
 Bot heir I will no mair remane,

Returnig to my text agane.
It may not be no more forborne,
How he begyylit pure David Horne,
Ane honest man, ane messinger,
And was St Androis pensioner.
To all the Bischopis thair befoir,
He doing daylie his devoir,
He gat allowance, being leill,
Ane pensione of a chalder of meill.
Our to this Bischop now is he gane;
His letter of tak hes with him tane;
Sayand, ye man be gude, my Lord,
And to yo^r man misericord.
This angle noble in my neife
Vnto yo^r Lordship I will gife,
To cause you to renew my tackis.
The vther little answer makkis.
The Angle noble first he tuike,
And syne the letters for to luike:
With yt hes byknife furth hes tane,
And maid him tuëtie tackis of ane,
In little crownes began to cut them;
The vther gaid hame backwards but them,
Sichand, and durst say no mair,
And left his angle noble thair.
With thir, and mony sic lyke trickis,
The haill coütrie this coütrie cōvictis.
The pure men plentis y^t duellis besyde him,
How creipis in a hoill to hyde him,
And barris them fast w^tout the yettis,
When they come there to crave there debtis;
For kaill, candle, and knocked beir,
Herbis to the pot, and all sic geir,
He never payis ane pēny he takkis.
To heir the mone the pure folk makkis,
What malisones are to him gevin,
Cryand a wengance from the hewin,
Come doun on this deceatful Lowrie;

I wald not for the carse of Gowrie
To be a bischop in his esteat.
To heir, when he gangis throw the gait,
How everie wyffe on vther puttis,
Bidding the bischop pay for his guttis,
And cryis, gar pay me for my eall,
Ane vther for candle, the thrid for caill :
The fourt cryis out for knocked beir,
How dar this dastard hud our geir ?
A vengeance fall his feinzit fayt,
For poinding of the pure folkis graith.
Efter my Lord this larwme ringis,
For this and mony sic lyke thingis,
Suppose it stude on all thair lyffis,
He will not get amongis the wyffis
Ane pynt of aill in all the tovne,
Except the silver be laid down.
Then gif ze knew his duble tackis
Amonges the coūtrie men he mackis;
With feinyeit seillis and antideatis,
And tuentie vther tryme cōceatis,
Setting the coūtrie be the earis,
And takis no thot of ny^tboris weiris,
Se he be sure to fill his hand,
How meikle blood be in the land.
Gif siclyk bischopis be admittit,
Grit God and all the warld sall wit it ;
This makis his trickis, his feinyeit toyes,
What clocked knaverie he cōvoyes.
His wattir drincking, his seiknes feinyeit,
Fearand the kirk shuld on him pleinyeid.
It cōes to licht now, at the last,
Fra tyme the ministers are past,
The trick of Guisians devysit,
He hes bene ane to interpryse it ;
Ane waikrife devill daylie to wirk,
To saw seditione in the kirk,
Learning a lessone at ald Frogmortene,

As he cōfessit at his departing.
To conterfute that fals cōceat,
And speik the Quenis Grace be the gait,
He fand his seikness was so sair,
Throw all his bodie heir and thair,
That nathing myt his panes repell,
Except it were some sacred well,
In Lorane, or the well of Spaa :
Bot his cōmissione na man saa :
Which text cōtenit na vther thing
Bot cōmendationes fra our Kyng
Vnto the Quene of Englandis Grace,
Beseikand hir to help his case,
And to send new support aganist him.
Mortone, sayis he, the lawis hes slaine him,
And Gowrie hes gottin a cōdigne syse,
Conformig to his interpryse,
With sindrie vtheris that loves thair factione,
That daylie dois mentene y^t actione :
As Anguse, Mar, and Maister of Glames,
Tak thir thrie for na saikles lambes,
But proude ambitious bangesters,
With some seditious ministers,
Cōtempneris of our authoritie,
Subscryvit aganist our Maiestie,
For to destroy our realme and regione,
Without respect of true religione ;
Beleivand we should bring hame the mess .
Luke what religione ye profess ;
I salbe būde therby to byde,
Under grit God ye salbe guyde,
My tutrix in my tendir yeiris,
Sen none in earth to me so deir is
As ye my kindlie cusines.
Gif I had gritter bussines,
I think ye aucht for to defend me,
With succor and support to send me.
To bring this mater to ane end,

My sacred bischop I have send,
As Semple sayis, ane subtile tod,
To bring me hame the word of God
From Italie and Almainie,
In Geneva and Germanie,
To seik the trew experiēce,
For libertie of cōscience.
Give ye think gud, I hald it best
That bayt our realmes myt live in rest.
With this and vther siclyk wairis,
Befoir the coūsal he declairis
A fals, deceatfull, feinyeit taill,
Bot alwaysis for thair awin availl.
Bot yit, or he bound to the read,
How that his packmātie was mead,
I thing it best for to declair.
His blew clock beand worne so bair,
He causit an talyeo^r turne it and mak it
Into wiche maill; a frind he packt it.
His sarkis, his schone, his ganging gowne,
Ane fitt case for a feinyeit lowne;
Na dentie geir this Doctor seikis;
Of tottis russet his ryding breikis;
Ane hamelie hat, a cott of kelt,
Weill beltit in ane lethrone belt;
A bair clock, and a bachlane naig,
His ruffe curfufled about his craig;
The one end to his belt hang doun,
The vther stude above his crovn.
Thair was a brave embassador
Befoir so noble ane auditor,
The Quene of Englandis Maiestie,
Hir coūsall and nobilitie.
In hir triumphand palice placit,
May sic fellowis be defacit.
Allace, that Scotland had no schame,
To send sic howfing carles from hame!
Now or embassador is boune,

With bag and bagag off the toun,
All ny^t in Seytoun he remaned,
Whair wyne and aill was nothing hayned ;
And fra my Lord he gat a letter,
To cause him to be treat the better,
To Monsier, to mak him speid,
The Frenche embassador indeid,
That daylie yit in Londoun lyis,
Wha can an evill turne weill devise ;
And syne to Berwick on the morne,
Whair all men leuch my Lord to scorne ;
Na mulettis thair his cofferis caries,
Bot lyk a court of auld cashmaries,
Or cadyers cūig to ane fair ;
And yit some honest men gaid thair,
For fewis and takkis y^t he sic sett thame,
Beleivand in y^t towne to get thame,
Bot may gaip lang or he get them ;
As they have sped, ye may speir at them.
Tuiching his awin tryne, ye shall heir,
The vicar of on a meir,
That wonder weill can turne a can,
A ganeand maister for sic a man,
With vther fellowis tuo or thrie ;
Gude Robert Melwene of Carnebie,
I shuld not racken in with thea ;
Of honest men he had na mea.
But he may ruse him of his ryding,
In Londoun for his longsome byding.
Thair Holieglas begane his gaidis,
As he was learned amangis the laidis.
To Maist: Hanam sone he past,
And sowmes of silver fra him him ast
In borrowing while he come bak.
The man beleivand it he spak,
Vnto this sophist sone cōsentit ;
But he had afterward repentit,
Werc not a man amongis thē sell,

Whose cōscience causit him to tell,
 And quyetlie his coūsall gave him,
 That Holieglas wald sone deceave him.
 The man perceaving it was sua,
 Gave him the gek, and lute him gea,
 Thankand his God, and gud men baith,
 For his delyvering of y^t skeath.
 O Holieglass ! thought thou no schame,
 And thou but laitle come frome hame ?
 Vpon the secund day at morrow,
 Suld our embassado^r gea borrow,
 And Want or ever he wyn ower Tweid ?
 Bot God be praisit he come no speid.
 To Londoun Lowrie tuke the geat,
 With traine my^t staik for his estait,
 His wantone vicare on a meir,
 Twa vther fellowis to turse his geir ;
 Bot never ane honest man had he,
 Save Robert Melwene of Carnebie,
 That with that bischop went about,
 To sett his feinyeit falsett out ;
 Bot als gude he had sittin idle,
 As there ower land to leid his brydle,
 Considering what reward he gatt,
 Still on his owne cott taill he satt,
 As salbe tauld you or we tuyne,
In loco quo it shall come in.
 To tell all ludgene whair he lay,
 And ay on be the brek of day,
 Wald be ower langsome to collect ;
 I wilbe brief in that respect.
 Bot yit the menstrallis and the bairdis,
 Thair trowand to obtene rewardis,
 About his ludgene loudlie played ;
 Bot menstrallis, serving man, and maid,
 Gat Mitchell in an auld pocke nucke,
 Save dira adew his leive he tuik.
 He be the gait with murmo^r passis,

Allace, I have forgot the lasses !
Bot yit thay shall not want a plak ;
Will God give I returne abak.
This was to cloik his waine cōceat,
For he come home ane vther gait ;
As Culen Kyngis that Christ adorned,
Per aliam viam he returned.
In Londone he ane ludgene tuike,
A inkeiper, a comon cuike,
Ane tapster bayt of aill and wyne,
That weill myt staik for sic a tryne.
Vnto the court the word is gane,
That he had sic ane ludgene lane.
Little they said, what evir they thought.
Vnto this bischop there was brought Ane new-maid coische for to decore him ;
Ane serving gentlemā send for him,
That stude ane long hor at his yeatt,
Or he could ony entres geatt,
While he was grathed into his geir,
Siclyke as he was wont to weir,
As I befoir have specifeit,
And Maister Willie will verefeit.
The man that was his messinger,
The Quenis Grace Latin secretare,
Being eschamit fra ever he saw him,
Said to himself, a vengeance faa him.
To this our brave embassador,
Whome to we doe sic honor,
That I am send for to hir Grace,
A cowe bust in a bischops place :
Yit in the cosche he lap at last.
Into the palice are they past,
Which callit is the fair White hall,
 the palice wall
 and wald not spair,
Which is a thing inhibit thair.
Ane porter sone did him persave,

And to the bischop his blissing gave Betuixt the schoulders a royll route,
Turning him wodderschins about.
To scape the fray he was so fane,
He put vp club in scheath agane.
Cūing to presence of the Quene,
Becaus he had not sic thingis seine,
He wist not weill how to behave him;
Bot as some vthers counsall gave him ;
And that was of a semple sort,
As I can tell by true report
Of gentlemen that stude besyde him,
That he had na mair grace to guyde him
Nor it had bene ane hieland quow, Lurcane and lowring I wat not how.
Then his cōmissione being red,
Out of the palice he was sped,
Then to the wall agane gois he,
To part of honestie.
The portars publicltie reprovit him,
And doubtless they had thair mischevit him,
Were not the gentle men excuset him,
And thame forbade to stryke a stranger.
He beand scapit of that danger,
Hame through the past; and wald not spair;
Thay maid a midwyfe of him thair;
They bring thame farre on ābeling foiles,
Bot send thame hame throw on thair soilles.
Tuo moneth he tareit efter that,
But never presence agane he gat.
With bischops he began to fleich,
Desyring licence for to preich.
Of his auld sermon he had perquier,
Bot they had never hard thame heir.
Of omnigatherene now his glose,
He maid it lyk a Wealchmā hose;
Tempora mutantur, was his text.
The bischops vicar being vext

To ruse his maister, and set him out,
Sayand to thame y^t stude about,
Gif ye his preiching could persave,
My maister is a lerned knaif:
Placebois part behind his bak,
Vnto the people this he spak:
The preiching done, the chapter red,
They baith gaid fow aneuch to bed.
This poysoned preicheor of Godis word
Is not vnlyk a suple suord;
For in the fyire when ye have heat it,
To ony syde you lyk to sett it,
It will go worth and stand therto,
So will this duble docto^r doe.
For greid of geir, and warldly graith,
On baith the gaitis he grūds his fayth.
For daylie we may se his dress,
When Monseir gaid vnto his mess,
Into ane gallerie neir besyde;
Thair wald this halie bischope byde,
Saying, forsuith, it was not smittel.
I think he weyit the mater litle,
How mony messis there was done,
Sa he wer packed weill at none;
For daylie thair he gaid to dyne,
To gett his fill of gude white wyne.
The denner done, he wald not spair,
Downe to a house, tuo myle and mair,
To Lambeth. bischope of Canterberrie,
Vpon his feit, but not to ferrie;
For archness to had in a grote,
He had no will to fie a bote;
Bot or he come neir hand the yeatt,
Vpon ane dyke doun was he sett
Into a secreit out of sicht,
And sat thair till his schone wes dicht.
He gave thame leive to dicht his schone;
To sponge his cloak durst not be done.

It hurt the woole, and wrought it bair;
Puld off the mottes, and did no mair;
He had na will to weir his cleathis;
Then to that bischop in he geas.
With mony flattering taill and fals,
He held that bischop in the hals,
Seiking the secreit of his wittis,
And ay besydis he fillis his guttis,
Wachting the wyne, for it was wycht.
Then, when this turn cott tuke gude ny^t,
Half way hameward vp the calsay,
Said to his servandis for a quha say.
Alace, the porter is foryett,
But sorrow mair the men my^t gett.
Then to a sowters chope he past,
And for a pair of schone he ast.
Bot or he sperit the price to pay thē,
His thovmbis was on the soillis to say them;
Then with his knockles he on them knockit;
Efir that he had long tyme blockit,
With grit difficultie he tuik thame,
And pat thame on; ewill mocht he bruik them.
With Monsier then he moyen maid,
Lamēting sair his lang abaid,
Thinking to borrow a hundredth pundis,
And oblist him for to be bund
To pay or he past off the toun.
The vther, na dowt, had laid it downe,
Were not bechance he had a man,
That with his maister roundit than:
My Lord, I kend yone lowne in Parise,
He weill betydis that sometymes careis;
And cōdigne docto^r to all townes,
My mother lent him fyftene crownes;
Besydes some vtheris nychboris thair,
Some lent him less, some lent him mair.
Work what we willit was in vaine,
We uald nevir gett a grote agane:

The vther said nothing for schame,
But held his young while he turned hame.
Ten pundis slidling furth he tuike,
And knit it in a neapkin nucke,
Saying, forsuith, I have no mair
Now at this present I may spair.
But when he gettis y^t geir agane,
Thair will na river ryse for raine,
And porter, porter of hellis yeattis,
That day this doctor payis his debtis.
This wald not serve his turne he tho^t ;
Some vther moyen sone he socht.
The Scottis merchandis were lyand thair ;
I find he maid thair baggis all bair,
And promised, vnder pane of schame,
To pay so sone as he come hame.
Bot as he payit, ye may speir,
Gif Gilbert Donaldsone were heir ;
Or Patrick Quhyt, he weill can tell,
Sayand, thair is no devill in hell
Could find sic falset for to deceave him,
As he, when ever he come to crave him.
Ane vther London paik he playit,
Sending some letters, as he said,
With Patrick Quhyt, as he declairis,
Bearing the wecht of grit affairis,
To come in Scotland to the King.
The man mensueris he saw sic thing.
Suppose the teale be fals and feinyeit,
Yit to the Kingis Grace he has pleinyeit.
Havand the court at his cōmand,
He gart the pure mā leave the land :
For all the fyve bairnes and the wyffe,
This Metropolitane of Fyiffe
Is enterit on his hous and geir ;
But how this happened, ye sall heir,
Thought it be tedious for to tell.
The mā duellis in St Androis sell,

He lent this lowne thrie hundreth mēk ;
 Bot when he craveth Cok his clerk,
 He culd not find ane vther gait,
 Bot fred him with this fals cōceat.
 Gif this be weill, the warld shall ken
 To raise sic schiftis on saikles men.
 Than Robert Melwin hame to gang,
 On his awin charges lyand lang,
 Sayand this burgh I may not bruik,
 His precept of pensione furth he tuike,
 Biddand my Lord subscryve ane letter,
 And swa he did, but not the better.
 Hame to the prowest he was directit ;
 But ye shall heir whow he was geckit.
 Hame to the prowest when he past,
 It greived him, and he was agast ;
 Who tuke him by the lap, and lewch,
 Ye ken his knaverie weill aneuche.
 Of all his teyndis, both meill and beir,
 I have discharges for a yeir ;
 He gart me pay thame or I ledd thame :
 The vther tuke thame vp and redd thame.
 He sayned him, but he said no mair :
 Tak up his Londone wsayage thair.
 Ane burges man there beand bound,
 Having a trvme schop in the toun ;
 Vnto this Bischope sone he socht,
 To get a licence gif he mocht,
 For fortie last of Inglis beir :
 Said, ten pund Stirveling I have heir,
 And mair, when misteris you cōmand.
 The Bischop tuke it weill on hand :
 To Secretare Welschingame gois he,
 The pearle and flowre of courtasie ;
 With signator in neif alreddie,
 He send him to his Soverane Ladie
 For fourtie last of Englis beir.
 Bot what ane leesing made he heir ?

He said, to serve his house at hame,
But it was sauld in want of schame ;
And not with him that he began,
He happened on ane vther man,
And tuentie pund Stirveling fra him tuke :
The first merchant he cleane forsuike ;
Gave him the geck, and lat him gea ;
Gud threttie pundis he cōqueist sea.
Amongis the Bischopis of the towne,
He played the beggar vp and downe,
Without respect of honestie,
Or office of embassadrie.
Ane scaffing warlot, wanting schame,
Thrie of thair haikneis he tuik hame.
He beggit buikis, he beggit bowis ;
Tacking in earnest, asking in mowes ;
As Maister Jhone Dowglass weill can tell,
How slealie he deceavit him sell ;
Borrowing ane coffer to keip his claythis,
Bot with this baggage hame he geas.
This turn cott now returnīg bak,
Trowand some great reward to tak ;
Bot Englis men are not so daft,
Bot they perceaved his clocked craft.
They knew him for a sembling baird,
Whome to they wald give no rewarde ;
Considering as he sett him furth,
They gave him mair then he was worthe.
Seing his copburde come to nocht,
Tua leathering bosses he hes bought ;
Thay will not brek, albeit they fall,
Thir strapis of trie destroyis vs all,
They brek so mony, I may not byde it ;
Heir all the insprach he provydit.
Returnīg hame, as ye hard tell,
He baid behind a day him sell,
The simple servantis to beguyle,
Sayand, he wald ryde furth a whyle,

To seay a bow that was sūthing wicht ;
 Syne come agane, and tak gud nycht ;
 Bot on lap he, and went to wair ;
 Fairweill ; adewe ; they gat na mair.
 Gif this be honest, ye may ken,
 And, namelie, to sic honest men,
 Our Legat Lord in primacie,
 Besydis his grit embassadrie,
 To vse swa in vncouth places ;
 Little merwell, in tēporall cases,
 He had na will to give reward,
 That to his saule had no regard.
 For, lying in periculo mortis,
 Tua of the Kirk to him resortes ;
 Balcanquhall, as ane Christiane brother,
 And Maister Andro Melwill was the other :
 Both being fayt full, fearing God.
 Went to persuade this subtile tod,
 Lascivous maneris to amend,
 Sen na man knawis the hor' nor end.
 This, at the lenth, he lent them eiris,
 And brusted out in a blus of tearis.
 Brother, he sayis, I schame to tell
 Sa oft as I misvsit my sell,
 In guyding of the giftis of grace ;
 Gif God wald lend me tymē and space,
 Tua hor'is in pulpit to deploir it,
 My synfull lyfe sall not be smorit :
 With this agane began to greit.
 The bretherene, seing him cōtreit,
 Gave thankis to God for his repentence :
 But now, for all his auld acquētance,
 He playit the turnecot for to deceave them,
 Denyand plane that ever he spak them.
 To George Durrie he played a juike,
 That will not be foryet this oulke :
 Foure hundreth merkis he gart him get him,
 For tackis of kirkis he hecht to set him,

And syne set vther men the teindis.
The vther, having forse of freindis,
Concludit schortlie for to slea him,
For vyling of his syluer fra him :
As they had done, no dout, in deid,
Were not he sped him there with speid,
And fand sic moyen for to meis them,
Promissand profeit for to pleis them.
Whairto it turnes I can not tell :
But sua the sophist savit him sell.
To him I can find na cōpair ;
Save anes in France, when I was there,
Gud Clemet Marit had a lowne,
A knaif that cūbart all the towne ;
With spreitis employed to everie vice,
As whoredome, drincking, cartis and dyce ;
To sweir, to ban, to steill and tak,
Ane never myt trow a word he spak :
In everie ludgene whair he wald licht,
Taking his leive without gud nicht ;
Garring the wyfis sing wallaway,
Lyk to the Bischop of Galloway :
But he was sum thing pure and needie.
And this is feinyet, fals and griedie.
Galloway with no mater meld him,
Except necessitie cōpeld him :
Taking the warld as God wald send it,
Having ane noble hart to spend it.
Bot ay the mair this smatcher gettis,
The closser garris be keip the yettis ;
Feiding his bellie and his bryde,
Begging and borrowing ay besyde.
Galloway was a man of gude,
Discendit of a noble blude ;
Franck with his freind, fordward and stout,
Having gude maneris to set them out :
And this is but ane cairle, ye sie,
Ane baxteris son of bas degrie ;

Feable and fleid, and nothing worth,
Wanting a face to set him furth.
What suld I lyble of this lowne ?
Not all the paper of this towne,
And blek it baith vnder and abone,
May had the half that he hes done.
Wha could cleirlie descryve his cases
In Parise, and in vther places,
Gif men my^t tyme and laser get ?
Some thingis, indeid, I have forgot :
Parceaving that he was scant of clathis,
To Londone Bischop sone he geathis,
Desyring the borrowing of a gowne,
He said, to preich in through the towne.
The Bischop, obeying the first cōmand,
Send for his wardrop man fre hand.
Tuiching that part I mā cōmend him ;
Ane diligent gowne indeid he send him :
Bot when that gowne comes hame agane,
Winter salbe butt wind and raine.
Albeit I was not there to see,
He weiris it yit, to verefie ;
Growgraine of silk, bot it is gray,
When ever ye see it, siris, ye may say,
He gat that gowne, with this ingyne,
Weill lyned with costly furringis fyne.
How he beguylit Jhone Harper of York,
Ane Scottis tailyeo^r, lives on his work,
Aff fra a merchant he gart him tak
New brekis and dowblat, for to mak,
Of Turkie taffatie, na war geir ;
Bot as he payeth him, ye sall heir.
This turne cott with his trickis begane,
Growand familiar with the man,
Sayand forsuith my silver is done ;
But Londone will me releive sone :
For in that toun I tak na cair ;
The Scottis merchants will meit me thair,

With monie, als mekle as I will tak.
Whairefore, to my returnig bak,
Ye wald doe weill gif ye wald thrist me,
And at this present not molest me.
Ye salbe payit ; tak ye no thought :
Your tristene sall not be for nought
At our nixt meiting. What suld mair ?
The vther saw him speik so fair ;
To crave him forder he thoght schame.
Bot turne cott, now returnig hame,
Fand out some vther gait to gea :
Sewin pund he payit this pure mā sea.
Some sayes he played ane fouller thing,
Bespewed the pulpit befoir the king ;
Or ever the preiching was midpart done,
He neither held vnder nor abone.
Na ferlie ; his cōtagious stomach
Was sa owersett with Burdeous drūmake ;
And George Gipsones iskie bae
Had all the wyte he womit sae.
Sone after that, for sowmes of debt,
A measr vpon the gait him mett,
Gewing him charges to obey,
To enter in warde, or els to pay.
This lowrie little ansr mackis,
Bot on a gray bonnet he tackis ;
A scheip hewit clock to cover his cleathis ;
But lad or boy to Leyt he geathis ;
Lapp in a bott, and maid him boun ;
Sen syne he come not in the toun.
Ane vther trick, as I remember ;
The threttene day of this November,
Vnto his bed he bownit so fow,
Sleipping and snoring lyk a sow ;
Dreamand some devill he had sene,
Out of the bed he wald have bene ;
But on the flure he gat a fall,
While doun came Cannabie and all

Vpon his bellie, with sic a brattle,
 The houshold, hearing sic a rattle,
 Mervelit mekle what it suld be ;
 Lychtit candles, and came to sie,
 And fand him lyand lyk a swyne,
 Bayth bak and syde bespewit with wyne.
 Seeing it rid, they waxt so red,
 Believing it had bene blood he bled ;
 Cryand out, harmesay, he was stickit ;
 While ane pat doun his hand and lickit.
 This is not blude, thot it be hewit,
 But Burdeous wyne, that he has spewit,
 With schame and lack I will not lane,
 They laid him in his bed agane.
 Therefore I wald ye vnderstude,
 We have na tyme for to cōclude :
 For ay the longare Lowrie leivis,
 As fassione is of feinyit theivis,
 They wilbe daylie for doing ill.
 Ewin sa I will augment my bill,
 As I gett witt in mair and mair
 Of his proceidingis heir and thair.
 I sall leive blankis for to imbrew thame,
 That he a nosebitt my beleive thame,
 Whome to my buik salbe directit.
 Being in Paris lait suspected
 For art and part of mübling messis,
 Thought he hypocrysie professis :
 Albeit this be not weill set furth,
 Becaus the mater was not worth,
 Desyre the Bischope to be cōtent,
 Becaus I am not eloquent.
 I have tane trawell for his saik,
 And ryme may for a raipfull staik.
 Mind ye thir heidis that I rehers ;
 I sall not fail to mend my vers.

HAIF a littill Fleming berge
 Off clenkett wark bot scho is wicht
 Quhat pyllett takis my schip in chairge
 Mon hald hir clynlie trym and ticht
 Se that hir hatchis be handlit richt
 With steirburd, baburd, luf and lie
 Scho will sale all the wintirnight
 And nevir tak a telzevie

With evin keill befoir the wind
 Scho is richt fairdy with a saill
 Bot at ane lufe scho lyis behind
 Gar heise hir quhill hir howbands skaill
 Draw weill the takill to hir taill
 Scho will nocht miss to lay zour mast
 To pomp als oft as ze may haill
 Zeill nevir hald her watter-fast.

To calfet hir oft can do non ill
 And talloun quhair the flud-mark flowis
 But gif scho lekkis gett men of skill
 To stop hir hoilis laich in the howis
 For falt of hemp tak hary towis,
 With stane-ballest withowttin vder

In moneless nichtis it is na mowis,
Except ane stowt man steer hir ruder

A fair vesschell abone the watter
And is hot laitly reiket to Quhairto till deif zow with tome clatter
Ar nane sic in the floit as scho
Plvm weill the grund, quhat evir ze doo
Haill on the fick-sheit and the blind
Scho will tak in at cap and koo
Without scho ballast be behind

Nae pedderis pak sho will ressaif
Althocht hir travell scho sowld tyne
Na coukcald karle nor carnlingis pet
That dois thair corne and caitell tryne
Bot quhair scho findis a fallow fyne
He wilbe frawcht fre for a souss
Scho kareis nocht bot men and wyne
And bulzoun to the counze-houss

For merchandmen I may haif mony
But nane sic as I wald desyre
And I am layth to mell with ony
To leis my mater in the myre
That man that wirkes best for his hyre
Syne he salbe my mariner
Bot nycht and day mon he nocht tyre
That sailis my bony ballinger

For anker-hald nane can be fund
I pray zow cast the leid-lyne owt
And gif ze can nocht get the grund
Steir be the compas and keip hir rowt
Syne treveis still and lay abowt
And gar her top twiche wind and waw
Quhair anker dryvis thair is na dowt
Thir tripand tyddis may tyne ws a

Now is my pretty pynnege reddy
 Abydand on sum merchand blok
 Bot be scho emptie be our leddy
 Scho will be kittill of hir dok
 Scho will ressaif na landwart Jok
 Thocht he wald frawcht hir for a croun
 Thus fair ze weill, sayes gude Johne Cok
 Ane nobill telzeour in this toun.

 The Quhyt is gude and richt weil lwid
 Bot zit the Reid is twyis als deir
 The Violet syne bayth fresche and fyne
 Sall serve zow hosyng for a zeir

The Quhyt is twiche and fresche ennewche
 Soft as the silk as all men seis
 The Reid is bony and socht of mony
 They hyve abowt the house lyk beis.
 With Violet to gif ze haif ado
 It meitis lyk stemmyne to zour theis
 Seure be my witting not brunt in the litting
 Suppois baith laidis and lymeris leis

Off all thir thre hewis I haif left clewis
 To be oure court-men wintter weid
 Twynit and small, the best of thame all
 May weir the claih for woll and threid
 Bot in the walk-mill, the wedder is ill
 Thir ar nocht drying dayis indeid
 And gif it be watt I hecht for that
 It tuggis in hoilis, and gais abbreid

Zit it is weill walkit cairdit and calkit
 Als warme a weid as weir-the-deule
 Weill wrocht in the lwmis, with wobster gwmis,
 Bayth thik andnymmill gais the spwle

Cottond and schorne, the mair it be worne
 Ze find zoursel the grittar fule
 Bot bony forsuth cum byit in my bwth
 To mak zow garmentis agane zule

Bot mixt thir togidder, zourself may considder
 Quhat fyuer culLOUR can be fund
 And namely of breikis, gif ony man seikis
 Sall haif the pair ay for a pund
 H^owbeid it be skant, na wowaris sall want
 That to my bidding wilbe bund
 Weill may thay bruikit thay neid nocth to lukit
 Bot graip it marklynis be the grund

Zour court-men heir has maid my clraith deir
 And raisd it twell-pennies of the ell
 Zit is my clraith seuver, for sadills to ceuver
 Suppois the sessioun raid thamesell
 The Violet certane wes maid Dumbartane
 The Reid wes walkit in Dumkell
 The Quhyt hes bene dicht in mony mirk nicht,
 But tyme and place I cannot tell

Now gif ze wirk wyislie and shaip it precyslie
 The elwand wald be grit and lang
 Gif the byess be wyd gar lay it on syd
 And sa ze cannocht weill ga wrang
 And for the lang lest it wald be schewid fast
 And cair nocth by how deip ze gang
 Bot want ze quyht threid ze can nocth cum speid
 Blak walloway mon be zour sang

Bot thocht it be auld and twenty tymis sawld
 Zit will the freprie mak zow fane
 With vlis to renew it and mak it weill hewit
 And gar it glans lyk Dummygrane
 Syne with the sleik stanis that serveis for the nanis
 They raise the pyle I mak zow plane

With mony grit aith thay sell this same claith
To gar the byeris cum agane

Now is my wob wrocht and arlit to be bocht
Cum lay the payment in my hand
And gif my claith felzie ze pay nocht a melzie
The wob salbe at zour command
The market is thrang, and will nocht lest lang
Thay by fast in the bordour land
Albeid I haif tynsell zit mon I tak hansell
To pay for buth-maill and my stand

My claith wald be lwd with grit men of gud Gif lawdis and lownis wald latt me be Zit mon I excuse thame how can I reffuse thame
Sen all menis penny makis him free ?
The best and the gay of it myself tuk a fay of it
A wylie-coit I will nocht lee
Quhilk did me no harme bot held my cost werme
A symple merchant ze may see

This far to releif me that na man repreif me
In Jedburgh at the Justice air
This sang of thre lassis was maid abone glassis
That tyme thot thay wer tapstaris thair
The first wes ane Quhyt a lass of delyt
The Violett bayth gud and fair
Keip the Reid fra skaith scho is worth tham baith
Sa to be schort I say na mair

FINIS Q. R. SEMPLE.

Appendix.

I.—POEMS ASSIGNED TO SIR JAMES SEMPLE OF BELTREES.

(Born 1566. Died February 1625.)

[The following Poems, now FOR THE FIRST TIME PRINTED, are preserved in a small Quarto Manuscript Volume, written before 1598 and 1610, in the Library of the Faculty of Advocates, Edinburgh. They dwell much on the beauty of his Mistress, with the constancy and fervour of his attachment, whilst he calls on all that “Heeris these Amorous Tragieke Playes” to condole with him on his want of fortune, since the Fates have ordained that his love should go unrequited.]

II.—Loues Lament.

LY Loue allace is Loathsum wnto me : restles I liue in absence of my sweete
The harde mishapis I have incurred latelye : hes with dispaire ourquholm'd my weerie spreit : O the Loyell saul is this the fates decreeete :
may I noucht haue your preseus as befoir Adew contentment till thou me intreit, so sall be sene ay till thow me restoir
Knew I allace the way I might deploir not to the world but to thy self my teers Onlie by the may cuirit be my soir, ten thousand heartes may not sustene sic weeres
No worldlie pleuses can expell my paine ; but presence of my dearest deer agane.

H.—Ane Dyor.

QUHEN Diaphantus knew, the destanyes decreete Quhenn he was forcef for to forgoe, his deere and Loving sweit
 Ouervoited with the vailles of balme-rebaiting trees Ourgazeinges grouflings on the gronde : with death prent in his eyes
 Oft precisit hee to speeke : Ohe quhile hee did assaye
 The agonizing dread of deathe : his wrastling voyce did stay
 At last as ane quho stryues : aganes both woe and shame
 Diere charridora can hee crye : myne ay adoirit dame ffirist I attest thy name : syne nixt the godds aboue
 But cheefe of thes, that boy that beeris the staitely stile of Loue
 Let thoes recoirds with me, what was my constante paire
 And giue I did noucht honour the ! with ane weell hallowit hairt
 To sacrefice to the : my secreete chaist desyres
 Vpoun thy bewties alter brunte ! with neuer quenching fyeris
 Thow was that idole still : quhoes Image I adoirit
 The sanct to quhome I made my vowes : quhoes pities I imploirit
 The stare which sauad my schipe · from tempest of dispair
 Quhen the horizoun of my hoipe ! ou'rcloudit was with cair Thow was that soueraigne balme · that sweet catholick saw Quhilk couerit me of all my ills · that did my heart ourthrow
 But now suche strange events : hes interveinit sensyne
 That I dare not avow to saye : nor think that thow art myne
 Quhilk makes me to insert : in thois my sorrowing songes
 The histories of my mishaps : my miseries and wronges
 Noucht that I can accuse : my charidora no
 I onlie execrate the wierds : cheefe workeris of my woe Sould schoe quhom I haue seruit : sua mony lothsum zeeris ffor quhom my dew distelling eyes hes sched suche storme of teirs Sould schoe I say be made : ane pray to suche a one
 Quho for her saike he never gave : not ane vntymely grone
 No suirelie swrelie no ? the weirdes may doe me wrong
 And mak her bythere bade decreete : to quhom schoe suld belong Because the heavin dothe blenke on sum : moir blyther then on me
 And giue them giftes moir plawsible : to charme a churles eye

Zet dare I weell compair : yea peraduenture vaunte
That schoe is myne by richt of loue : thought luck in loue I wante

Albeit my horoscope · Invaide my worldlie thinges
Zit into Loue it gaue me liue : for to compair with kinges ffor giue I knew there were : beneathe the starrie skye
That durst avow to loue my Love moir faithfullie then I
I would ryue out this heart : which interleanes my breathe
And cast it dounе befoir her feete : and dye a schamefull breath
But sen boith tyme and schoe : hes tryit me to be trew
And hes founde such faithfullnes in me : as salbe founde in few
I rest secuire in that : and care noucht wha pretend
The mae presoome the mair my pairet proues perfitt to the end
And wtheris faithles faythe : in ballaunce put with myne
Sall mak my treuth for to triumphe : andlyke a sunne to schyne
There sall no change of tyme : of heavin of soile noir ayre
Inforce me to forgett my vowes : maide to my fairest fair
Quhilk now I heere renew : In solemne forme againe
That to witnes as I beganne : so sall I suire remayne
I sweere by thy tuo eyne : my onlie dearest deare
And by the stageoun stankes of hell : by which the gods do siveir
That thow arte onlie schoe : quhois countenance I crave ·
That I salbe in Lyfe and death : thy best affected slae ·
That I sall neither sighe nor sobe : nor zit sall greit nor grone · ffor one that euer sall tak Lyfe : saif the evin the allone ·
That there sall no deceit of Lovelye Laughing ene Nor charmeing sounds of syrion songes : nor fare fetchit sighes betuene

Deface out of my mynde : whiche are so suire Imprest Thy wordes soe wyse, thy Luikes so grave : thy maneris so modest

That day sall nevir daw : nor sunne sall never schyne
Sall quarrell me for appostate : for nought remayneing thyne
And that which heere I sweere : Least syleunce suld it smoir
The veric trees sall testifie : quhilk onlie are befoir
And cheefe and aboue all : this holeine sade and grene
Into the quhilk thy name and mync : in graven may be sene
O happie happie tree : quhoes euer blessit barke Sall ludge the trophie of our loue for thy Immortall worke
Quhilk hes the force to caus : the memorie remayne
Sequestrate from the bastard soirt : of trees which are prophane

And quhenn the rest salbe : ouerpast with cairles eye
 Zet soll thow be adorit and kist : for charidorais trei
 Ze peraduenture to : ffor diaphantus saike
 Sum rectles bodie cuming by : will homage to the make Thus blisst soll thow remayne : quhenn I salbe agast
 Into quhat corner of the eirth : poore wretch I salbe cast
 Indeid all is in doubt : sauue this we mone depaert
 The bodye must in pilgrime be : and shee must haue the hart
 The thought of quhilk exyle : and dolorous devoirce Breedes sorrow sorrow heer in me : this eloquence perforse ffor quhill I was resoluit : to thesaurize my greeife Beacaus that it sould move in men : moir mervell nor beleef
 The never ceassing feide · of melancountorous faites
 Ouer haistnit this abortiue birth : of Importune regrates
 To witnes to the world : that my mishaps are such That thought I murne lyke man half mad : I cannot murne too much
 ffor giue of all mishaps : this be the first of all
 To haue bene happie happie anes : and fra that hap to fall
 I wote I may weell say : that diaphantus name
 Is the sournyme of all mishaps : and signifies the same ffor giue there wer no hell : but out of heavin to hee Considder what her wante would worke : whois sight wes hevin to me
 I think all thois that speakes : of sorrow sould think schame
 Quhenn diaphantus salbe heard : for charidorais name
 Her bewtie was but bloote · her treuth wes vnreprovit
 The ane deseruit for to liue, the vther for to be Lovit
 Zit hes this deuilishe dame : of destanies ordanit
 That he soll Lois baith Lyfe and Loue : and schee a faythfull frende
 Qulierefoir all zee that heeris : these amorous tragicke playes
 Bestow on me ane world of plantes : on her a world of prais

III.—Craiges passionado:

QUHY did the gods ordaine : ane michtie monarchis mynde
 Within the presoun of my corps : to be inclo'sd and pynde
 Quhy did they predecree : suche intestine debate
 Suche euill weeris to be betuixe : my calling and conceite
 Giue as sum say there be : ane transfiguratioun thenn Evin at sum princes fall or death : my baleful birth began
 And as he dyit his saull and spirit : hes flowin into me
 Quhilk maks my munting mynde so fare : aboue my fate to flee
 Zit doubt I giue or no : my predecessoures gone
 That vnuhile prince hes iuster caus : or I for to bemone
 Hee pleanes perhaps becaus : within a worlde so wylde
 His princelie and heroike thoughts suld daylie be defylde
 I murne againe becaus : my founde conceacie thought Doune weyit allace be my wnwoorthe: resolues and turns to noucht
 Giue ane or bathe be plagued : I cannoucht weell defyne
 The punishment may weell be his : but all the pane is myne
 Zit thinke secuirelie think ; tho thow be baslie borne Suppois the shell be cast away ; zet will the perle be worne
 But heere ane freesche alarum : my heart does now assaill
 To think and noucht reveele my thoughtis : me thinks cannot avail
 ffor quhereto can they serve : be they from her obscured ffor quhom my present and my past : displeasures I indured Sen schee evin lyke the foule : quha liftes within her beake
 The schellfische heiche into the air : that it may fall and breake
 Sen schee I say hes heysit : myne hearte aboue the skyes Sall schoe not knew quhat's in my mynde : I murmure and devyis
 Zis suirelie zes but how : be word by wryte or baith
 Sall I reveell my hidin harmes : my long conceillit skayth
 By none of thois for quhy : my rivell for I see Hes made ane dullfull interdyte : betuix my dame and me
 O happie happie hee : to liue in suche estaite
 He come in tyme curst be the tyme : allace I come to late Zet let him beere with this : sence fauncie maks me fonde
 He sall noucht Loue her him allone : and he hade sworne vpound
 My richt's salbe alsgoode as heeis : I sweere by Jove aboue

Althoucht hee war me fare in Lucke : he wares me noucht in Loue

He Loues (allace) and findes : In Loue rewairde agane
I wate I Loue alsweell as he : and finds no thing but pane
I ade this meikle mair that breids my hart releif
Quhen schoe her bewtie doeth behold : in glasses of my greif
My Lynnes may schaw my Loue : my Loue may schow my pane
And schoe within my panes may spye : her bewties force agane ffor giue I soucht rewairde : schee wold repleye I knew It wer ane great disgrace to her : for to descend sua law
To Loue or reaffect ane wretche ane puissant power
By birth and bloode Ignoble borne ; inglorious and obscuire
Zet were it noucht eneuche : I sould Leive of to Loofe Ore from the worlds miracle : my mynde for to remove All thinges againe deformed ; In chaos masse shalbe Befoir ane retrospiacente I : sall ceas from Loving the First let omeriane blacke · eternall mixt ourvaill
The earthis circumference befoir my fixit faithe sall faill Thes monomathicke Jarris : betuix my selff and the Out of my mynde sall nawayes make my fixit Idea dee
My Loue quhere it is laid : sall grow and floorishe greene
And suche apostasie in me : at no tyme shalbe seene ffor how came I from Loue : or from my thoughts refraine
And how cann I but Loue my thoughtes : and thinke on loue
agane

Tuyse am I now reduceit : to my pretendit theame
And giue my selffe my thoughtis or her I wate not quhat to blame

Giue her I wer vnwise : or giue my thoughts or me
O thenn are na caus for a caus : but caus sould quarrellit be But ohe as sum alledge Loue harboures aye the heart
There is na plague beneth the pole : of quhilk I haue na pairt
And all the duillefull dintes that in despaire cann duell Conglomerat's in armes hudge : my pleesures to expell
Zit giue as I haue saide : ane transfiguratioun be Quhy doe noucht these my raging thoughts : tak journey now and flee

And seek sum saifer schoire ; quherein at large to fleit ffor I have dyed ten thousand deids : sen they and I did meit Wald god I anes had dyed : thenn hade my fanncies flede
But in supposed death's Lyfe : by thought susteint and fede

Thenn sall I saye I liue : or sall I saye I dee
 I am noucht dead and giue I sould alledge I liue I lie
 The babell of my mynde : hes drevin me soe awaye
 That as I wate noucht quhat I think : I wate not quhat I saye Zit weell I wate I Loue : and zit shee wates noucht this Thus if wyteles of my woe : and still bereav's my bless
 Ane paradoxe I graunte : and zit ane theame must trew Quhois certane groundes breeds suirest greefes : quhilk I cannoucht eshew
 And zit giue trew Loue might : trew Loues rewarde obtene
 Thenn weell I wote my waiting on : wald not be wair't in vane
 But while my sanct espyis : in saddest songes my syte Sehee thinkes I haue na mynde of Loue : but wryt's becaus I wryte
 But zet while schee on me : for to conferre wald call Oft haue I sworne by heavin and eirthe : my mistres warrs them all
 And oft haue wee discouerit boith quhy quhairefoir and how I Lou'd my dame and oft wald schee : baith loue and all allow Zet durst I not behold : her to her self to sohow
 But thesawriz'd my hiddin harmes : and ay conceallit woo
 And as the fearefull babe : quho knawes his task perqueir
 And sett's the buike asyde befoir: the appoynted hour draw neir
 And ou'r and ou'r againe : his Leassoune doeth repeate
 That hee may satisfie and pleis: the maister quhen they meit Zit quhen ane compt is tane : all fleis from out his thought
 And quhat he knew he quyte forezet's : feir setts his mynde afloucht
 Evin sua it faires with me : my harong clearlye cunde
 Hes presence hes obliterate : befoir I haue begunde
 And oft haue I determined : my passiones to displaye
 And zit Immediatelie : I weiping went awaye
 O in my Loveing Lines : O blind with brusit teares Hes schee espyit my passiones strong, my stryving hoips and feirs
 Oft hes schoe sweetlye said : thy mistres were to blame
 Gif cruell schee, to the that soe : her praises doeth proclaime
 And ware thow myne said schoe : I suirelie wald be loath Thy Loue thy hoip : thy faithe sould finde ; or raip rewarde of wrath
 Thus cannoucht I but thinke : and half perswade my sell

Schee knewes I Loue her best of all : suppois I dare not tell ·
 Zit Leist my name sould be : transsumpt heir and theire
 Inrol'd with foolische soulls who feides : on apprehensions bair
 I shaipe with spidie haist : to sett asyde all shame
 And by sum meanes to manifest : my dule vnto my dame Quhois must renouned name : for me sall nevir be knowne
 But in my mynde sall still remayne : in bloodie figures drawne
 So sall my Loue to her : and with my Loue my paine
 May ather by my presence be : or poesie maid plaine
 I cease regraiting still : that wicked weirds hes wrocht
 Suche annalogicke descrepannce : betuix me and my thought Quhilk maks me thus allace : but pietie to be pyn'd Quhenn I beheld suche monsterous : greit greefs within my mynd ·
 And still sall I bewaill : till thoughts there actions breid
 And mak ane ramigratione there : from quhence they did proceid
 And sua till vengit tyme : my wiste contentment bring
 I end and on the heichts of hoip : in hovering thoughtis sall hing

LET not the world beleive : the accusing of my fate
 It tendis to alluirit to condole with me my tragicke state
 Nor that I haue sent furthe : these stormie teeris of rage
 So by disburding of my breast : my sorrowes to assuage
 No no that serues for noucht : I craue no suche releef
 Nor will I zeild that any sould : be partiners of my greef
 My fantassie to feid : I onlie spend thois teares My plaintes playes me no musick sound's : so sweetlie in my eares
 I wish that from my birth : I had acquanted beine
 Still with mishap's and never had : but noyes and horrours seine
 Then ignoraunte of Joyes ! Lamenting as I doe
 As thinking all menn did the Lyke : I micht content me to But ohe my fate was worse : for it is in ane glas Schow me throw Lytle blenks of bles : the state quherein I was Quwhich wnperfyt Joyes : scairce constante for ane hour
 Was Lyke but to ane wateriesoonne : that schynes befoir a schour

ffor giue I euer thought : or rather dreem'd of Joyes
 That Lytle Lichtning but foisshewde : a thunder of annoyes
 It was but Lyke the fruite : that tantalus tormentes Quwhich whill hee sies and not attanes : his hunger but augments ffor sua the shaddow of : that but Imaginit mirth
 Cald all the crosses to recoirde · I suffered since my birth
 Quwhich are to be bewaill'd : but hard to be redresst
 Quhois strange effect's may weill be felt : but cannot be exprest
 Judge what the feelling was : whenn thinking on thinges past
 I trimble at the torment zit : and stande ane tyme agast Zit doe I noucht repent : but will with patience pyne ffor thought I murne I murmure not : Lyke men that doe repyne
 I grante I waile my Lote : zit I approve her will Quhat my suill oracle thinkes gude : I never sall think ill
 Giue I had onlie sought : anealue to ease my paines
 Long since I hade bewailled my Lote : alongst the illisian planes
 Zit mynde I noucht in this : selff Louer Lyke to dyee
 As ane that cair't not for her Lois : so I my self wer free
 No may ten night's annoyes : mak her ane nicht secuire
 Ane day of dolour's vnto her : ane momentes mirth procure Ore may ane zeeres Lament's : rejoyce her half ane hour
 May seavin zeir's sorrow's mak her sade : I sall not think them sour

And gif shee doeth delychte : to heere of my deseise Thenn O bleast I quho soe may haue : the occasioun her to pleas ffor now the caus I liue : is noucht for lufe of Lyfe
 But onlie for to honour her : that holds me still in stryfe
 And ore these vowes I mak : doe vnperformit escaipt
 This world sall anes agane renverst : resoome her shaples shape
 But what : what haue I vowed my passiones wer too strong
 As giue the myldest of the world delighted to doe wrong
 As schee quhom I adoire : with so devoite ane mynde
 Could rest content to see me sterfe : be glade to see my pynde
 No no schee wailles my state : and wald appays my caires
 Zet interdytit to the faites : confirmes her will to theris
 Thenn O vnhappy man : whom evin thyne sanct wold sauе
 And zit thy crewell destanis ; doeth damne the to thy grave
 This sentence thenn may serve : for to confound my fear's Quhy brust I not my breist with sighis : and droune my eyes with teirs
 Ohe I haif murnit so muche : that I may murne no moir

My miseries pas numbring now : plaintes perisch in their stoir
 The meanes to vnloade my breast : does quyte begin to faill ffor being drunk with too much doole : I wate not how to waill
 And sinco I wante ane way : my anguishe to reveell
 Of force contented with my faite : I'le suffer and conceell
 And for to wishe the world : evin as my Loue wish'd me
 I vse ane countenance Lyke to one, quhois mynde from greif wer free

ffor quhenn shoe did disdaine : shee schew'd ane smylling face Evin quhen that schoe denunc'd my death : schee sem'd to promieis grace

So sall I seeme in shaw : my thoughtes for to repais
 Zit in the centure of my saull : sall shrow'd a world of woes
 Thenn wofull breast and eyes : zour restles cours controule
 And with na outward signes betraye : the anguishe of my soule
 Eyes rayne zour shoures within : arrouze the eirth no moir
 Pas doune with a deludge of tear's : the breast ze burnd befoir Breast arme zour seelf with sigh's, giue ou'r waike to defend Then perishe by zour proper fyres : and mak ane honest end

ANE DYOR.

V.

EVIN as the dying swayne almost bereft of breath Soundes dulefull songes and dririe notes a presage of her death
 Sua since my date of lyfe almost expyr'd I find
 My obsequies I sadlie sing as sorrow toonnes my mynd
 And as the rairest bird ane pyle of wood doeth frame
 Quwhich being fyred by Phebus rayes scho falls into the flame
 So by tuo sunnye eyes I giue my fauncies fyre
 And burne my self with bewties rayes evin by my awin desyre
 Thus the angree gods at lenth begin for to relent
 And anes to end my dathefull lyfe for pietie are content
 Forgiue th'nfernall poweres the dampned saulls wold pyne
 Thenn let them send them to the light to leid a lyfe lyke myne
 O giue I could receave the crosses and the cairs
 That from my cradle to my bears conduct me with despairs
 Then hungrie Tantalus pleas'd with his late wald stand
 I famishe for ane sweeter foode quhilk still restes in my hand
 Lyke Ixiones restles wheelle my fancies rule about

And lyke a gwest that stoue heavin's fyres they tare my bowells out

I worke ane endles task and lois my labour still Evin as the bloodye sisteris doe that emptie as they fill
As Siciphus stone returnes his ghoist guiltie to appaill
I euer rais my hoip sua heiche they bruse me with there fall
And giue I could in sume my seuerall greefes relate
All wold forget there proper harmes and onlye wailly my state
So greivous is my greef and paine so panefull is my greef
That death whiche doeth the world affright wold zeild me to releef
I haue mishaps sua lang as in ane habite hade
I think I luik not lyke my self but whenn that I am sade
As birds that flee but in the aire fishes in sea doe diue
Sua sorrowis lyke as element by which I onlie liue
Zit this may be admired as moir then strange in me
Altho' in all my horoscope not one point cleir I see Aganest my knowledge zit I manye a tyme rebell
And seek to gadder groundis of hoip ane hevin amids a hell
O poysoun of the mynde that doeth the wittis bereave
And shrew'd it with ane cloake of loue does all the world deceave
Thow arte the rocke on which my comfoirts schip didst dashe
It's thow that's daylie in my woundes thy hookit heids does washe

Blinde tyrante is O thow by whome my hoips lye deid
That whylls throws furth a dert of gold and whils a lump of leid
Thus oft thow woundes to but in tuo differente states Quwhich treuth a strange antipathie ye one loues and the vther heats

O but I ere I graunte I sould noucht the vphraid
It's I to passiones tyrannie that haue my self betrayed
And zit this cannocht be my iudgement aymes amiss
Ahe deere Aurora it is thow that ruyn'd hes my bliss
Ane fault that by thy sex may paertlie he excuside
Quwhich still does lois quhat profer'd is affects quhat is refuisid
Quhills my distracted thoughtes I stryu'd for to controill
And with fain'd gestures did disguyis the anguishe of my soull
Thenn with inveiting lookes and accents stampyt with loue
The mask that was vpoun my mynde thow labourst to remove
And whenn that once ensnair'd thow in thois nets me spy'de Thy smythes were shaddowit with disdaines thy bewties cloth'd with pryde

To reateane thy grace I wate noucht how to goe
 Sall I once fall befoir thy feete to pleid for favour soe
 No no I'le proudlie go my wraith for to asswage
 And liberallie at last enlardge ye raines vnto my rage
 I'le tell what wee were ones our chast zit fervent loue Quhill in effect thou seam'd to affect the which thou didst disprove
 Quhill once to ingrave thy name vpoun a rock I sate Thow vowed to wryte myne in a mynde more firme by fare then that
 The marble stane then stamp't reteanes that name of thyne
 But ah thy moir then marble mynde it did not sua with myne
 Swa that whiche thrawt me first sall set me free againe Thois flames to which thy loue gave lyfe sall die with thy disdane.
 But ahe quhere am I now how is my iudgement lost
 I speik as it were in my power lyke ane that's free to boast.
 Haue I evin sauld my self to be thy bewties slae
 And quhen thou tak's all hoip fra me thou tak's but quhat yow gave
 That former loue of thyne did sua posses my mynde
 That for to harbour vther thoughts na roume remaynes behinde
 The onlie meanes by which I mind to avenge this wrong
 It is by making of thy prais the bourding of my song
 Thenn quhyould thou suchे spyte for my gude will returne
 Vas euer god as zit sua made to make his temple burne
 My breast the temple was quhence insens thou receaued
 And zit thou sets the same afyre which otheris wald haue saued
 But quhyould thou accusi Aurora in this gyise
 Shee's als fateles as shoe is fair als innocent als wyse
 For it is but throuche my misluckyt giue any fault ther be
 For shee who was of nature mylde was cruel made by me
 And since my fortoune is in woe to be bewrappt
 I'le honour her as of befoir and hate my awin mishappt
 Her rigourous cours sall serue my loyell paire to prove
 And as ane tuichstane for to trye ye vertew of my love
 Quhich whenn her bewtie fades salbe als cleir as now
 My constancie it salbe knowne when wrinkled is her brow
 Sua that suche tua againe sall in no age be found Shee for her face I for my fayth baith worthie to be croun'd

VI.

WILL thou remorsles fair, still laughe whill I lament,
And sall thy cheefe contentment be, to see me mallecontent?

Sall I Narcissus lyke, ane flying shade still chaise
Or lyke Pigmaleon straine a stone, quhilk bare no sence of grace
No! no, my blind loue now, must burrow reasounnes eyes
It was thy fairnes made me sounde, zour wrong name [now] mak me [wise]

My just desert's disdaines to loue ane loveles dame,
The lyfe of Cupidis fyre confides, Into ane mutuall flame
[For] gaue thou but a looke, or gaue thou but a smyle
Ore sent thou furth but ane sweit siche, my sorrow to begyle,
My captives thoughts perhaps myght be redeem'd from pane
And thois my mutineris malecontents, mycht freinds with hoip
agane

But thou as it appears, still cairles of my gude
And as it seem's wald eternize, thy bewtie with my bloode, Ane great disgrace to the, to me ane monstrous wrong,
Quhilk tyme will teache the to repent, befoir that it be long,
Then, to prevente thy schame, and to abraidge my woe, Becaus thou will noucht loue thy freinde I'le cease to lufe my foe.

LET him whois hapeles state : is as it aye hes beine
And hes bene euer as it is : ane caue caires to conteine
Still stramplid dounie with sturte : let him the weird's Imploir
That they may fill his dayes with zeir's : nor zeer's with days no moir

I clame no right to Lyfe : tho' Lyfe acclame to me
The comfirt that my Lyfe impoit's : Is that it liue to dye
Zit by constrain'te of Loue ill : my pennance sall furth proue
That tho' I doe not Loue to liue : zit doe I liue to Loue
Her with whom I'is be ay : in absence present bee
Quhois matchles nevir dying worth : I sall adoiring dye
Goe then zee pliders power : of never purchast peace
Resigne my Loue her awin disdaine : liue me with my disgrace
Tell to her secreete sight : since better could noucht bee

Lang haue I foughtin with my fate: and now am forceit to flee
 Sall neuer Loue dissolute: the Lyfe that loue beganne
 How Lang sall Langour be the lord: the louer be the man
 The darkeest cloudes will cleir: ill storme will sumtyme eas
 And everie battell sumtyme hes: ane day perfift for peace
 But where Loue Lyis intrinch't: within a breist of feares Na kynde of comforit clae's there croce: nor joy dryis vp there teer's

Reid thenn remorseles fair: quha knawes nor it may be
 That pittie pittieles befoir · prove pittiefull to me
 My tempted hee attempt's: slow soiring out of sight
 My mounting mynde elume did allace: but came not to the sicht
 Thy face the field wheerein: my Loue and thy disdaine
 Vnreconceild compeditouris: vowes euer to remayne
 Sen so it is allace: giue her gudenicht and goe
 Devoirc't from weell espousit to wrong: and interteinit with woe
 Rit nether contrair eace: nor prosperous event's
 Sall mak my pen Leive of to blote: the Lynnes of my Lament's
 And for thy worth I vow: In forrand lands to fair
 Thy [inter]dyti[d] pilgrime puire: for euer heir and thair
 And as thou was that one: to quhome I faith profest
 Looke in quhat corner of the eirth thy Loouer poore sall res[t]
 There be assuir't sweet saull: sum sonnet salbe sung
 And sowst with sorrow for thy saik: tald with a truthfull tung
 Hade I als manie hearts: as my harte thoughts commands
 And euerie harte of all these hearts: I sweere als manye hands
 Eache hand sould hold a pen: to wryte thy worthie rair
 As post's of thy eternal prais: to tell the world thour't fair
 Let it suffice the pen: puire saull her sicht to flee
 Since thou hes founde thy marterdome: remedyles to bee Rest zee in thy vnrest: and murray be thou still
 The maike where meneles miseries direetes there endles ill
 Giue her ane long gudenicht: and seeke vnto thy soir
 Sum hermitadge where broken herts · are heipit in stoir
 And there releefles dead: vpgaue the ghoist and all
 That woorthie fame may fetche of thee, a fate memoriall
 That as thou Loueing Liued: her Louer poore and trew
 Sua at thy Letter dying breathe: thou bade her last adew
 Thus sall thy ending bee · begging vnto her prais
 Her prais whilk neuer sall haue end: sall end my wretchet dayes

FINIS AMEN.

II.—POEM ON SOME OF THE AULD MAKARS OF BALLATES, SANGIS, AND TRAGEDIES,
BY ALLAN RAMSAY [1724].

[Originally printed as a Broadside, in double columns, without date, and Reprinted in the “MEMORIALS OF GEORGE BANNATYNE, 1545-1608.” Edited by DAVID LAING, Esq. for the Bannatyne Club, Edinburgh, 1829.]

SOME FEW OF THE CONTENTS.

EIR mighty JAMES the First, the best of Kings,
Imploys the merry Muse, and smyling sings.
Grave BALANTYNE, in verse divinely wyse,
Makis Vertew triumph owre fals fleechand Vyse.

And heir DUNBAR does with unbound ingyne,
In satyre, joke, and in the serious schyne.
He to best poets skairslie zields in ocht;
In language he may fail, but not in thocht.

Blyth KENNEDIE, contesting for the bays,
Attackis his freind DUNBAR in comick layis,
And seims the fittest hand (of ony then)
Against sae fell a fae to draw his pen.

Heir LETHINGTON the Statisman courts the Nyne,
Draps politicks a quhyle, and turns divyne;
Sings the Creation, and fair Eden tint,
And promise made to man, man durst not hint

To rouse couragious fyre behald the field,
Quhair Hardyknute, with lanss, bow, sword and scheild,
With his braif Sonis, dantit the King of Norss,
And cleithed the plain with mony a saules cors.
At Harlaw and Redsquire, the sonis may leir,
How thair forbears were unacquaint with feir.

Quhen frae the dumps ze wald zour mind discharge,
 Then tak the air in smiling SEMPLIS Berge :
 Or heir him jyb the carlis did Grissy blame,
 Quhen eild and spyte takis place of zouthheids Flame.

Licht skirtit lasses, and the girmand wyfe,
 FLEMING and Scot haif painted to the lyfe.
 Scot, sweit tungd Scot, quha sings the Welcum hame
 To MARY, our maist bony Soverane Dame ;
 How lyfie he and amorous STUART sing !
 Quhen lufe and bewtie bid them spred the wing.

To mend zour morals, with delyt attend,
 Quhyle HENRYSON dois guidness recommend ;
 Quhyle Truth throw his transport Fablis schynes,
 And all the mynd to quhat is just inclynes.

Amangst these starnis of ane immortal bleis,
 MONTGOMERY's quatorsimes soll evir pleis ;
 His eisy sangs, his Cherry and the Slae,
 Sall be esteimd quhyle sichs saft lufe betray.

LINDSAY the Lyon, hardly here is sene,
 But in the third Apartment of the Grene, *
 He soll appeir as on the verdant Stage ;
 He towind the vyces of a corrupt aige.

Thair Warkis I've publisht, neat, correct, and fair,
 Frae antique manuscriptis, with utmost cair.
 Thus to their fame, a monument we raise,
 Quhilk soll endure quhyle Tymis telld out be days.

* Ramsay announced his intention to publish a third and fourth volume of the Evergreen.
